

НАЦІОНАЛЬНА
ШКОЛА
СУДДІВ УКРАЇНИ

Верховний
Суд

PROGRAMME

High level international conference

PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS THROUGH JUDICIAL EDUCATION: BEST PRACTICES AND IMPROVEMENT OF STANDARDS

9-10 December 2019

Venue: Kyiv, Plenum of the Supreme Court hall, Pylypa Orlyka Str., 8

9 December 2019 (Monday)

09 ³⁰ – 10 ⁰⁰	Registration of participants Welcome coffee (room 128, 1 st floor)
10 ⁰⁰ – 10 ²⁰	Welcome speeches Mykola Onishchuk, Rector of the National School of Judges of Ukraine Valentyna Danishevska, President of the Supreme Court, Ukraine Andrii Ovsiienko, Head of the High Council of Justice Regis Brillat, Special Advisor to the Secretary General for Ukraine, Council of Europe Special guest of the conference Adele Kent, Chief Judicial Officer of the National Judicial Institute of Canada, that is the co-founder of the International Organization for Judicial Training (IOJT), and the host of the 10th IOJT International Conference in 2021
10 ²⁰ – 10 ⁴⁰	Key-note speech: The paramount importance of judicial training for the implementation of the European Convention on Human Rights at the national level Fredrik Sundberg, Acting Head of the Department for the Execution of Judgments of the European Court of Human Rights, Council of Europe
10 ⁴⁰ – 12 ⁰⁰	SESSION I: Determining role of national judicial schools in the initial training of judges Moderator: Mykola Onishchuk, Rector of the National School of Judges of Ukraine Speeches - up to 10-15 minutes, questions and comments – up to 3 minutes Standards of the judicial education and their influence on the administration of justice Mykola Onishchuk, Rector of the National School of Judges of Ukraine Initial training in EU member states, short overview. Methodologies and content: what is the approach of the Latvian Judicial Training Centre Solvita Kalnina-Caune, Director of Latvian Judicial Training Centre Initial training of judges: the mission of the Portuguese Judicial Training School Joao Manuel da Silva Miguel, Director of the Centre for Judicial Studies of Portugal Initial training, from a legal professional to an excellent magistrate Astrid Hopma, Senior Course Manager International Department of the Training and Study Centre for the Judiciary, the Netherlands Status of initial and subsequent training of judges in the Republic of Azerbaijan Elchin Abuzar ogly Halafov, Acting Rector of the Academy of Justice of Republic of Azerbaijan Questions and comments
12 ⁰⁰ – 12 ³⁰	Coffee break (room 128, 1 st floor)

12³⁰ – 13³⁰

SESSION II: Providing continuous training of judges on the standards of the European Convention, the-case law of the European Court of Human Rights

*Moderators: Nataliia Shuklina, Vice-Rector of the National School of Judges of Ukraine
Zurab Aznaurashvili, Deputy Director of the High School of Justice of Georgia*

Speeches - up to 10-15 minutes, questions and comments – up to 3 minutes

Continuous training of judges on the standards of the European Convention and the case law of the European Court of Human Rights: the state of play in the Portuguese Judicial Training School

Joao Manuel da Silva Miguel, Director of the Centre for Judicial Studies of Portugal

From raising awareness to changing attitudes - Polish experience on continuous training of judges on the European Convention on Human Rights and the jurisprudence of the ECHR

Agnieszka Kluczyńska-Cichocka, Head of International Cooperation Department National School of Judiciary and Public Prosecution of Poland

Implementation of the European Court of Human Rights practice to the judges' training process in Ukraine: achievements and challenges

Tetyana Fuley, Head of the Scientific Judicial Research and Scientific Methodological Support Department, National School of Judges of Ukraine

Initial and continuous training of judges on the human rights' protection issues: practice of the Armenian Justice Academy

Anahit Manasyan, Vice-Rector of the Academy of Justice of the Republic of Armenia

Questions and comments

13³⁰

Taking pictures (general photo, 1st floor Hall)

13³⁰ – 14³⁰

Lunch (room 128, 1st floor)

14³⁰ – 16⁰⁰

SESSION II (continued): Providing continuous training of judges on the standards of the European Convention, the-case law of the European Court of Human Rights

*Moderators: Nadia Stefaniv, Judge of Supreme Court (Ukraine), Trainer
Luca Perilli, Member of the Board of Directors of the Italian School for the Judiciary, Convener of the Judicial Training Methods Working Group of the European Judicial Training Network*

Speeches - up to 10-15 minutes, questions and comments – up to 3 minutes

Continuous judicial training for improving the effective judicial protection of human rights. The Gaius network in Italy

Luca Perilli, Member of the Board of Directors of the Italian School for the Judiciary, Convener of the Judicial Training Methods Working Group of the European Judicial Training Network

Practice of Georgia implementing ECtHR case-law in trainings

Zurab Aznaurashvili, Deputy Director of the High School of Justice of Georgia

Presentation of the Council of Europe HELP online courses on human rights

Eva Pastrana, Head of HELP Unit, Council of Europe

Questions and comments

16⁰⁰ – 16³⁰

Coffee break

16³⁰ – 17⁵⁰

SESSION III: The Key Role of the Judge in the Implementation of the European Convention, the European Social Charter and ECHR case-law Standards in the National Judicial practice

Moderators: Regis Brillat, Special Advisor to the Council of Europe Secretary General for Ukraine

Tetyana Antsupova, Judge of the Supreme Court Grand Chamber, Ukraine

Speeches - up to 10-15 minutes, questions and comments – up to 3 minutes

Justifiability of social and economic rights guaranteed by the European Social Charter in the member-states

Monica Smusz-Kulesza, Council of Europe international consultant, Judge of the District Court for Lodz-Srodmiemie in Lodz, Poland

How to Address Structural and Systemic Problems Identified by the European Court through Judicial Education

Pavlo Pushkar, Head of Division of the Department for the Execution of Judgments, Council of Europe

Extension of the European Court of Human Rights consultative competencies: value and consequences for national case-law

Tetyana Antsupova, Judge of the Supreme Court Grand Chamber, Ukraine

The Role of the National Institute of Magistracy of Romania in the implementation of the judgments of the European Court of Human Rights

Irina Cambrea, Deputy Director, National Institute of Magistracy, Romania

Procedure for review of national courts decisions on the basis of the European Court of Human Rights decision: Ukrainian legislation needs to be improved

Dmytro Gudyma, Judge of the Grand Chamber of the Supreme Court, Ukraine

Questions and comments

17⁵⁰ – 18⁰⁰

Summary of the first day of the conference

18⁰⁰

Reception (room 128, 1st floor)

09⁰⁰ – 09³⁰

Registration of participants

Morning coffee

09³⁰ – 11³⁰

SESSION IV: Providing Modern Judicial Education: Content, Participants, Methodology, and Tools

Part 1: How to make training effective? (Content, Methodology and Tools)

Moderators: Tetyana Fuley, Head of the Scientific Judicial Research and Scientific Methodological Support Department, National School of Judges of Ukraine;

Joao Manuel da Silva Miguel, Director of the Centre for Judicial Studies of Portugal

Speeches - up to 10-15 minutes, questions and comments – up to 3 minutes

What could we call an effective training? How do training institutions define training needs? Does the outcome of a training session meet your expectations?

Solvita Kalnina-Caune, Director of Latvian Judicial Training Centre

Changing our way of training. Methods and evaluation

Luca Perilli, Member of the Board of Directors of the Italian School for the Judiciary. Convener of the Judicial Training Methods Working Group of the European Judicial Training Network

New approaches of the National Institute of Justice for the better training of judges in Moldova

Olga Musteata, Head of International Relations Section, National Institute of Justice, Republic of Moldova

Specific methods of training judges in the field of human rights

Irina Cambrea, Deputy Director, National Institute of Magistracy, Romania

Psychological training in the system of a judicial education: experience of the National School of Judges of Ukraine

Hanna Savchenko, Head of the Department of Scientific and Methodological Support to Psychological Judicial Training, National School of Judges of Ukraine

Innovative training methods in the Hungarian judicial training

Mária Simon, Head Advisor of the Presidential Cabinet of the National Office for the Judiciary of Hungary

Enikő Szilágyi, Head of the Department for International Relations of the Hungarian Academy of Justice

National versions of HELP courses: example of data protection

Eva Pastrana, Head of HELP Unit, Council of Europe

Questions and comments

11³⁰ – 12⁰⁰

Coffee break (room 128, 1st floor)

SESSION IV: Providing Modern Judicial Education: Content, Participants, Methodology, and Tools (continued)

Part 2: By whom and for who the training is provided? (Trainers and Trainees)

*Moderators: Olga Shapovalova, Head of the Training of Trainers Department of the National School of Judges of Ukraine
Solvita Kalnina-Caune, Director of Latvian Judicial Training Centre*

Speeches - up to 10-15 minutes, questions and comments – up to 3 minutes

Effective Use of Community Members in NJI Training

Adele Kent, Chief Judicial Officer, National Judicial Institute, Canada*

Training of trainers as a judges schools` component for effective capacity building: experience of Ukraine

Olga Shapovalova, Head of the Training of Trainers Department, National School of Judges of Ukraine*

How to create needs oriented judicial training – National School of Judiciary and Public Prosecution experience

Agnieszka Kluczyńska-Cichocka, Judge, Head of International Cooperation Department, National School of Judiciary and Public Prosecution of Poland*

Training in the execution and the execution in training: the new HELP online course on the ECHR and the execution of the ECtHR judgments

Szymon Janczarek, Department for execution of ECHR Judgments, HELP trainer*

Target groups in the Hungarian judicial training

Ms. Mária Simon, Head Advisor of the Presidential Cabinet of the National Office for the Judiciary of Hungary*

Dr. Enikő Szilágyi, Head of the Department for International Relations of the Hungarian Academy of Justice*

How to increase participation and interest of trainees and increase number of participants

Zurab Aznaurashvili, Deputy Director of the High School of Justice of Georgia*

Types of e-learning activities of the NIJ-Bulgaria

Stanimir Keremedchiev, Program Manager “Continuous Training and International Exchange of Magistrates”, National Institute of Justice, Bulgaria*

Role of the tutor in on-line training and his influence on the learning of material by the trainees

Valeriya Babko, Judge of Desnyanskyi District Court of Kyiv, Trainer of the National School of Judges of Ukraine, Certified Trainer of the Council of Europe HELP Program*

Discussion and proposals for recommendations on improving of judicial education

13 ³⁰ – 14 ³⁰	Lunch (room 128, 1 st floor)
14 ³⁰ – 15 ³⁰	SESSION V: Discussion and approval of the Kyiv Recommendations on Improving of Judicial Education on Protection of Human Rights through the Practice of the ECtHR Moderators: Mykola Onishchuk, Rector of the National School of Judges of Ukraine Pavlo Pushkar, Head of Division, Department for the Execution of Judgments, Council of Europe Presentation of the Kyiv recommendations for improving judicial education on human rights according to the European Court of Human Rights case-law Mykola Onishchuk, Rector of the National School of Judges of Ukraine Discussion and adoption of the Kyiv recommendations for improving judicial education on human rights according to the European Court of Human Rights case-law Representatives' of Judicial Schools interventions
15 ³⁰ – 16 ⁰⁰	Wrap up of the conference Closing remarks Mykola Onishchuk, Rector of the National School of Judges of Ukraine Fredrik Sundberg, Acting Head of the Department for the Execution of Judgments of the European Court of Human Rights, Council of Europe
16 ⁰⁰	Coffee (room 128, 1 st floor)