

Information provided by the Ministry of Interior of the Republic of Serbia concerning “smear campaign” against journalist Stevan Dojčinović

With reference to “smear campaign” against Stevan Dojčinović, journalist and editor-in-chief of KRIK, the Ministry of Interior of the Republic of Serbia informs that the Department of Criminal Police, Office for combating cybercrime, has established that Mr. Stevan Dojčinović was subject of criticism by certain media with the intention to harm his reputation, but he was not subject of attack intended to directly harm his physical integrity or life. Additionally, in accordance with the Article 153 of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Serbia, prosecution for criminal offences against honour and reputation shall be conducted against private complaint.