

Ms Biljana Lubarovska is a Macedonian national. Her expertise lies within the field of child protection, with extensive experience in the area of human trafficking.

Over the last twenty years, Ms Lubarovska has worked with government partners, academic institutions, civil society, and international organisations, in the capacity of programme manager, researcher, and advisor.

She worked on legislative changes to criminalise human trafficking and introduce legal safeguards for greater victim protection, and design anti-trafficking policies and assistance services. She helped to set up a national referral mechanism and conducted research to advance the anti-trafficking agenda.

Ms Lubarovska has a PhD in law.

December 2022