

Iordanis Chorozoglou is an Attorney at Law in Greece. He has studied Political Science as well and holds an LL.M. on Public Law and Political Science. He is the Vice President of Thessaloniki Young Bar and Trainee Lawyer's Association which is member of the European Young Bar Association.

Iordanis is an active member of society and of civic society. He is member of various associations and organizations aiming to help the society all over the world.

He believes and works for justice and democracy in the society. He fights for the protection of the rights and generally the democratic values. He is of the opinion that prosperity to everyone comes when there is already prosperity at the society.

The European Young Bar Association is a European non-profit association of young lawyers. Founded on 23 May 1993, it brings together young bar associations from across Europe in one representative organisation, providing a unified voice for young lawyers on a continent-wide basis and their values and purposes.

Media Contact:

Iordanis Chorozoglou

- <https://www.linkedin.com/in/iordanis-chorozoglou-8b428425a/>
- <https://www.facebook.com/Jordan.Iordanis.Chorozoglou>
- <https://www.instagram.com/jordan.chor/>
- <https://twitter.com/iordchor>

European Young Bar Association

- <http://eyba.org/>
- <https://www.linkedin.com/company/european-young-bar-association/mycompany/>
- <https://www.facebook.com/TheEYBA>
- <https://www.instagram.com/theeyba/>
- <https://twitter.com/TheEYBA>