

Co-operation project between the CEPEJ and the Ministry of Justice of the Slovak Republic

Strengthening the efficiency and quality of the Slovak judicial system

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Reforms with a view to strengthening the efficiency of the Slovak judicial system and the quality of courts

9 July 2019

Borik Hotel

Bratislava, Slovakia

Outline

The goal of this conference is to review the results of the cooperation between the European Commission for the Efficiency of Justice (CEPEJ), the Ministry of Justice of the Slovak Republic and other national partners, as part of the project "Strengthening the efficiency and quality of the Slovak judicial system".

Another objective is to consolidate the communication and public relations with judges, experts and the general public by informing them about the on-going reform of the justice system, so that they can engage in the reform process. For the same purpose, a press briefing will take place at the end of the event.

The event served as a platform for presenting the strategic view of the Slovak justice sector stakeholders on the way forward to increasing the efficiency and the quality of services in the Slovak justice sector, as well as the CEPEJ experts' recommendations based on case studies of different European countries.
