Reports on non-accepted provisions

The European Committee of Social Rights ("the Committee") examines the situation of non-accepted provisions of the Revised Charter every 5 years after the ratification. It adopted reports concerning Georgia in 2012 and in 2015. The Committee considers that there are no legal obstacles to acceptance by Georgia of the following provisions: Article 2§3, Article 3§§1, 2 and 4, Article 4§5, Article 8§§1 and 2, Article 9, Article 10§§1 and 3, Article 15§1, Article 17§2, Article 21, and Article 22.

Further information on the reports on non-accepted provisions is available on the relevant webpage.

Monitoring the implementation of the European Social Charter ¹

I. Reporting system ²

Reports submitted by Georgia

Between 2007 and 2019, Georgia has submitted 12 reports on the application of the Revised Charter.

The 11th report, submitted on 03/11/2017 covers the accepted provisions of the Revised Social Charter relating to thematic group 3 "Labour rights" (Articles 2, 4, 5, 6, 21, 22, 26, 28, 29).

Conclusions with respect to these provisions have been published in March 2019.

The 12th report, which was submitted on 31/10/2018, concerns the accepted provisions relating to Thematic group 4 "Children, families, migrants", namely:

- the right of children and young persons to protection (Article 7),
- the right of employed women to protection (Article 8),
- the right of the family to social, legal and economic protection (Article 16),
- the right of mothers and children to social and economic protection (Article 17),
- the right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance (Article 19),
- the right of workers with family responsibilities to equal opportunities and equal treatment (Article 27),
- the right to housing (Article 31).

Conclusions with respect to these provisions will be published in January 2020.

¹ The Committee monitors compliance with the Charter under two procedures, the reporting system and the collective complaints procedure, according to Rule 2 of the Committee's rules: « 1. The Committee rules on the conformity of the situation in States with the European Social Charter, the 1988 Additional Protocol and the Revised European Social Charter. 2. It adopts conclusions through the framework of the reporting procedure and decisions under the collective complaints procedure ».

Further information on the procedures may be found on the HUDOC database and in the Digest of the case law of the Committee.

² Following a decision taken by the Committee of Ministers in 2006, the provisions of the Charter have been divided into four thematic groups. States present a report on the provisions relating to one of the four thematic groups on an annual basis. Consequently each provision of the Charter is reported on once every four years.

Following a decision taken by the Committee of Ministers in April 2014, States having accepted the collective complaints procedure are required, in alternation with the abovementioned report, to provide a simplified report on the measures taken to implement the decisions of the Committee adopted in collective complaints concerning their country. The alternation of reports is rotated periodically to ensure coverage of the four thematic groups.

Detailed information on the Reporting System is available on the relevant webpage. The reports submitted by States Parties may be consulted in the relevant section.

- a shift in the burden of proof applies in moral (psychological) harassment cases before civil courts;
- appropriate and effective redress (compensation and reinstatement) is guaranteed in cases of moral (psychological) harassment.

► Article 29 – Right to information and consultation in procedures of collective redundancy

The right of workers to be consulted in collective redundancy procedures is not effectively secured.

Thematic Group 4 «Children, families, migrants» - Conclusions 2015

► Article 7§1 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Prohibition of employment under the age of 15

- The prohibition of employment under the age of 15 does not apply to all economic sectors and all forms of economic activity;
- The daily and weekly working time for children under 15 is excessive and therefore cannot be qualified as light work;
- During the reference period there was no labour inspection supervising that the regulations on child labour were respected in practice.

► Article 7§2 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Prohibition of employment under the age of 18 for dangerous or unhealthy activities

During the reference period there was no labour inspection to supervise how the regulations regarding the prohibition of employment of young persons under 18 for dangerous or unhealthy activities were implemented in practice.

► Article 7§3 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Prohibition of employment of children subject to compulsory education

- The daily and weekly duration of light work permitted to children subject to compulsory education is excessive and therefore cannot be qualified as light work;
- During the reference period there was no labour inspection to monitor the conditions of work of children who are still subject to compulsory education.

► Article 7§4 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Working time

During the reference period there was no labour inspection to monitor the working time of young persons under 18 years of age who are no longer subject to compulsory schooling.

► Article 7§5 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Fair pay

It has not been established that the minimum wage paid to young workers is fair (Conclusions 2017 and 2015).

► Article 7§6 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Inclusion of time spent on vocational training in the normal working time

The time spent in vocational training is not included in the normal working time and remunerated as such.

► Article 7§8 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Prohibition of night work

During the reference period there was no labour inspection to monitor how the regulations regarding prohibition of night work of young persons under 18 years of age were implemented in practice.

► Article 7§9 - Right of children and young persons to protection - Regular medical examination

It has not been established that there is an initial medical check-up at recruitment and regular medical check-ups thereafter of young workers under 18 years of age employed in occupations specified by national laws and regulations (Conclusions 2017 and 2015).

► Article 8§5 - Right of employed women to protection of maternity - Prohibition of dangerous, unhealthy or arduous work

During the reference period, there were no adequate regulations on dangerous, unhealthy and arduous work in respect of pregnant women, women who have recently given birth or who are nursing their infant (Conclusions 2017).

► Article 17§1 – Right of children and young persons to social, legal and economic protection - Assistance, education and training

Not all forms of corporal punishment are prohibited in the home, in schools and in institutions (Conclusions 2017).

► Article 19§1 - Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance - Assistance and information on migration

No appropriate measures have been taken to counter misleading propaganda relating to emigration and immigration (Conclusions 2017).

► Article 19§4 - Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance - Equality regarding employment, right to organise and accommodation

It has not been established that equal treatment is secured in practice between migrant workers and nationals with regard to remuneration and working conditions, and accommodation (Conclusions 2017).

► Article 19§6 - Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance - Family reunion

II. Examples of progress achieved in the implementation of rights under the Charter (non-exhaustive list)

Thematic Group 1 « Employment, training and equal opportunities »

► Law on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination, which was enacted by the Georgian parliament on 2 May 2014 and entered into force on 7 May 2014. Its purpose is to eliminate discrimination on various grounds including health and disability (Article 1). The law prohibits all discrimination, both direct and indirect (Articles 2 §2 and 2 §3), and also introduces the notion of positive action in the context of promoting gender equality and in certain specific cases involving, inter alia, disability.

Thematic Group 2 « Health, social security and social protection »

► The launching of a Universal Healthcare Programme in February 2013, by virtue of which the personal coverage of health care has been significantly extended, from 29.5% of the population in 2010, to 100% after 2013. The Universal Healthcare Programme covers the basic package of planned and emergency in- and out-patient clinical care, including oncology and maternity services (see information provided under Article 11 of the National Report).

► The extension, in 2013, of paid maternity leave from 126 to 183 days (and from 140 to 200 days in case of complications) and the increase of minimum maternity benefits from GEL 600 to GEL 1000 (€382 at the rate of 31/12/2015).

Thematic Group 3 « Labour rights »

Thematic Group 4 « Children, families, migrants »

► According to Article 27 of the Labour Code, as amended by Organic Law of Georgia No.1393/ 2013, an employee (at her request) shall be granted maternity and child care leave of absence of 730 calendar days. 183 calendar days of maternity and child care leave of absence shall be paid. 200 calendar days shall be paid in the event of pregnancy complication or multiple births.
