Exceptions concerning Strictly Protected Flora Species (Art.5 - Appendix I)
Family *please specify as this is required within the new BERN online reporting template	Name of the species (Common/Latin)	Number of specimens involved (when practical)	Number of licences	Reason for issuing licences (Art.9.i to v - see below for key)	Impact on population
Eg Orchidaceae	Eg Liparis loeselii	xxx	xxx	xxx	xxx
Apiaceae	Creeping marshwort / Apium repens	20	1	iv	Negligible impact - Licence issued for research/education/repopulation/reintroduction involve only small numbers of samples
Alismataceae	Floating-leaved water plantain / Luronium natans	570	12	iv	Negligible impact - Licences issued for research/education/repopulation/reintroduction involve only small numbers of samples

i.: protection of flora /fauna

ii.: prevention of serious damage to crops, livestock, forests, fisheries, water and other forms of property

iii.: in the interests of public health and safety, air safety or other overriding public interests (which?)

iv.: for research / education / repopulation / reintroduction / necessary breeding

v.: judicious exploitation of certain wild plants in small numbers and under certain conditions

Information on the conservation status of the derogated species	Conservation implications of all licences are assessed on a case-by-case basis to ensure that there will be no adverse impact on conservation status
The authority empowered to declare that the conditions have been fulfilled	Natural England

Conditions of risk and the circumstances and the time and place under which exception where granted	Licences are assessed on a case-by-case basis and against the requirements of the relevant domestic legislation
The controls involved	Licences are subject to strict terms and conditions including the requirement to report back on all activities carried out.
Justification for derogation for a species in an unfavourable conservation status	Licences would only be granted for species in unfavourable conservation status if we were assured that it would not further undermine this.
Alternative solutions considered and scientific data to compare them	Alternative solutions are considered as a matter of course for all applications.
Results of derogations (e.g. Cumulative effects and compensation measures where relevant)	We do not believe that derogations are affecting species concerned due to the strict requirements placed on holders of licences.

Information on the conservation status of the derogated species	Conservation implications of all licences are assessed on a case-by-case basis to ensure that there will be no adverse impact on conservation status.
The authority empowered to declare that the conditions have been fulfilled	NatureScot (Scottish Natural Heritage)
Conditions of risk and the circumstances and the time and place under which exception where granted	Licences are assessed on a case by case basis and against the requirements of the relevant domestic legislation.
The controls involved	Licences are subject to strict terms and conditions including the requirement to report back on all activities carried out.
Justification for derogation for a species in an unfavourable conservation status	Licences would only be granted for species in unfavourable conservation status if we were assured that it would not further undermine this.

Alternative solutions considered and scientific data to compare them	Alternative solutions are considered as a matter of course for all applications.
Results of derogations (e.g. Cumulative effects and compensation measures where relevant)	We do not believe that derogations are affecting species concerned due to the strict requirements placed on holders of licences.

Information on the conservation status of the derogated species	Conservation implications of all licences are assessed on a case-by-case basis to ensure that there will be no adverse impact on conservation status

Conditions of risk and the circumstances and the time and place under which exception where granted	Licences are assessed on a case-by-case basis and against the requirements of the relevant domestic legislation
The controls involved	Licences are subject to strict terms and conditions including the requirement to report back on all activities carried out
Justification for derogation for a species in an unfavourable conservation status	Licences would only be granted for species in unfavourable conservation status if we were assured that it would not further undermine this
Alternative solutions considered and scientific data to compare them	Each application is assessed with regards to an alternative solution before a licence is issued.
Results of derogations (e.g. Cumulative effects and compensation measures where relevant)	Due to the strict requirements placed on licence holders we do not believe that derogations are affecting the species concerned. Mitigation and monitoring processes are conditioned into each licence.

Information on the conservation status of the derogated species	all derogations issued concern species that are, as far as we know, in favourable conservation status
The authority empowered to declare that the conditions have been fulfilled	all derogations are issued by the Minister for the Environment of the States of Jersey (Licensor) under the Conservation of Wildlife (Jersey) Law 2021.
Conditions of risk and the circumstances and the time and place under which exception where granted	Licences are assessed on a case-by-case basis and in the context of relevant local legislation
The controls involved	All derogations are issued subject to specific conditions to ensure compliance with legislation, including the requirement to report back on all activities carried out.
Justification for derogation for a species in an unfavourable conservation status	No derogations were issued for species in unfavourable conservation status according to available species data for local populations.
Alternative solutions considered and scientific data to compare them	N/A - all derogations issued were to take/disturb for scientific, educational or conservation purposes, except for two licences issued annually to the Jersey Airport to take bird species for purposes of air safety. Permission for the loss of bat roosts through development is based on data provided carried out to best practice (BCT 2016) survey guidelines and licences are only granted when no alternative solution is possible and provided that an acceptable level of mitigation is provided (eg replacement of roosts)
Results of derogations (e.g. Cumulative effects and compensation measures where relevant)	N/A - small number of species involved in derogations therefore no long term impact on populations concerned. Each derogation subject to reporting requirements to demonstrate compliance. Compensation measures applied in development cases.
