OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE

- To enable Director Generals of European prison administration and Directors of probation services to share good practices and working methods regarding the implementation of the relevant Council of Europe standards and in the first place the European Prison Rules, the Council of Europe Probation Rules and the European Rule for juvenile offenders subject to sanctions or measures with a view to better preparing prisoners for release and reintegration into society;
- To identify possible current problems faced by the prison and probation services and to propose common solutions;
- To express opinion regarding possible steps to be taken at the Council of Europe level to improve prison conditions and treatment of prisoners including monitoring of implementation of the standards and capacity building measures.
