

Mr Sergey GHAZINYAN is an Armenian national. He has a BA in Law from the Yerevan State University and the LL.M. degree from the American University of Armenia. Currently, he is the Adviser to the Human Rights Defender of Armenia (Ombudsman) and the latter's Representative before the National Assembly (Parliament). In the current capacity, Mr Ghazinyan is responsible, inter alia, for the monitoring of rights protection of victims of trafficking. This includes the monitoring of places with a high risk of human trafficking, discussion of individual cases, as well as analysis of relevant legislative regulations.

Mr Ghazinyan is also lecturing at the Yerevan State University and the American University of Armenia. The topics include instruments on protection and promotion of human rights, including those concerning combat against human trafficking.

Along with his current and previous positions (as the Assistant to the Deputy Minister of Justice of Armenia), Mr Sergey Ghazinyan is a member of the Working Group adjunct to the Republic of Armenia Council on Combating Human Trafficking and Exploitation. As a member of this Working Group since 2015, he has participated in the strategic planning of national action against trafficking in human beings.
