Reports on non-accepted provisions

The European Committee of Social Rights ("the Committee") examines the situation of non-accepted provisions of the Revised Charter every 5 years after the ratification. It adopted reports concerning the Slovak Republic in 2015 and 2019.

The Committee was of the view that the Slovak Republic could consider acceptance of Articles 18§3, 19§4 (c) and 31§2.

Further information on the reports on non-accepted provisions is available on the relevant webpage.

Monitoring the implementation of the European Social Charter ¹

I. Reporting system ²

Reports submitted by the Slovak Republic

Between 2001 and 2022, Slovak Republic has submitted 7 reports on the application of the 1961 Charter and 12 reports on the application of the Revised Charter.

The 11th report, which was submitted on 27/11/2020, concerns the accepted provisions relating to thematic group 2 "Health, social security and social protection" (Articles 3, 11, 12, 13, 14, 23 and 30).

Conclusions with respect to these provisions have been published in March 2022.

The 12th report, which was submitted on 07/02/2022, concerns the accepted provisions relating to thematic group 3 "Labour rights", namely:

- the right to just conditions of work (Article 2);
- the right to a fair remuneration (Article 4);
- the right to organise (Article 5);
- the right to bargain collectively (Article 6);
- the right to information and consultation (Article 21);
- the right to take part in the determination and improvement of the working conditions and working environment (Article 22);
- the right to dignity at work (Article 26);
- the right of workers' representatives to protection in the undertaking and facilities to be accorded to them (Article 28);
- the right to information and consultation in collective redundancy procedures (Article 29).

Conclusions with respect to these provisions will be published in March 2023.

¹ The Committee monitors compliance with the Charter under two procedures, the reporting system and the collective complaints procedure, according to Rule 2 of the Committee's rules: « 1. The Committee rules on the conformity of the situation in States with the European Social Charter, the 1988 Additional Protocol and the Revised European Social Charter. 2. It adopts conclusions through the framework of the reporting procedure and decisions under the collective complaints procedure ». Further information on the procedures may be found on the HUDOC database and in the Digest of the case law of the Committee.

² Following a decision taken by the Committee of Ministers in 2006, the provisions of the Charter have been divided into four thematic groups. States present a report on the provisions relating to one of the four thematic groups on an annual basis. Consequently, each provision of the Charter is reported on once every four years. Following a decision taken by the Committee of Ministers in April 2014, States having accepted the collective complaints procedure are required, in alternation with the abovementioned report, to provide a simplified report on the measures taken to implement the decisions of the Committee adopted in collective complaints concerning their country. The alternation of reports is rotated periodically to ensure coverage of the four thematic groups. Detailed information on the Reporting System is available on the relevant webpage. The reports submitted by States Parties may be consulted in the relevant section.

Situations of non-conformity ³

Thematic Group 1 “Employment, training and equal opportunities” - Conclusions 2020

► Article 1§3- Right to work – Free placement services

It has not been established that employment services operate in an efficient manner.

► Article 10§4 - Right to vocational training - Long term unemployed persons

It has not been established that equal treatment with respect to access to training and retraining for the long-term unemployed persons is guaranteed to nationals of other States Parties.

► Article 20 - Right to equal opportunities and equal treatment in matters of employment and occupation without discrimination on the grounds of sex

- The legislation explicitly includes only certain elements of pay under the principle of equal pay;
- The obligation to make measurable progress in reducing the gender pay gap has not been fulfilled.

Thematic Group 2 “Health, social security and social protection” - Conclusions 2021

► Article 3§2 – Right to safe and healthy working conditions – Safety and health regulations

It has not been established that:

- self-employed and domestic workers are protected by occupational health and safety regulations;
- consultation with employers' and workers' organisations is ensured.

► Article 11§1- Right to protection of health - Removal of the causes of ill-health

Insufficient measures have been taken to reduce the number of premature deaths.

► Article 11§3 - Right to protection of health - Prevention of diseases and accidents

It has not been established that:

- adequate measures were taken to overcome environmental pollution;
- efficient immunisation and epidemiological monitoring programmes are in place.

► Article 12§1 – Right to social security - Existence of a social security system

The amount of sickness benefit can be reduced on discriminatory grounds.

► Article 12§4 - Right to social security - Social security of persons moving between states

It has not been established that the right to maintenance of accruing rights is guaranteed to nationals of all other States Parties.

► Article 13§1 - Right to social security - Right for every person in need to adequate assistance

The level of social assistance paid to a single person without resources is not adequate.

► Article 23 - Right of the elderly to social protection

- The level of the minimum old age pension is inadequate;
- The amount of social assistance is inadequate where the person has no other resources.

Thematic Group 3 “Labour rights” - Conclusions 2018

► Article 2§1 - Right to just conditions of work - Reasonable working time

The length of the authorized working week is excessive and that the legal guarantees are insufficient.

► Article 2§2 - Right to just conditions of work - Public holidays with pay

Work performed on a public holiday is not adequately compensated, when the minimum standards of compensation are applied.

³ Further information on the situations of non-conformity is available on the HUDOC database.

► Article 4§2 - Right to a fair remuneration - Increased remuneration for overtime work

The time off to compensate overtime work is not sufficient.

► Article 4§4 - Right to a fair remuneration - Reasonable notice of termination of employment

- Notice periods in cases of dismissal on grounds of conduct and performance and certain other grounds are not reasonable for employees with more than five years of service;
- The notice period applicable to dismissal during the probationary period is not reasonable for workers with more than three months of service.

► Article 4§5 - Right to a fair remuneration - Limits to deduction from wages

- Workers may waive their right to limitations on deductions from wages;
- After all authorised deductions, the wages of workers with the lowest pay do not enable them to provide for themselves or their dependants.

► Article 6§4 - Right to bargain collectively - Collective action

The right to strike for a large number of state/public sector employees is prohibited and the restrictions go beyond the limits permitted by Article G of the Charter.

Thematic Group 4 “Children, families, migrants” - Conclusions 2019

► Article 8§2 – Right of employed women to protection - Illegality of dismissal during maternity leave

A woman worker can be dismissed during her pregnancy or maternity leave if she does not accept changes in her employment contract resulting from the relocation of all or part of the employer’s activities.

► Article 16 – Right of the family to social, legal and economic protection

- The measures taken do not ensure an adequate protection of women against domestic violence;
- The protection of Roma families with respect to housing, including in terms of eviction conditions, is inadequate.

► Article 17§1 – Right of children and young persons to social, legal and economic protection - Assistance, education and training

- Not all forms of corporal punishment are prohibited in all settings;
- The maximum length of pre-trial detention is excessive;
- It has not been established that children in public care are adequately cared for.

► Article 17§2 – Right of children and young persons to social, legal and economic protection - Free primary and secondary education - regular attendance at school

- The net enrolment rate in compulsory education is too low;
- It has not been established that adequate measures have been taken to include Roma children in mainstream education.

► Article 19§6 – Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance - Family reunion

Family members of a migrant worker are not granted an independent right to stay after exercising their right to family reunion.

The Committee has been unable to assess compliance with the following provisions and has invited the Government of the Slovak Republic to provide more information in the next report thereon:

II. Examples of progress achieved in the implementation of rights under the Charter (non - exhaustive list)

Thematic Group 1 "Employment, training and equal opportunities"

► Measures taken by employers to deal with the decline in skilled labour in the face of technological and/or economic progress (Act No. 386/1997 on the system of further training).

► Equal treatment in relation to vocational continuing training is guaranteed to nationals of others states party to the Charter and the Revised Charter who reside legally and work regularly in Slovakia (Act No. 5/2004).

► Act 184/2009 Coll. on Vocational Education and Training is one of the pillars of the reform of the educational system. The Act was amended in September 2012 and the amendment strengthened the coordination of vocational training and education to be better suited to the needs of the labour market. The amendment also introduced the obligation to publish information about the employability of graduates in each individual self-governing region, according to the fields of study and type of the secondary education facility.

► The Anti-Discrimination Act was amended in 2012 to cover the definition of indirect discrimination and it now enables public administration bodies and legal entities, including employers, to adopt temporary compensatory measures to eliminate disadvantages due to gender.

Thematic Group 2 "Health, social security and social protection"

► Adoption of several laws and regulations on minimum safety and health requirements at work, covering most of the relevant risks, i.e. among others, those related to health protection at work with ionising radiations, carcinogens, biological and chemical agents, asbestos, noise and vibrations, as well as minimum safety and health requirements for the use of work equipment and for the manual handling of loads at work.

► Incorporation of health education and promotion in school curricula.

Thematic Group 3 "Labour rights"

Thematic Group 4 "Children, families, migrants"

► The amount of maternity benefits increased from 65% (Conclusions 2015) to 75% of the employee's salary.
