

EUROPEAN PROGRAMME FOR HUMAN RIGHTS EDUCATION FOR LEGAL PROFESSIONALS

"HELP IN THE 28" EUROPEAN SEMINAR ON FIGHT AGAINST RACISM, XENOPHOBIA, HOMOPHOBIA AND TRANSPHOBIA

BARCELONA, SPAIN 27/07/2016

The Council of Europe - European Union Programme "HELP in the 28" organised the European Seminar on the "Fight against racism, xenophobia, homophobia and transphobia", in collaboration with the Spanish School for the Judiciary in Barcelona on 26 and 27 July. More than 60 judges, prosecutors, lawyers and experts in the field actively participated in the seminar, including representatives from the HELP Network, EJT, CCBE, EQUINET bodies, NGOs and the EU Fundamental Rights Agency.

READ MORE

"LABOUR RIGHTS REQUIRE MORE PROTECTION IN TIMES OF CRISIS AND AUSTERITY": HELP IN THE 28 EUROPEAN SEMINAR IN SLOVENIA.

PORTOROZ, SLOVENIA 29/09/2016

The European Seminar, organised under the CoE/EU 'HELP in the 28' Programme in collaboration with the Slovenian Judicial Training Centre, ended with the conclusion that labour rights require even more protection in times of crisis and austerity measures. Judges, prosecutors and lawyers should redouble their efforts to enforce them. For legal professionals in the EU, the knowledge of both the CoE and EU system and case law is imperative prior to their implementation in their daily work.

READ MORE

COURSES DEVELOPED UNDER THE "HELP IN THE 28" PROGRAMME

Courses on Data Protection and Privacy Rights, Fight against racism, xenophobia and homophobia / transphobia, Labour Rights, Right to the integrity of a person, have been developed under the "HELP in the 28" Programme implemented by the Council of Europe. Funded by the EU, "HELP in the 28" is the largest training project within the EU on fundamental rights for judges, prosecutors and lawyers.

READ MORE

2016 HELP ANNUAL NETWORK CONFERENCE

STRASBOURG 16/06/2016

The Annual Conference 2016 took place on 16-17 June in Strasbourg. HELP in the 28 Programme was highlighted and a dedicated session to the members of the HELP Network in the 28 EU Countries was held. This year the event also focused on the topic "HELP, leading the way towards national case law harmonisation". If you have missed the Annual Conference 2016 here's what happened during this year's event.

READ MORE