

- Indication of a requirement to be notified about the date/place of the execution of the request as well as on the presence of particular persons with their contact details
-

It is very useful for the requested State to obtain this type of information at an early stage within the request itself to ensure that the requested measures are implemented appropriately and as expected by the requesting State within the required time frame (taking into account a reasonable term for the execution).