The rules of procedure of the ADI-ROM are governed by Resolution CM/Res(2011)24 on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods.

Whenever appropriate, it will prioritise environmentally sound working methods, such as virtual meetings facilitated by information technology and written consultations.

In addition, the following provisions shall apply:

The ADI-ROM holds two meetings per year, one of which may be hosted by a member State. When a meeting is hosted by a member State, arrangements with the host country shall ensure that the meeting will not entail additional costs for the Council of Europe.

The ADI-ROM will form small thematic groups to analyse and evaluate specific issues identified by the Committee by means of exchanges of information and experiences (reporting) and thematic visits. Each thematic group is composed of one expert from a member State wishing to benefit from the experience of other member States ("requesting country") and up to four experts from member States wishing to share their experience in this area ("partner country"). Experts of the thematic groups can be ADI-ROM members of the countries concerned or experts appointed by the ADI-ROM. The requesting country invites the partner countries' experts and the Secretariat to visit the country for a maximum of two and half days. With prior approval of the thematic group, representatives of European Institutions and agencies and of other international organisations having participant or observer status with the ADI-ROM, and members of the Secretariat of other relevant Council of Europe bodies, may participate in thematic visits at their own expense. The thematic reports resulting from those visits are discussed and endorsed in ADI-ROM meetings and submitted to the CDADI for decision on the follow-up. The ADI-ROM will carry out at least two such peer-reviews per year.

The members of each thematic group will be invited to attend the ADI-ROM meeting at which their report is discussed. The travel and subsistence expenses related to their participation in that meeting will be reimbursed.

If an ADI-ROM meeting takes place in a member State, it may be also be used for a thematic visit.

The Committee will appoint a Gender Equality Rapporteur, a Roma Youth Rapporteur, a Roma Children Rapporteur and a Rapporteur on Anti-Gypsyism and Hate Speech and Violence from amongst its members.

In derogation from Article 6 of Appendix 1 to Resolution CM/Res(2011)24, and in conformity with Article 17 of the same appendix, in addition to the official working languages of the Organisation (English, French), interpretation will be provided into the Romani language and the agenda translated into Romani for regular meetings whenever necessary and within the limits of available budgetary appropriations. Any adopted pertinent texts (e.g. Recommendations adopted by the Committee of Ministers) will also be translated into Romani.
