Law

Llei d'agricultura i ramaderia, de 22-6-2000./ Loi de l'agriculture et de l'élevage

Date

20000622

Subject matter

Donner une structure cohérente qui permette le maintien et le développement de l'agriculture et de l'élevage en harmonie avec le contexte particulier d'un petit pays touristique de montagne, et de sorte que l'aide destinée aux activités agricoles ait un rendement profitable pour toute la communauté.

Par conséquent, l'allocation des ressources publiques à l'agriculture et en particulier à l'élevage, doit être considérée comme la rémunération des services donnés pour la préservation de la nature et du territoire, comme une redistribution des revenus générés indirectement, pour l'entretien du paysage dans le secteur du tourisme et du commerce.

L'élevage permet la conservation de la biodiversité, le maintien de la productivité et de la qualité des pâturages fourragers de montagne, atténue les risques naturels, en particulier les incendies et les avalanches, et contribue donc à la sécurité des personnes et au développement harmonieux du tourisme d'hiver. Le milieu montagnard est considéré comme un élément essentiel de l'identité de notre pays.

Description

Aides économiques pour:

- les pratiques d'élevage traditionnel de montagne
- les prairies de fauche
- le pâturage pour le nettoyage des sous-bois, des bas de pentes et des prairies en friche
- la formalisation de contrats de location de terrains adjacents aux petites exploitations
- les plans d'amélioration des exploitations
- les pratiques agricoles spécifiques et adaptées au maintien du milieu naturel

Pratiques agricoles interdites:

- celles qui créent des risques d'érosion importante des terrains
- l'utilisation de produits phytosanitaires qui peuvent causer des dommages au milieu naturel, à la santé des personnes ou des animaux, et des doses non prescrites par les fabricants.
