CDMSI(2021)001

19th meeting of the Steering Committee on Media and Information Society
(CDMSI)

(19-21 May 2021, via videoconference)

ABRIDGED MEETING REPORT

Meeting details

The CDMSI held its 19th meeting from 19 to 21 May 2021 via videoconference, chaired by Ms Inge Welbergen (the Netherlands).

Mr Jan Kleijssen, Director of the Information Society – Action against Crime Directorate welcomed the members and provided an update on the relevant activities of the Council of Europe and its key priorities in the next four-year framework, including hate speech, protection of journalism and AI.

The CDMSI adopted the agenda as it is set out in Appendix I. The list of participants appears in Appendix II. Gender distribution: 110 participants, 49 men (45%) and 61 women (55%)

List of items for decision by the Committee of Ministers

- Take note of the abridged report of the 19th Plenary meeting of the Steering Committee on Media and Information Society (CDMSI) (19-21 May 2021).

List of items for information of the Committee of Ministers

The CDMSI:

Regarding standard-setting activities

- noted with regret that the Draft recommendation on promoting a favourable environment for quality journalism in the digital age, approved by the CDMSI in December 2019, was still pending for adoption by the Committee of Ministers, and held an exchange of views on possible ways to advance the adoption process;

- discussed the progress of the Draft recommendation on the impacts of digital technologies on freedom of expression and the finalisation of the Draft guidance note on best practices towards effective legal and procedural frameworks for self-regulatory and co-regulatory mechanisms of content moderation, presented by Mr Viktors Makarovs, Vice-chair of the Expert Committee on Freedom of Expression and Digital Technologies \(MSI-DIG\), and agreed to hold a public consultation on the Draft recommendation, before presenting the final revised version for possible approval at the next plenary meeting in December 2021;
- adopted the Guidance note on best practices towards effective legal and procedural frameworks for self-regulatory and co-regulatory mechanisms of content moderation;
- exchanged views with Mr Triantafillos Loukarelis, Chair of the Steering Committee on Anti-Discrimination, Diversity and Inclusion \(CDADI\), in particular on the joint ongoing work on the Draft Recommendation on a Comprehensive approach to Combating Hate Speech \(ADI-MSI-DIS\);
- discussed the Draft Recommendation on a comprehensive approach to combating hate speech presented by Ms Maria Run Bjarnadottir, Chair of the Committee of Experts on Combating Hate Speech (ADI/MSI-DIS), and agreed to hold a public consultation on the Draft recommendation;
- instructed its Bureau to coordinate with the Bureau of the CDADI and ensure that a consolidated first version of the Draft Recommendation on a comprehensive approach to combating hate speech is made available for public consultation;
- discussed the Draft recommendation on principles for media and communication governance, the Draft recommendation on electoral communication and media coverage of election campaigns, and the Draft Guidance note on the prioritisation of public interest content online presented by Mr Mark David Cole, member of the Expert Committee on Media Environment and Reform \(MSI-REF\), and agreed to hold a public consultation on the two draft recommendations, before presenting final revised versions for possible approval at the next plenary meeting in December 2021;
- welcomed the adoption of the Facial recognition guidelines by the Consultative committee of the convention for the protection of individuals with regard to automatic processing of personal data (Convention 108) and took note of the Declaration of the Committee of Ministers on the future role of Convention 108, as well as the ratification process of the amending Protocol of the Convention 108, which is to be further advanced;

- welcomed the adoption of the Feasibility study on a legal framework on AI design, development and application based on the Council of Europe standards, adopted by the CAHAI, and took note of the ongoing work of the CAHAI and its sub-working groups CAHAI-LFG, CAHAI-PDG and CAHAI-COG, as well as of the modalities of the multi-stakeholder consultation process, as presented by Ms Clementina Barbaro, Co-Secretary of the CAHAI;

Regarding the implementation of Council of Europe adopted standards and best practices

- welcomed the publication of an interactive version of the Implementation Guide to the Committee of Ministers' Recommendation CM/Rec(2016)4 on the protection of journalism and safety of journalists and other media actors;

Regarding the Conference of ministers responsible for media and information society (10-11 June 2021)

- took note of the state of preparations for the Conference and the programme of the event. The delegates exchanged views on ways to ensure the highest level of participation of member states and discussed in detail the expected involvement of ministers and other government representatives in the ministerial round table scheduled on the second day of the conference, as well as in the thematic discussions dedicated to the four main topics of the Conference;
- approved
 - the Draft Resolution on freedom of expression and digital technologies
 - the Draft Resolution on the changing media and information environment
 - the Draft Resolution on the safety of journalists
- revised and approved
 - the Draft Resolution on the impact of the health crisis on freedom of expression
 - the Draft Final Declaration
- agreed to forward the four approved draft resolutions and the Draft Final Declaration to member states in view of their adoption at the Ministerial conference, and noted that, upon adoption of the above documents during the Ministerial conference, an interpretative statement may be made by one member state following its inability to support some provisions of the documents of the Ministerial Conference;

Regarding activities in the field of internet/digital governance

- took note and discussed the information provided by Mr Yannick Meneceur, Head of Digital Development Unit, on the Partnership with business companies and their involvement in various activities of the Council of Europe ranging from standard-setting work to conferences and other events;

Regarding planning

- took note of the information provided by the secretariat on the Council of Europe Strategic Framework for 2022-2025. The members were informed that freedom of expression issues, in particular the safety of journalists, digital technologies including AI and hate speech, are among the Organisation's main priorities for the years to come. A longer, four-year period has been introduced as a framework for the programming, with a mid-term review envisaged to allow adjusting according to emerging challenges and/or policy decisions;
- took note and discussed the information provided by the secretariat on the ongoing work on the future Terms of Reference of the CDMSI, which will take into account the priorities set by the Council of Europe Strategic Framework for 2022-2025 as well as proposals received from CDMSI members since the plenary meeting held in November 2020. The delegates exchanged views on their envisaged main areas of work for 2022-2025 and the nature of the future deliverables;
- took note of the adoption of the Resolution CM/Res(2021)3 on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods aimed at introducing increased and updated framework providing more clarity on a number of rules on the work of the steering and other intergovernmental committees;

Regarding an application for observer status

- postponed the decision on the application of the European Centre for Press and Media Freedom (ECPMF) to the next meeting due to a lack of quorum;

Regarding other developments

- welcomed the presentation by Mr Alexander Seger, Executive secretary of the Cybercrime Convention Committee, Head of Cybercrime Division, on the state of play of the Cybercrime Convention, the development of a new Protocol to the Convention and related capacity-building activities;
- welcomed the presentation by Ms Elvana Thaçi, Administrator, Human Rights, Directorate General Human Rights and Rule of Law, about the provisions of the Council of Europe Convention on Access to Official Documents (CETS No. 205) and the steps taken to ensure the monitoring of its implementation;

- welcomed the presentation by Ms Maja Capello, Head of Department for Legal Information of the European Audiovisual Observatory, about the institutional changes relating to the Observatory and its recent work and projects;
- welcomed the information provided by Ms Anne Weber, Adviser to the Commissioner for Human Rights of the Council of Europe, on the recent work of the Commissioner on freedom of expression and media freedom;
- shared information about initiatives in member states, in particular on the (i) national strategy and legislative work related to hate speech in Armenia presented by Ms Anna Karapetyan; (ii) about the takeaways from the Conference on Artificial Intelligence and the Future of Journalism Today organised by the Portuguese Presidency of the Council of the EU and about relevant legislative developments in Portugal presented by Ms Charlotte Simões; (iii) about the Swiss Covid-19 related media support measures and a new national and international “network for digital self-determination” aiming to overcome the often proclaimed dichotomy between data-driven innovation and the respect for fundamental freedoms, provided by Ms Christiane Erkoreka and Mr Thomas Schneider; and (iv) about a Ukrainian database allowing for content sharing among audiovisual media and the methodology for monitoring gender equality in media provided by Ms Olha Herasymiuk;
- took note of the information provided by the secretariat on the events organised as part of Germany’s Presidency of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe, in particular the online-conference “Human Rights in the Era of AI - Europe as international Standard Setter for Artificial Intelligence”, conference “Unboxing Hate Speech: European Impulses for Respect and Solidarity on the Web” and the Webinar on the impact of Covid-19 on media freedom;
- took note of the latest information from other Council of Europe institutions and bodies, circulated by the Secretariat in writing ahead of the meeting;
- took note of the information provided by the Secretariat:
 - on the co-operation with the European Union, including the exchanges of information and consultations with the European Commission on issues of common interest (the safety of journalists, the SLAPPs, and developments related to the Draft Digital Services Act), and the exchanges of information with parliamentary commissions of the European Parliament and with the Fundamental Rights Agency;
 - on the co-operation with UNESCO and the OSCE Representative on Freedom of Media, including the events with the participation of the Council of Europe representatives, inter-secretariat coordination meetings and conferences held on topics such as press freedom and safety of journalists, as well as on the co-operation with civil society organisations and academia, such as the exchanges within the EuroDIG, with the European Federation of journalists and the European Broadcasting Union;

- on the work of the Council of Europe Taskforce on freedom of expression and media, and in particular the contribution of the taskforce to the preparation of a new Report of the Secretary General addressing freedom of expression issues (SLAPPs, media coverage of public demonstrations, audio-visual bans) to be presented in the second part of 2021;
- on the publication of the Secretary General's annual report 2021 "State of Democracy, Human Rights and the Rule of Law: A democratic renewal for Europe";
- on the finalisation of the CDMSI comments requested on the Draft General Recommendation on the digital dimension of violence against women, and their transmission to the Group of Experts on Action against Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (GREVIO).

The CDMSI noted the dates of the next Bureau and plenary meetings, set for 26-27 October 2021 and 1-3 December 2021, respectively.

Noting the absence of a quorum, the CDMSI finalised the abridged report of the meeting and agreed that in the absence of reactions by 7 June, lunchtime, it will be considered adopted by the plenary.
