7. Parliamentary Network Women Free from Violence

Website: pace.coe.int/en/pages/network-violence-women

On the basis of Resolution 1635 \(2008\) and Recommendation 1847 \(2008\) “Combating violence against women”, the Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination runs the Parliamentary Network Women Free from Violence.

This Network is a sui generis structure, composed of contact parliamentarians from national, observer and partner for democracy delegations to the Assembly. In 2011, following the opening for signature of the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence \(Istanbul Convention, CETS No. 210\), the Network decided that its main objective would be encouraging further signatures and ratifications of this instrument, so that it could enter into force as soon as possible. Since the entry into force of the Convention in August 2014, the Network has continued to promote its ratification and to develop activities linked to its implementation.

The Network is chaired by the General Rapporteur on violence against women, who acts as its political co-ordinator.

8. No Hate Parliamentary Alliance

Website: pace.coe.int/en/pages/no-hate

In follow-up to Assembly Resolution 1967 \(2014\) on “A strategy to prevent racism and intolerance in Europe”, the Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination proposed setting up the No Hate Parliamentary Alliance.

The Alliance was officially launched on 29 January 2015 in Strasbourg. It is composed of parliamentarians, members of the Parliamentary Assembly, who commit to taking open, firm and pro-active stands against racism, hatred and intolerance on whatever grounds and however they manifest themselves. Their commitment is formalised by signing the Charter of Commitments for membership in the Alliance.

The main activities of the Alliance are conducted at national level. Its members commit to:

- raising awareness against racism and intolerance amongst politicians and civil society;
- promoting the respect of equality, non-discrimination and respect for diversity, as grounded in the European Convention on Human Rights and its Protocols;
- exchanging information on law and best practices in preventing and combating racism, hatred and intolerance with parliamentarians from other countries;
- supporting and participating in the work of the national committees of the Council of Europe “No Hate Speech Movement.”

The Alliance is coordinated by the General Rapporteur on combating racism and intolerance, who is supported by the Bureau of the Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination.

9. Parliamentary Platform for the rights of LGBTI persons in Europe

Website: pace.coe.int/en/pages/network-rights-lgbti

In its Resolution 2417 \(2022\) “Combating rising hate against LGBTI people in Europe”, the Assembly called for the creation of a network of its interested members, in order to facilitate cooperation between national parliaments aimed at promoting full and effective equality for LGBTI persons throughout the continent.

The Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination adopted the terms of reference of the Parliamentary Platform for the rights of LGBTI persons in Europe on 26 April 2022. The platform is composed of parliamentarians from national, observer and partner for democracy delegations to the Assembly, as well as members appointed by other Assembly committees and an associate member appointed by the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of Europe. Members of other similar interparliamentary networks may also be invited to participate in its work.

In carrying out its work, the Platform is working for example to promote the exchange of good practices between national parliaments and the acknowledgement of LGBTI rights in the Assembly’s work, and to strengthen the Assembly’s voice and promote synergies with other Council of Europe activities in this field.

The Platform is coordinated by the General Rapporteur on the rights of LGBTI persons in Europe, supported by the Bureau of the Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination.

11. Vigdís Prize for Women’s Empowerment

Launched in 2023 and named after Vigdís Finnbogadóttir, the first woman in the world to be elected as a Head of State, this annual Prize consists of a sum of 60,000 euros and a trophy. It rewards outstanding individuals, organisations or initiatives that have demonstrated significant commitment to empowering women and girls in all their diversity.

At a time when women’s rights and gender equality face increasing challenges across Europe and beyond, the Prize recognises achievements in advancing gender equality, promoting equal participation in decision-making, and fostering inclusive policies and practices that contribute to women’s full and equal participation in political, social, and economic life.

Individuals, civil society groups, associations or private companies may be nominated for the Prize. Nominations should be submitted in English or French, using the form available on the Prize web page, and must be supported by the signatures of at least five sponsors. The nomination process for 2026 is now closed.

The first edition of the Vigdís Prize was awarded in 2024 to the Irida Women's Center (Greece), a grassroots NGO supporting women experiencing poverty, social exclusion and gender-based violence. In 2025, the Prize was awarded to Women of the Sun (Palestine), in recognition of their work for women's rights and peacebuilding. In 2026, the Prize has been awarded to My Voice, My Choice (Slovenia), a grassroots feminist movement working for access to safe and accessible abortion.
