

POLICE CONFERENCE:

“Policing in the digital age: how new technologies can help improve policing in our modern societies”

AGENDA

Strasbourg, France

28- 29 June 2022

Council of Europe

COUNCIL OF EUROPE

CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Tuesday 28th June

08.30 – 09.00 Welcome of participants

09.00 - 09.30

OPENING SESSION

Director, Directorate of Human Rights, Council of Europe

Police Director, Chief of national police investigation service of Norway

09.30 - 10.30

SESSION 1: Background and state of technology in 2022 in modern societies

Moderator: Police programme adviser, Council of Europe

Head of team Prevention/Outreach at the Strategic Unit of the Cybercrime Centre, EUROPOL

“Cyberthreats and digital investigation: what are the challenges?”

Director, Innovation Centre in Singapore, INTERPOL

“Innovation and digitalisation in policing: A roadmap for action”

10.30 - 10.45

Coffee break

10.45 - 11.30

Adjunct associate professor at the University College of Dublin, private sector and former police officer, academic digital forensic expert

“The use of artificial intelligence to solve the challenges of modern investigations”

Director, Information Society and Action against Crime Directorate,
Council of Europe

“The work of the committee on artificial intelligence and the future convention”

11.30 – 12.00

Discussion, Questions & Answers

12.00 – 13.30

Lunch break

13.30 – 15.00	SESSION 2: Challenges and opportunities of new technologies for police services Moderator: Communication and Coordination Expert, CESP (The European Council of Police Trade Unions) Head of development, National Operations Department of the Swedish Police  “Digital challenges and opportunities in Law Enforcement” Cybercrime programme office, Council of Europe “Access to electronic evidence - challenges and tools” International Centre for Missing and Exploited Children (ICMEC), United States  “The role of NGOs and the private sector in working with police: positive and proactive approaches and the long-term feedback”
15.00 – 15.30	Discussion, Questions &amp; Answers Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	SESSION 3: The positive aspects of new technologies in policing and why it stands as an asset for police Moderator: Police programme adviser, Council of Europe Deputy Director General, Financial department of the Italian Arm of Carabineers  “The case ‘ ” Police commissioner and special adviser for the national police Director  “The positive aspect of technology within the French national police” Acting Head of the cybercrime unit at the national Romanian police  “The operation Quicksand, a ransomware investigation” Spanish Police Inspector, Money Laundering and Anticorruption Uni  "Cryptocurrencies as the new Hawala system"
17.00 – 18.00	Reception at the Council of Europe (Parliamentarians’ bar)
End of day one

Wednesday 29th June

08.45 - 09.00	Welcome of participants
09.00 – 10.30	SESSION 4: How new technologies interact with police human resources, the profiles of newly recruited police officers and the needs for continuous training Moderator: Communication and Coordination Expert, CESP (The European Council of Police Trade Unions) Teacher and researcher at the Polytechnique University of Valenciennes, France “Big data environment and intuitive decision making: the case of a command and information centre in Marseille’s police department” Head of Operations Department, CEPOL “The Law enforcement Education platform (LEEd) and the training it offers in the area of technological crime knowledge” Senior Police officer, Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava, Slovak Republic “Using the national LEEd platform under CEPOL's multi-tenant learning system” Programme Officer, Media and Internet Governance Unit, Information Society Department, Council of Europe “The Council of Europe digital partnership with the private sector” Executive Secretary of the MEDICRIME Convention of the Council of Europe “The role of law enforcement in the context of pharmaceutical crime”
10.30- 11.00	Discussion, Questions & Answers
11.00 – 11.30	Coffee break
11.30 – 11.45	Summary of the Conference Head of the Unit for Co-operation in Police and Deprivation of Liberty, Council of Europe
11.45 – 12.00	CLOSING OF THE CONFERENCE Police Director, Chief of national police investigation service of Norway