

Information provided by the Ministry of Interior of the Republic of Serbia concerning threats against journalists of the Portal Insajder

With reference to threats against journalists of the Portal Insajder, the Ministry of Interior of the Republic of Serbia informs that the Department of Criminal Police, Office for combating organized crime, filled criminal charges against persons in respect of whom there is reasonable suspicion of committing a criminal offence Endangering security, in accordance with article 138 of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Serbia. The criminal offence was done by sending (from private e-mail address, via contact form on portal Insajder) several threatening messages to Ms Brankica Stanković and to all employees of the portal Insajder, as well as threats to Mr Veran Matic.