The Doping Panel (DoN) is a specific disciplinary body for cases relating to Anti-Doping Rule Violations. It functions as the first instance for offences against the Swedish ADR. The Board consists of a chairman, a vice-chairman and four members elected by the Swedish Sports Confederation (SSC) General Assembly. The Supreme Sports Tribunal (RIN) is the highest legal body within Swedish sports. RIN consists of a chairman, vice-chairman and six other members elected by the SSC's General Assembly. The Doping Panel's decision in a case can be appealed to the RIN. Both DoN and RIN are institutionally and operationally independent from SSC and ADSE.
