

A commentary on the Council of Europe Convention on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings

Edited by Julia Planitzer and Helmut Sax

EDWARD ELGAR PUBLISHING

■ The Commentary on the Council of Europe Convention on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings was developed over three years at the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights with the financial support of the Austrian Science Fund (FWF) and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Justice and Culture of the Principality of Liechtenstein.

■ The two editors, Julia Planitzer and Helmut Sax, as well as several of the other authors are former or current members of the Council of Europe Group of Experts on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings (GRETA).

■ This comprehensive Commentary provides the first analysis and interpretation of the Council of Europe Convention on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings. It offers a concise yet thorough article-by-article guide to the Convention's standards and corresponding human rights obligations.

■ The Commentary includes an analysis of each article's drafting history, alongside a contextualisation of its provisions with other anti-trafficking standards and a discussion of the core issues of interpretation. The Commentary also presents the findings of the Convention's monitoring body, GRETA, providing a better understanding of the practical implications and challenges in relation to the Convention's standards.
