

Ms Julia Planitzer is an Austrian national. She studied law at the University of Vienna and the Radboud University/Nijmegen (the Netherlands) and holds a PhD in law (University of Vienna).

She is an Associated Expert at the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute of Human Rights in Vienna where she previously worked as senior researcher for 12 years. She has more than 12 years of work experience in international human rights law, with a focus on trafficking in human beings and its links to human rights, business and human rights, and women's rights. Furthermore, she has practical experience in cooperating with both public sector and civil society organisations. She gathered experience in several EU Twinning projects (in Turkey, Croatia and Romania) and cooperated with NGOs in research projects.

She has held positions as visiting researcher at the University of California/Berkeley, the Raoul Wallenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law in Lund (Sweden) and the Tilburg Law School (the Netherlands) and worked as consultant for the Council of Europe, the EU Fundamental Rights Agency, IOM and the OSCE.

November 2020