

Giorgi Agirbaia is a founder of ProActive Group Georgia, one of the leading civil society organization in Georgia. Holding MBA and PhD in Public Governance, as an Erasmus+ doctoral exchange student studied at Alcala University, Spain, 2021. He is the consultant of the book: Regional Policy of EU Countries. Young leader and democracy activist with 10 years of working experience in CSO's and 5 years in education sector, believing in limitless possibilities of human. He is working as the Internationalization Development Manager at Alterbridge University in Georgia.

Giorgi is the Youth Delegate at Council of Europe Conference of INGO's representing Volonteuropa network, as well member of "Generation Democracy" of the International Republican Institute (IRI), Ambassador of the European Youth Democratic Network (edyn.eu).

Since 2014, Giorgi actively implements various International programs supported by EU, CoE, German Foreign Office, USAID, conducted Erasmus+ youth mobility projects in UK, Sweden, Germany, Bulgaria, Poland Moldova, Ukraine, Georgia to contribute the development of a free, democratic and progressive-minded proactive society. He is actively invited in various international summits, forums as moderator, panelist, such as Economic Forum of Young Leaders 2020/21, Innovation Forum hosted in Poland, Global Peace Summit 2017 in Seoul, South Korea as the only youth delegate from Georgia.

Social Media contacts:

<https://www.facebook.com/giorgi.agirbaia/>

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/giorgi-agirbaia-853297136/>

<https://twitter.com/AgirbaiaGiorgi>

<https://www.facebook.com/proactivegroupgeorgia>

Volonteuropa is European, globally focused, non-profit network working to achieve more social justice in Europe and beyond, through active citizenship and volunteering.

Our vision is a world where the principles of inclusion, collaboration, sustainability, equality guide the thinking and practices in Europe and beyond. Our mission is to work, in collaboration with members and partners, to foster civic engagement, social action and volunteering, as a way to build inclusive, tolerant, diverse and resilient communities.