The Council of Europe Committee on Counter-Terrorism (CDCT), meeting in Strasbourg on 16-18 May 2018 under the Chairmanship of Mr Mario JANEČEK (Bosnia and Herzegovina), decided to:

1. Opening of the meeting

- Take note of the opening remarks by Mr Jan KLEIJSEN, Director of the Directorate of Information Society and Action against Crime, who welcomed the first meeting of the CDCT in its new format and congratulated Mr Mario JANEČEK as Chairman of the CDCT. The Director focused on the situation of international terrorism at the global level and in Europe, notably on the new problems and challenges that member States are facing in the wake of the military defeat of Daesh in Syria and Iraq. In this context, Mr KLEIJSEN noted that the CDCT is in a key position to assist member States in developing policies, as well as legal and practical tools. However, Mr KLEIJSEN also informed the CDCT that the Council of Europe is in a difficult financial situation and reiterated that it cannot be excluded that budgetary pressures will have an effect on the work of the Committee. As an example of the help member States can provide in this challenging context, he welcomed the secondment of Ms Hanna MÄNTYLÄ by Finland as special advisor on radicalisation. On substance, the Director drew the attention to two very important items on the CDCT's agenda, namely the Council of Europe Counter-Terrorism Strategy (2018 – 2022) and the issue of a pan-European legal definition of terrorism. As regards the strategy, he praised the work accomplished by the working group for providing a strategic and more coordinated vision to the CDCT work. As for the work on a definition of terrorism, Mr KLEIJSEN stressed the importance to harmonise the legal concepts of terrorism for the whole Council of Europe area. Moreover, Mr KLEIJSEN informed the CDCT on recent developments concerning the formal exchange of letters that had taken place between the Council of Europe and private internet companies and telecommunications services allowing for the involvement of the latter in the intergovernmental co-operation in the Council of Europe. Finally, the Director remarked on the positive outcome of the third meeting of the Council of Europe 24/7 Network on Foreign Terrorist Fighters, held in Paris on 20 April 2018, at which the national contact points confirmed the effectiveness and added value of the Network.
