Introduction

1. Lors de sa 9^e réunion, tenue à Strasbourg les 21 et 22 novembre 2017, la Conférence des Parties (ci-après : « la CdP ») a décidé d'engager un suivi thématique transversal pour une durée initiale de deux ans. Ce nouveau mécanisme de suivi porte sur la manière dont les États Parties ont mis en œuvre certaines dispositions de la Convention du Conseil de l'Europe relative au blanchiment, au dépistage, à la saisie et à la confiscation des produits du crime et au financement du terrorisme (STCE n° 198, ci-après : « Convention de Varsovie »). À cette fin, la CdP a ajouté à ses Règles de procédure la règle 19bis, annexée au présent rapport.
2. À sa 10^e réunion plénière, la CdP a examiné et adopté le premier rapport de suivi thématique qui portait sur l'article 11 et l'article 25(2) et 25(3) de la Convention de Varsovie. Elle a décidé que le deuxième suivi thématique traiterait de l'article 9(3) et de l'article 14 de la Convention.
3. En décembre 2018, un questionnaire (que l'on trouvera en annexe IV au présent document) a été diffusé, auquel les États parties ont répondu fin février 2019. Les réponses ont été analysées par les rapporteures Mme Oxana Gisca (République de Moldova) et Mme Ani Goyunyan (Arménie) avec l'appui du Secrétariat. Le projet d'analyse a ensuite été diffusé auprès des États parties pour observations et compléments d'information. On trouvera au chapitre « Synthèse » du présent rapport les principaux constats issus des réponses au questionnaire.
4. Le présent rapport entend déterminer dans quelle mesure les États ont adopté des mesures permettant à une cellule de renseignement financier (CRF) ou à toute autre autorité compétente de prendre des mesures d'urgence en cas de transaction suspecte. Vu la diversité des réponses au questionnaire, il est relativement difficile de tirer une conclusion générale qui soit valable pour tous les États de la CdP. Cela dit, plusieurs remarques et recommandations d'ensemble sont faites dans la présente synthèse.
5. Le rapport commence par préciser le champ d'application de l'article 14 de la Convention de Varsovie (ci-après : article 14) et la méthodologie employée pour l'étude. Il présente ensuite des conclusions sur les dispositions législatives et leur mise en œuvre effective et propose des recommandations. Les réponses des États parties sont analysées individuellement et des recommandations sont formulées pour chacun d'entre eux. Les réponses des États sont annexées au présent rapport.
6. L'article 14 est complété par l'article 47(1) qui dispose que la CRF devrait être autorisée à engager en urgence, à la demande d'une CRF étrangère, une mesure de report d'une transaction suspecte. Une grande majorité d'États parties à la CdP ont inclus des informations concernant l'article 47(1) dans leur réponse initiale au questionnaire sur l'article 14. En conséquence, les rapporteurs et le secrétariat de la CdP ont jugé utile et intéressant de comprendre dans quelle mesure les États parties à la CdP avaient recours à la coopération internationale pour demander le report d'une transaction suspecte. Il est toutefois entendu que ces informations n'entrent pas dans le champ de l'étude de base relative à l'article 14. Une synthèse de la mise en œuvre de l'article 47(1) dans les États parties qui ont fourni des informations sur la question a donc été élaborée et intégrée sous forme d'annexe au présent rapport. Elle n'est donnée qu'à titre indicatif et aucune conclusion ni recommandation n'est faite concernant la mise en œuvre de l'article 47(1).

Champ d'application de l'article 14

7. L'article 14 porte sur le pouvoir de la CRF ou de toute autre autorité compétente d'ordonner le report de transactions suspectes. Le paragraphe en question est rédigé comme suit :

« Chaque Partie adopte les mesures législatives et autres qui se révèlent nécessaires pour permettre à une cellule de renseignement financier ou, selon le cas, à toute autre autorité compétente ou organe, lorsqu'il existe un soupçon que la transaction est liée à une opération de blanchiment, d'agir en urgence pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction en cours, afin de lui permettre d'analyser la transaction et de confirmer les soupçons. Chaque Partie peut limiter l'application d'une telle mesure aux cas dans lesquels une déclaration d'opération suspecte a été préalablement communiquée. La durée maximale pour toute suspension ou tout report de la conclusion d'une transaction est prévue par la législation nationale ».

8. Conjointement avec l'article 2 de la Convention de Varsovie, la disposition de l'article 14 est également applicable lorsqu'il y a un soupçon qu'une transaction est liée au financement du terrorisme.
9. Cette disposition demande donc aux Parties de prendre des mesures pour permettre aux CRF ou à d'autres autorités et organes compétents d'agir en urgence pour reporter une transaction nationale suspecte. Le paragraphe ne prévoit pas de durée maximale de report ; la durée des mesures est déterminée par la législation nationale. Les Parties peuvent permettre les entités déclarantes à réaliser une opération avant de transmettre une déclaration d'opération suspecte (DOS), dans les cas urgents. Elles peuvent également exiger une déclaration de transaction suspecte pour chaque décision de report prise par la CRF (ou toute autre autorité compétente) ou choisir de faire reposer la décision sur d'autres sources d'information (par exemple, à la demande d'une autorité judiciaire nationale ou d'une CRF étrangère).
10. Il est important de noter que l'expression « lorsqu'il existe un soupçon » signifie que l'autorité compétente peut ne pas ordonner le report si elle ne l'estime pas approprié. Si l'autorité constate, sur la base de la DOS ou des informations obtenues d'autres sources, que les soupçons ne sont pas suffisamment étayés, elle peut décider d'autoriser la poursuite de la transaction.
11. Pour que ces mesures préliminaires puissent être appliquées effectivement, l'autorité responsable doit être informée en temps utile. La déclaration a priori, c'est-à-dire avant l'exécution d'une transaction suspecte, joue donc un rôle important. Elle permet à l'autorité responsable de prendre des mesures immédiates pour ordonner le report et analyser les soupçons avant d'informer les autorités compétentes qui pourront décider d'ouvrir une enquête.
12. En avril 2013, MONEYVAL a publié un rapport de recherche sur le report des transactions financières et la surveillance des comptes bancaires, accessible depuis son site web. Ce rapport concluait que la plupart des États participants (23 au total, pas tous membres de la CdP) octroyaient à la CRF le pouvoir de reporter une transaction suspecte en vertu de leurs lois de lutte contre le blanchiment de capitaux et le financement du terrorisme (LAB/CFT). La durée des mesures de report était très variable : dans six pays, elle était limitée à 24 ou 48 heures, dans certains à 72 heures, tandis que dans d'autres elle pouvait aller jusqu'à six mois. Quinze CRF avaient également indiqué qu'elles pouvaient reporter des transactions suspectes pour le compte d'une CRF étrangère. Il y avait un important décalage entre le nombre de DOS reçues et le nombre de mesures de report ordonnées par les CRF. Le rapport se demandait par conséquent si les CRF étaient réellement désireuses d'appliquer cette mesure administrative provisoire à des fonds susceptibles d'être des produits du crime². Le rapport examinait également le pouvoir des autorités de police de reporter des transactions, plutôt rare dans l'ensemble. Enfin, il notait que dans près de la moitié des pays participants, la loi donnait aux entités déclarantes le droit de reporter des transactions (de leur propre initiative, sans attendre la décision de la CRF).

13. Il convient de noter que l'article 14 (également conjugué à l'article 47(1)) va au-delà des recommandations de 2012 du GAFI puisqu'il n'y a pas de disposition analogue dans la R.29 (« Cellules de renseignements financiers »). Il vient donc compléter utilement les normes internationales actuelles en matière de LAB/CFT. Les États parties qui ont mis en œuvre cette disposition et sont en mesure de démontrer son application effective peuvent en retirer un avantage dans leur évaluation mutuelle par le GAFI ou par MONEYVAL (notamment en ce qui concerne le Résultat immédiat 6 : « Les renseignements financiers et toutes les autres informations pertinentes sont utilisés de manière appropriée par les autorités compétentes dans le cadre des enquêtes sur le blanchiment de capitaux et le financement du terrorisme »). Enfin, on notera que les articles 14 et 47 ont également inspiré la 4^e directive anti-blanchiment de l'Union européenne (Directive (UE) 2015/849)³.
14. Le présent rapport examine la législation nationale ou les procédures de report prévues par les États parties, ainsi que la durée de ces mesures et la possibilité de les ordonner lorsqu'il n'existe pas de DOS à l'appui. La mise en œuvre effective a également été évaluée en demandant aux États de fournir des exemples d'affaires ou des statistiques démontrant l'application de l'article 14 dans la pratique. Il est à noter que les statistiques qui comportaient des montants dans différentes devises ont toutes été converties en euros pour faciliter la compréhension et la comparaison. Les chiffres donnés en euros peuvent donc différer légèrement de la valeur réelle des avoirs ayant fait l'objet de mesures de report.

Méthodologie

15. Le « Questionnaire pour le suivi transversal de la mise en œuvre par les États parties de l'article 9(3) et de l'article 14 de la STCE n° 198 » demandait des informations aux autorités sur les trois questions suivantes concernant l'article 14 :

« Votre pays a-t-il adopté des mesures législatives et autres permettant à une cellule de renseignement financier ou, selon le cas, à toute autre autorité compétente ou organe, lorsqu'il existe un soupçon que la transaction est liée à une opération de blanchiment, de suspendre ou de reporter l'autorisation de conclusion d'une transaction en cours, afin de lui permettre d'analyser la transaction et de confirmer les soupçons ? »

« Votre pays limite-t-il l'application d'une telle mesure aux cas dans lesquels une DOS a été préalablement communiquée ? »

« Quelle durée maximale de suspension ou de report de l'autorisation de la conclusion d'une transaction votre législation interne prévoit-elle ? »

16. Les délégations étaient invitées à présenter les dispositions de leur législation interne traitant de ces questions. Par ailleurs, elles étaient encouragées à étayer leurs réponses par des exemples concrets ou d'autres informations pertinentes.

17. La présente étude de suivi thématique inclut des informations sur 38 États de la CdP⁴. Dix pays⁵ ont fait l'objet d'une évaluation individuelle par pays de la CdP, dont les analyses ont également été prises en compte.

Synthèse

18. L'évaluation de la mise en œuvre et de la transposition de l'article 14 permet d'aboutir à plusieurs constats généraux. On trouvera les conclusions spécifiques à chaque État partie dans l'analyse par pays.

19. Tous les États parties, sauf un, ont adopté des mesures pour permettre l'adoption de mesures urgentes de report d'une transaction nationale suspecte. Dans l'immense majorité des cas (34 États parties sur 38), la CRF est habilitée à prendre des mesures urgentes en cas de transaction nationale suspecte. Dans trois États parties seulement (Pays-Bas, Espagne et Turkiye), ce pouvoir est attribué à une autorité différente (en l'occurrence le procureur public, le Tribunal pénal ou le ministre du Trésor et des Finances, à l'initiative de la CRF). Dans cinq pays (Arménie, Bulgarie, Danemark, Portugal et Suède), cette compétence a été attribuée à la fois à la CRF et à d'autres autorités compétentes (police, conseil d'administration de la banque centrale ou services de sécurité). De manière générale, le pouvoir de la CRF d'ordonner le report d'une transaction est établi dans la loi de LAB/CFT en vigueur, tandis que pour les autres autorités compétentes, des lois différentes peuvent s'appliquer.

20. La durée des mesures de report est très variable d'un État partie à l'autre. Dans la plupart des cas, elle est comprise entre 24 et 72 heures, mais certains États parties prévoient des périodes bien plus longues (par exemple 120 heures, voire 15 à 30 jours). Dans de nombreux pays (et en particulier ceux où les durées sont les plus courtes), elle peut être prolongée – de plusieurs jours à six mois – par décision du procureur ou du tribunal compétent, sur demande (dûment motivée) de la CRF.

21. Certains États parties ont noté l'obligation pour les entités assujetties de s'abstenir de procéder au report d'une transaction donnée dès qu'elles ont rempli une DOS concernant cette transaction. D'une durée de 24 heures à deux jours, cette mesure temporaire permet aux autorités compétentes d'analyser le soupçon et de le confirmer ou l'inflammer. Les autorités n'ayant pas toutes répondu aux rapporteurs sur ce point, il n'est pas possible de tirer une conclusion générale sur l'existence d'une possibilité de report temporaire d'une transaction sur la base d'une simple DOS, la procédure applicable en la matière et la durée de cette mesure. Par conséquent, les analyses par pays ne traitent de cet aspect du cadre de LAB/CFT que dans les cas où des informations ont été fournies à ce sujet par les États. Aucune conclusion n'a pu être tirée sur le nombre de pays qui autorisent les entités déclarantes à exécuter une transaction suspecte avant de faire une DOS, dans les cas urgents.

22. Dans la quasi-totalité des États parties, sauf trois (Pays-Bas, Espagne et Royaume-Uni), le report d'une transaction ne se fait pas nécessairement sur la base d'une DOS. Au Royaume-Uni, il existe un système par lequel la CRF peut refuser d'autoriser l'exécution d'une transaction suspecte après avoir reçu une déclaration d'activité suspecte (d'une entité déclarante). Aux Pays-Bas, une DOS est requise car le report est ordonné par un procureur et ne peut donc reposer que sur un soupçon réel. En Espagne, le tribunal peut décider d'une mesure de report à la demande du procureur ou de la police, qui sont informés par une DOS. Tous les autres pays ont indiqué que l'autorité compétente pouvait ordonner le report sur la base d'une DOS mais également de sa propre initiative, à la demande d'autres autorités nationales et/ou à la demande d'une CRF étrangère ou d'autres autorités étrangères compétentes⁶. Dans ce dernier cas, l'autorité requise ne prend la mesure que si la demande est suffisamment motivée.

Mise en œuvre effective

23. Vingt-neuf États parties ont inclus dans leur réponse des statistiques ou des exemples d'affaires démontrant l'application de l'article 14. Un des six États restants (l'Allemagne) a indiqué qu'aucune statistique n'était tenue sur la question ; les réponses des cinq autres n'ont pas permis d'établir clairement s'ils disposaient ou non de statistiques en la matière. Dans certains cas, les statistiques étaient très détaillées et comportaient entre autres informations le montant des transactions reportées, le nombre d'enquêtes ouvertes et le nombre de mesures faisant suite à des demandes étrangères. D'autres statistiques étaient plutôt basiques et ne concernaient que le nombre de mesures prises sur une période donnée, d'un ou deux ans. Il est donc difficile de tirer une conclusion générale significative sur la mise en œuvre effective de l'article 14 par les États parties.

Recommandations et suivi

24. Comme indiqué, tous les États parties, sauf un, ont adopté des mesures permettant à une autorité compétente – que ce soit la CRF ou une autre autorité – de prendre des mesures urgentes en présence de transactions nationales suspectes nécessitant une analyse plus poussée et donc une mesure de report. Les États parties n'appliquent pas tous la disposition de la même manière. Les différences les plus notables concernent la durée – très variable – des mesures de report et le fait que l'autorité compétente pour l'adoption de ces mesures n'est pas nécessairement la CRF. Les États parties agissent dans le cadre de la marge de manœuvre qui leur est laissée par la Convention de Varsovie et son rapport explicatif sur ces deux points. Cela dit, l'étude de base fait également apparaître des différences entre États en ce qui concerne la tenue de statistiques. Il y aurait peut-être des possibilités d'harmonisation en la matière.

⁶ La possibilité d'ordonner le report de transactions suspectes à la demande d'une CRF/autorité compétente étrangère (article 47(1)) est examinée à l'annexe II, comme cela a été noté au paragraphe 6, car cette question n'entre pas dans le champ de l'étude de suivi de l'article 14.

25. Nonobstant les recommandations spécifiques contenues dans les analyses individuelles par pays ci-dessous, les deux types de recommandations – générales et spécifiques – devraient être prises en compte lors de l'adoption de mesures visant à mettre en œuvre plus avant les dispositions de la Convention de Varsovie. Afin d'obtenir une vision plus claire du degré et du caractère effectif de la mise en œuvre de l'article 14, il est recommandé aux États parties d'envisager, s'ils ne l'ont pas encore fait :

- de tenir des statistiques détaillées sur : i) le nombre de mesures de report prononcées ; ii) le type d'informations ayant donné lieu aux reports (DOS, analyse propre, demandes des autorités compétentes, demandes étrangères) ; iii) la durée du report de la transaction ; et iv) le montant des transactions reportées.

26. Les États parties sont encouragés à mettre en œuvre les recommandations générales précitées en plus des recommandations par pays (voir « analyse par pays » ci-dessous).

27. Un mécanisme de suivi des recommandations découlant de cette analyse pourrait être lancé sur décision de la plénière de la CdP.

Analyse par pays

Albanie

1. La CRF albanaise a le pouvoir d'ordonner le blocage ou le gel temporaire de transactions ou d'opérations financières pour une durée maximale de 72 heures, en présence de faits et d'éléments concrets lui donnant des raisons de soupçonner une activité de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme (article 22(g) loi LAB/CFT). Si des éléments constitutifs d'une infraction pénale sont mis en évidence, la CRF présente une copie de la mesure de blocage ou de gel temporaire au procureur dans le délai de 72 heures. Si aucun de ces éléments n'est détecté, la mesure est annulée.
2. Le CRF peut également ordonner la surveillance des transactions bancaires effectuées par l'intermédiaire d'un ou de plusieurs comptes spécifiques sur une période donnée, s'il existe des motifs sérieux de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme (article 22(l) loi LAB/CFT).
3. Les entités déclarantes sont tenues de refuser l'exécution d'une transaction suspecte et de la déclarer immédiatement à la CRF, qui répond dans les 48 heures en ordonnant s'il y a lieu une mesure de gel.
4. Le tableau suivant montre le nombre de décisions de blocage ou de gel temporaire prises par la CRF et les montants saisis par la suite :

Année	Nombre de décisions de blocage/gel	Montant total gelé (en EUR)	Montant total saisi sur décision de justice (en EUR)	% des fonds saisis
2011	13	1 619 509	872 125	53,5
2012	8	1 297 000	1 145 950	88,3
2013	15	881 670	213 500	24,2
2014	65	18 183 760	13 967 770	76,8
2015	47	16 278 080	11 266 941	69,2
2016	61	28 772 733	8 129 000	28,2
2017	52	11 263 587	9 096 233	80,8
Total	261	78 296 339	44 691 519	Moyenne : 60,1

5. L'Albanie ne limite pas les mesures de blocage ou de gel temporaire aux seuls cas dans lesquels une DOS a été communiquée. Les mesures s'appliquent en effet pour tous types d'indicateurs, ce qui inclut les déclarations d'activités ou d'opérations suspectes entre autres sources.
6. Le rapport d'évaluation de 2011 de la CdP a conclu que l'Albanie avait mis en œuvre l'article 14 de manière effective.

Conclusion

7. La CRF albanaise est compétente pour restreindre (par blocage temporaire) les transactions nationales suspectes et a exercé cette compétence à plusieurs reprises. Les mesures ne sont pas limitées aux seuls cas dans lesquels des déclarations d'opération suspecte ont été communiquées. Les mesures ont une durée maximale de 72 heures à compter de leur mise en place.

Arménie

1. La loi LAB/CFT prévoit que l'organe compétent (dans ce cas, le conseil d'administration de la Banque centrale d'Arménie sur la base d'une déclaration de la CRF) peut suspendre une transaction ou une relation d'affaires suspectes, éventuellement liés à le BC ou FT, pour une durée maximale de cinq jours, après analyse des déclarations qui lui ont été soumises (DOS, déclaration d'opération en espèces), d'éléments fournis par les autorités de surveillance/autorités chargées des poursuites ou de toute autre information. Cette durée peut être prolongée de cinq jours (dix jours dans des cas exceptionnels) pour établir les motifs de présentation d'une notification aux autorités chargées des poursuites pénales.

2. Les entités déclarantes sont tenues de présenter une DOS le même jour ou, si cela n'est pas possible, avant midi le lendemain du jour où le soupçon se présente. L'autorité compétente dispose ensuite d'un délai de cinq jours maximum pour décider soit de prolonger la suspension en vue d'établir les motifs de présentation d'une notification aux autorités chargées des poursuites pénales, soit d'annuler la décision de suspension.

Année	Nombre de décisions de suspension	Montant arrondi des fonds temporairement suspendus (EUR)
2015	1	19 000
2016	2	354 600
2017	1	1 000 000
2018	1	17 000
Total	5	1 390 600

3. Le rapport d'évaluation de 2016 de la CdP a conclu que l'Arménie avait mis en œuvre les dispositions de l'article 14.

Conclusion

4. Les autorités sont compétentes pour suspendre les transactions nationales suspectes pendant une durée maximale de cinq jours (pour la CRF/Banque centrale) ou trois jours (pour la CRF). Ces mesures ne reposent pas nécessairement sur des DOS. Elles ont été appliquées dans la pratique.

Autriche

1. La CRF autrichienne est habilitée à suspendre les transactions suspectes (art. 17, paragraphe 4 de la loi sur la lutte contre le blanchiment de capitaux sur les marchés financiers). La période de suspension peut aller jusqu'à six mois ou jusqu'au moment où, au cours de cette même période, le tribunal a rendu une décision portant sur une demande de confiscation sur le fondement de l'art. 109, paragraphe 2 et de l'art. 115, paragraphe 1 et 3 du StPO (art. 17, paragraphe 5 de la loi précitée). Suite à l'information transmise par les entités assujetties, la CRF dispose de 24 heures pour donner une réponse, en l'absence de laquelle l'exécution de la transaction peut être immédiate. Si la CRF ne consent pas à ce que la transaction soit exécutée, cette information doit être soumise immédiatement au Parquet. Cependant, selon les autorités autrichiennes, cette disposition est très rarement appliquée en pratique. Par ailleurs, selon les autorités, la CRF coopère très étroitement avec les enquêteurs et le Parquet pour initier la délivrance immédiate d'une ordonnance de saisie.
2. En outre, l'existence d'une déclaration de soupçons n'est pas une condition préalable à la suspension d'une opération.
3. L'application des mesures de suspension en pratique n'a pas été étayée par des statistiques.

Conclusion

4. La CRF autrichienne peut suspendre une transaction nationale pour une période maximale de six mois. Aucun exemple de son application pratique n'a été fourni.

Azerbaïdjan

1. La CRF peut ordonner la suspension de l'exécution d'une transaction suspecte liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme pour une durée maximale de 72 heures (article 19(2) loi LAB/CFT). Elle est tenue d'envoyer directement cette décision et les documents correspondants aux autorités chargées des poursuites pénales pour blanchiment de capitaux/financement du terrorisme. Ces dernières peuvent prendre des mesures supplémentaires pour prolonger la durée de suspension, dans les 72 heures suivant la réception des informations de la CRF.
2. La CRF peut ordonner les mesures de suspension de sa propre initiative en cas de dépôt d'une DOS, mais également sur demande motivée d'une autorité nationale compétente ou d'autres sources.
3. Les entités déclarantes ont l'obligation d'informer la CRF de toute transaction suspectée d'être liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme. Dans ce cas, il leur est interdit d'exécuter la transaction signalée pendant deux jours ouvrés. Lorsqu'elle reçoit les informations concernant la transaction suspecte, la CRF décide ou non de suspendre l'exécution de la transaction, puis donne des instructions à l'entité concernée. Si la CRF décide de ne pas suspendre l'exécution de la transaction signalée dans le délai de deux jours ouvrés, l'entité procèdera à son exécution. La durée maximale des mesures de suspension est de deux jours ouvrés plus 72 heures à partir du moment où une transaction nationale suspecte est détectée.
4. De 2014 à 2018, la CRF a imposé onze mesures de suspension liées au blanchiment de capitaux, pour un montant total de 6,6 millions d'AZN (près de 3,3 millions d'EUR). Neuf de ces mesures ont été prises à l'encontre de personnes physiques et les deux autres visaient des personnes morales. Les autorités ont également donné un exemple d'affaire démontrant la mise en œuvre effective de l'article 14.

Conclusion

5. La CRF de l'Azerbaïdjan est compétente pour suspendre des transactions nationales suspectes, mesure qui ne repose pas nécessairement sur l'existence d'une DOS. La durée maximale de suspension est de deux jours ouvrés plus 72 heures. Les mesures ont été appliquées dans la pratique.

Belgique

1. La CRF belge peut s'opposer à l'exécution d'une opération sur la base d'une déclaration de suspicion liés à BC ou FT, ou d'autres informations (article 80 de la loi LAB/CFT). La CRF détermine quels sont les opérations et les comptes bancaires concernés par les mesures d'opposition puis notifie immédiatement sa décision à l'entité concernée. Elle dispose pour cela d'un délai de cinq jours suivant la réception de la notification de suspicion. Dans l'intervalle, la transaction est suspendue. Si la CRF estime que la suspension doit être prolongée, elle en informe le procureur qui se prononce à son tour sur les mesures de suspension. Elle informe également l'Organe central pour la saisie et la confiscation. Si les entités déclarantes concernées par les mesures d'opposition ne reçoivent pas de notification de la CRF dans le délai de cinq jours, elles exécutent l'opération en question.
2. La CRF peut également prononcer des mesures d'opposition sur la base d'informations ou de demandes motivées des autorités compétentes belges ou d'autres sources. Ces informations seront toujours traitées comme une DOS. La CRF peut ordonner le blocage de transactions d'une entité déclarante donnée, même si les informations pertinentes lui ont été communiquées par une autre entité ou organisation.
3. Ces mesures ont été appliquées à plusieurs reprises entre 2015 et 2017 :

Année	Nombre de mesures de report ordonnées
2015	13
2016	17
2017	12
Total	42

4. Le rapport d'évaluation 2016 de la CdP recommandait à la CRF belge de faire en sorte que les mesures de report puissent reposer sur les déclarations des entités déclarantes quelles qu'elles soient et de donner à ces entités l'ensemble des moyens nécessaires pour appliquer des mesures de blocage. Le rapport de suivi de 2018 a conclu que la Belgique avait mis en œuvre les recommandations.

Conclusion

5. La CRF belge est compétente pour faire opposition à l'exécution d'une transaction nationale suspecte, sans qu'une DOS soit nécessaire à cet effet. La durée maximale de ces mesures est de cinq jours ouvrés après la transmission de l'information à la CRF. Ces mesures ont été appliquées dans la pratique.

Bosnie-Herzégovine

1. La CRF peut imposer une suspension temporaire de transaction lorsqu'il existe des soupçons d'activités de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme concernant une transaction, un compte ou une personne (articles 58 et 59 de la loi LAB/CFT). Elle peut notifier cette décision par écrit aux entités déclarantes ou, dans les cas urgents, ordonner la mesure verbalement puis la confirmer par écrit. La durée maximale de la mesure est de cinq jours ouvrés à partir du moment où la décision de suspension est rendue ou à partir du signalement de l'opération suspecte si celui-ci a été fait avant l'opération.
2. Au terme de ces cinq jours, la suspension peut être prolongée sur décision solennelle du tribunal compétent. Si dans ce délai, la CRF ne relève aucun motif supplémentaire de suspension, elle en informe l'entité déclarante par écrit, cette dernière pouvant alors immédiatement procéder à la transaction. Si la CRF ne prend aucune mesure dans les cinq jours, l'entité peut également effectuer la transaction en question.
3. La décision de la CRF ne repose pas nécessairement sur l'existence d'une DOS ; elle peut également être rendue sur la base d'une demande motivée du bureau du procureur ou d'autres sources.
4. Le tableau ci-dessous montre le nombre de décisions de suspension temporaire prises par la CRF entre 2015 et 2018 :

Année	Nombre de décisions de suspension	Montant arrondi des fonds temporairement suspendus (EUR)
2015	24	1 707 316
2016	18	10 136 184
2017	8	138 619
2018	8	53 029 349
Total	58	65 011 468

5. D'autres statistiques détaillées montrent que des décisions de suspension ont été rendues sur ordre et à la demande du bureau du procureur, mais aussi après réception de DOS, portant notamment sur des soupçons de blanchiment de capitaux concernant des personnes physiques et morales.

Conclusion

6. La CRF de Bosnie-Herzégovine peut ordonner la suspension temporaire d'une transaction donnée, sans qu'une DOS soit nécessaire à cette fin. La durée maximale de suspension est de cinq jours ouvrés. La CRF a apporté des preuves de sa pratique en la matière.

Bulgarie

1. Les pouvoirs légaux de la CRF de Bulgarie ont été modifiés avec l'adoption de la nouvelle « loi sur les mesures contre le blanchiment de capitaux » et les amendements à la « loi sur les mesures contre le financement du terrorisme », tous entrés en vigueur le 31 mars 2018.
2. En cas de suspicion de blanchiment de capitaux, le responsable de la CRF bulgare peut reporter une transaction ou une opération pendant une durée maximale de cinq jours ouvrés (article 73 de la loi contre le blanchiment de capitaux). En cas de soupçons de financement du terrorisme, le ministre de l'Intérieur, le président de l'Agence de la sécurité nationale ou des agents expressément habilités peuvent reporter une transaction ou une opération pour une durée maximale de cinq jours ouvrés. Le délai court à compter du jour où la décision est rendue. Une décision de report peut être prise après réception d'une DOS de la part des entités déclarantes ou sur la base d'informations reçues des autorités nationales compétentes ou d'autres sources.
3. Si la décision n'est pas confirmée par une mesure de saisie conservatoire ou d'autres mesures provisoires dans les cinq jours, la transaction ou l'opération peuvent être effectuées. Pendant la durée du report, la CRF dispose de trois jours pour procéder à une analyse dont elle communique les résultats au bureau du procureur qui peut ensuite demander au tribunal d'imposer des mesures préventives supplémentaires.
4. Par ailleurs, en cas d'urgence et lorsqu'il s'agit de la seule occasion de geler les biens d'une personne dont il existe des raisons de penser qu'elle s'apprête à commettre un acte terroriste, la loi contre le financement du terrorisme prévoit la possibilité pour le ministre de l'Intérieur, le président de l'Agence de la sécurité nationale ou des agents expressément habilités de prononcer par écrit une mesure de gel de fonds et d'autres avoirs financiers ou ressources économiques pour une durée maximale de 45 jours ouvrés à compter de la date à laquelle la décision est rendue.
5. Les autorités ont fourni un exemple d'affaire dans laquelle la CRF a reporté des transactions suspectées de relever du blanchiment de capitaux après avoir reçu plusieurs DOS de banques bulgares.
6. Par ailleurs, les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies sur le report des transactions en 2017 et 2018 :

Année	Nombre de transactions reportées	Nombre de décisions de report rendues	Montant total des transactions reportées (en EUR)
2017	19	6	Plus de 1 900 000
2018	16	12	Plus de 16 000 000
Total	35	18	Plus de 17 900 000

Conclusion

7. La CRF bulgare (dans le cas du blanchiment de capitaux) ainsi que le ministre de l'Intérieur, le président de l'Agence de sécurité nationale et d'autres agents expressément habilités ou compétents (dans le cas du financement du terrorisme) ont obtenu le pouvoir d'ordonner le report d'une transaction pour une durée maximale de cinq jours ouvrés, respectivement en cas de soupçon de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme. La décision peut reposer sur des informations provenant de diverses sources, non limitées aux DOS. La mise en œuvre pratique est démontrée par la jurisprudence et les statistiques.

Croatie

1. La CRF croate peut ordonner la suspension temporaire d'une transaction suspecte lorsque : a) elle doit engager des actions urgentes pour vérifier les informations relatives à la transaction, aux personnes ou aux fonds en question ou b) lorsqu'elle estime qu'il existe des raisons de soupçonner que la transaction, les personnes ou les fonds en question sont liés au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme. La suspension ne peut durer plus de 72 heures à compter du moment où la décision est notifiée à l'entité déclarante, ou plus de 120 heures en cas de jours non travaillés par la CRF.
2. La décision peut également être communiquée verbalement s'il n'est pas possible de le faire par écrit, mais elle devra être suivie d'une décision écrite le jour suivant.
3. Lorsque la mesure de suspension temporaire est prononcée, la CRF informe directement le bureau du procureur général afin que celui-ci y donne suite. Après expiration de la durée maximale de validité de la décision, seul le tribunal peut prolonger la suspension.
4. Si le CRF ne relève aucune raison supplémentaire de suspendre temporairement la transaction, elle en informe sans délai l'entité concernée et le bureau du procureur général compétent.
5. La CRF peut ordonner la suspension après réception d'une DOS, mais cela n'est pas obligatoire.
6. Les autorités ont fourni quatre exemples d'affaires dans lesquelles la CRF croate a ordonné à une institution financière de reporter une transaction suspecte. Ces quatre affaires, ainsi que l'analyse opérationnelle de la CRF relative à la transaction, aux personnes ou aux fonds suspects, ont été transmises au bureau du procureur pour la suite de la procédure. Par ailleurs, les autorités croates ont fourni les statistiques suivantes pour démontrer que la CRF a exercé dans la pratique ses compétences en matière de suspension temporaire d'une transaction nationale suspecte :

Année	Montant (approximatif) des décisions de report rendues (en EUR)
2012	1 666 974,10
2013	6 923 045,92
2014	2 780 346,72
2015	10 078 093,42
2016	8 460 207,54
2017	1 428 681,16
2018	10 596 678,53
Total	41 934 027,38

Conclusion

7. La CRF de Croatie est compétente pour suspendre temporairement des transactions suspectes pour une durée maximale de 72 heures ou 120 heures en cas de jours non ouvrés. Ces mesures ne reposent pas nécessairement sur des DOS. La pratique de ces dernières années a été démontrée par la jurisprudence et les statistiques.

Chypre

1. La CRF de Chypre peut adresser des instructions à une entité assujettie, lui demandant de suspendre ou de ne pas exécuter une transaction ou de vérifier l'activité d'un compte bancaire lorsqu'il existe des raisons valables de soupçonner que ladite transaction est liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme (article 55(1)(e)(i) de la loi LAB/CFT). Cela permet à la CRF d'analyser la transaction suspecte ou de rendre ou d'enregistrer une décision de blocage ou de confiscation d'avoirs.

2. La CRF chypriote peut faire usage de ce pouvoir non seulement lorsqu'elle reçoit une DOS, mais également sur demande motivée des autorités compétentes.
3. L'ordre de non-exécution ou de suspension d'une transaction a une durée de validité maximale de sept jours ouvrés. Il peut être prolongé pour une durée totale allant jusqu'à 30 jours ouvrés.
4. Les autorités ont fourni les statistiques suivantes pour démontrer l'application de l'article 14. On notera que le montant des transactions suspendues par année n'est pas disponible.

Année	Nombre de décisions de report rendues par la CRF pour suspendre des transactions/bloquer des comptes
2015	13
2016	10
2017	20
2018	7
Total	50

Conclusion/Recommandation

5. La CRF de Chypre a obtenu le pouvoir de suspendre temporairement une transaction nationale suspecte pour une durée maximale de sept jours – ou trente jours en cas de renouvellement de la mesure – après réception d'une DOS ou sur la base d'une demande des autorités nationales compétentes ou d'autres sources. L'application de l'article 14 a été démontrée. Les autorités sont néanmoins invitées à envisager de tenir des statistiques complètes sur l'application de l'article 14, incluant le montant des transactions reportées et toute autre information pertinente.

Danemark

1. La CRF et la police ont toutes deux le pouvoir de bloquer des transactions (éventuellement liés à BC ou FT), conformément à la loi sur l'administration de la justice (article 807 F).
2. Le blocage dure au maximum sept jours et peut, au cours de cette période, être converti en saisie régulière.
3. Les mesures temporaires ne se limitent pas aux cas dans lesquels une DOS a été communiquée.
4. Les autorités n'ont pas fourni de statistiques ou d'exemples d'affaires démontrant l'application de l'article 14.

Conclusion/Recommandation

5. Les autorités danoises, et notamment la CRF et les autorités de police, sont compétentes pour bloquer les transactions suspectes pour une durée maximale de sept jours, avec ou sans DOS à l'appui. On ignore dans quelle mesure cette compétence a été exercée dans la pratique. Il est par conséquent recommandé au Danemark d'envisager la tenue de statistiques sur le nombre de décisions de report rendues et toute autre information pertinente.

Estonie

1. La CRF estonienne est habilitée à suspendre l'exécution d'une transaction suspecte liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme (article 57 de la loi sur le blanchiment de capitaux et la prévention du terrorisme). La CRF émet un avis de conformité, c'est-à-dire un précepte en vertu duquel la CRF oblige les entités assujetties à restreindre des actifs aussi longtemps que le prévoit le précepte. Le précepte impose une obligation aux entités assujetties et les avertit des conséquences du non-respect du précepte (article 65 (2) de la loi précitée). La période de suspension peut durer initialement jusqu'à 30 jours et peut être étendue à une période supplémentaire de 60 jours si le propriétaire ou le possesseur ne prouve pas l'origine licite du bien ou s'il existe un soupçon de financement de terrorisme (article 57 (3)). En outre, la CRF estonienne est habilitée à suspendre des transactions à la demande d'une CRF étrangère (article 57 (1)), ce qui est également conforme à l'article 47(1) de la Convention. En outre, il est possible de prolonger la période de suspension avec l'autorisation du tribunal administratif jusqu'à une période d'un an. En vertu de l'article 57, paragraphe 6, lorsque le propriétaire du bien ou, dans le cas d'un bien détenu sur un compte, le bénéficiaire effectif du bien n'a pas été établi, la CRF peut demander au tribunal administratif l'autorisation de restreindre l'aliénation du bien jusqu'à ce que le propriétaire ou le bénéficiaire effectif du bien ait été établi. La CRF peut également demander la même chose à la fin de la procédure pénale, mais pas pour une période supérieure à un an.

2. La législation estonienne ne limite pas l'application de ces mesures aux situations dans lesquelles une déclarations de soupçons (DOS) a déjà été soumise.

Effectivité de la mise en œuvre

3. Pour mieux refléter l'application de ce mécanisme dans la pratique, les autorités ont également fourni des statistiques et des exemples de cas, démontrant ainsi que le pays met effectivement en œuvre l'article 14 de la Convention de Varsovie :

Au cours de la période 2018-2022, la CRF a restreint les actifs :
Année	Restrictions de 30 jours	Restrictions de 60 jours	Restrictions de 1 an
2018	69	51	-
2019	50	39	2
2020	32	15	2
2021	15	12	5
2022	56	12	5

* Les restrictions sur les comptes et les actifs sont toutes deux incluses. Des restrictions de 60 jours ou d'un an ont été liées à la restriction initiale de 30 jours. Une restriction d'un an peut également être fixée après la fin de la procédure pénale.

4. En outre, les autorités ont également indiqué que le report des transactions suspectes n'est pas le seul outil utilisé pour sécuriser les fonds soupçonnés d'être le produit du crime. Au contraire, l'étroite coopération de la CRF à un stade précoce avec les enquêteurs et le bureau du procureur aboutit généralement à l'émission immédiate d'un ordre de saisie.

Conclusion

5. La CRF d'Estonie est habilitée à suspendre temporairement les transactions suspectes pour une période pouvant aller jusqu'à un an, de sa propre initiative ou à la demande d'une CRF étrangère. Cette mesure n'est pas nécessairement fondée sur une DOS. La mise en œuvre effective de l'article 14 a été démontrée par la jurisprudence et les statistiques.

France

1. La loi LAB/CFT dispose à l'article L561-24 que la CRF a le pouvoir de suspendre l'exécution d'une opération non encore réalisée pendant une certaine durée, afin que les autorités judiciaires puissent prendre une décision sur la nécessité d'ordonner une saisie. L'opération peut porter sur une suspicion de BC ou de FT.

2. L'existence d'une DOS concernant la transaction en question n'est pas obligatoire.
3. La mesure de suspension est mise en place pour dix jours à compter de la notification par la CRF. La CRF peut transmettre le dossier en question au procureur.
4. La juridiction compétente (président du Tribunal de grande instance) peut prolonger le délai ou ordonner des mesures provisoires, à la demande du bureau du procureur.
5. Les autorités ont démontré l'application du pouvoir de reporter des transactions nationales suspectes au moyen des statistiques suivantes :

Année	Nombre de mesures d'opposition	Nombre de dossiers	Montant total concerné (en EUR)
2017	24	20	8,7 millions
2018	7	7	1,6 million
Total	31	27	10,3 millions

Conclusion

6. La CRF française est compétente pour reporter des transactions nationales suspectes pendant une durée maximale de dix jours. Elle peut s'appuyer sur diverses sources. La pratique de l'application des mesures de report a été démontrée par des statistiques.

Géorgie

1. La CRF de Géorgie a obtenu en 2015 le pouvoir de suspendre des transactions lorsqu'il existe des motifs sérieux de soupçonner des actes de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme. L'entité assujettie doit immédiatement prendre toutes les mesures nécessaires pour mettre en œuvre l'instruction de la CRF. Bien que l'instruction soit généralement communiquée par écrit, elle peut également l'être verbalement ou par voie électronique dans les cas urgents.
2. Après l'instruction de suspension, les documents doivent être diffusés immédiatement aux services compétents du bureau du procureur, du ministère de l'Intérieur et/ou des services de sécurité de l'État.
3. La décision de suspendre une transaction peut être prise indépendamment de la communication d'une DOS à la CRF. La décision peut faire suite à une DOS ensuite analysée par la CRF, ou à des informations en provenance d'autres sources.
4. Les transactions ne peuvent pas être suspendues plus de 72 heures, jours non ouvrés non compris.
5. Le tableau suivant montre le nombre de suspensions ces dernières années :

Année	Nombre de transactions suspendues
2015	1
2016	1
2018	0
Total	4

Conclusion

6. La CRF géorgienne peut suspendre des transactions nationales pour une durée maximale de 72 heures (jours non ouvrés non compris) après réception d'une DOS ou sur demande motivée d'autres autorités. Une certaine pratique a été démontrée ces dernières années.

Allemagne

1. La CRF allemande peut interdire l'exécution d'une transaction lorsqu'il existe des indications selon lesquelles cette transaction est liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme, afin d'enquêter sur ces indications et d'analyser la transaction (article 40, « mesures urgentes » de la loi sur la lutte contre le blanchiment de capitaux). Elle peut ordonner des mesures urgentes conduisant au report ou à la suspension d'une transaction bancaire suspecte, après réception d'une DOS ou d'autres informations pertinentes. Les autorités allemandes ont indiqué que la plupart des mesures urgentes reposent sur une DOS ; la seule exigence de la CRF est l'existence d'un soupçon que la transaction en question est liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme.
2. Les mesures urgentes prennent fin au plus tard un mois après qu'elles ont été ordonnées par la CRF ou à la fin du cinquième jour ouvré après que le dossier a été transmis à l'autorité compétente chargée des poursuites, ou lorsque la CRF l'autorise.
3. L'entité compétente est tenue de suspendre les transactions en cours signalées comme suspectes (au moyen d'une DOS). Ces transactions ne peuvent être exécutées que lorsque la CRF ou les autorités chargées des poursuites y consentent, ou après l'expiration d'un délai de trois jours à compter de l'envoi de la DOS si aucune autre mesure n'a été prononcée par la CRF ou le ministère public.
4. Le ministère public peut engager des actes de procédure pénale pour garantir l'application des mesures.
5. Aucune pratique de l'exercice des pouvoirs précités par la CRF n'a été démontrée car aucune statistique n'est tenue en la matière.

Conclusion/Recommandation

6. La CRF allemande est compétente pour reporter une transaction suspecte pour une durée maximale d'un mois, sans qu'une DOS soit nécessaire à cet effet. Aucune mise en œuvre effective de la compétence n'ayant été démontrée, il est recommandé aux autorités d'envisager de tenir des statistiques sur l'application de l'article 14, en ce qui concerne le nombre de mesures urgentes prises, le nombre de transactions reportées par les entités assujetties et toute autre information pertinente.

Grèce

1. Le président de la CRF ordonne la suspension de l'exécution d'une transaction dans les cas urgents, ou le gel provisoire des biens lorsque cette transaction ou ces biens sont soupçonnés d'être liés au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme. La durée maximale de validité de la mesure est de 15 jours ouvrés. Durant cette période, la CRF examine les motifs de soupçon (article 48(2)(d) loi LBC). Si le soupçon n'est pas confirmé, le président lève la mesure de suspension ou de gel temporaire. À l'expiration du délai, les mesures provisoires sont automatiquement levées.
2. Lorsque l'enquête fait apparaître des motifs sérieux de soupçonner une infraction de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme, le président de la CRF ordonne le gel des avoirs de la ou des personne(s) concernée(s). Il peut ensuite transmettre le dossier au procureur.
3. Le président peut ordonner des mesures provisoires sans DOS à l'appui. Ces mesures sont également ordonnées à la demande d'une autorité homologue d'un autre État membre de l'UE ou en cas de soupçons fondés sur la demande d'une telle autorité.
4. Les autorités ont fourni des statistiques qui démontrent l'application de mesures provisoires, malgré la mise en place récente de cette compétence le 31 mai 2018. Depuis, le président de la CRF a prononcé quatre mesures de gel provisoire sur la base de l'article 48(2)(d) de la loi LBC. Les avoirs gelés provisoirement étaient un voilier estimé à 29 137 576 € et des actions valorisées à 36 720 000 €.

Conclusion

5. Le président de la CRF grecque peut ordonner le report de transactions nationales suspectes pour une durée maximale de 15 jours ouvrés, et aucune DOS n'est nécessaire à cette fin. Bien que cette possibilité n'ait été introduite que récemment, une pratique limitée a été démontrée.

Hongrie

1. La CRF hongroise peut ordonner la suspension d'une transaction lorsqu'il existe des soupçons de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme relativement à un fait, des données ou une situation. Ce travail s'inscrit dans le cadre de son analyse opérationnelle. Elle transmet une notification par écrit à l'entité déclarante concernée, laquelle est ensuite tenue de suspendre la transaction en question. La CRF, dans un délai de quatre jours ouvrés à compter du signalement à l'entité, examine le soupçon à l'origine de la mesure. Elle peut prolonger son inspection pendant trois jours ouvrés supplémentaires si cela se révèle nécessaire pour obtenir suffisamment d'informations à transmettre aux autorités compétentes et à la police.
2. La décision de la CRF d'ordonner la suspension peut faire suite à une coopération avec l'autorité chargée de l'enquête ou le bureau du procureur, ou être prise sur la base d'informations communiquées par les autorités nationales compétentes ou d'autres sources. Lorsqu'une entité déclarante présente une déclaration d'activité suspecte à la CRF, elle doit également suspendre l'exécution de la transaction. La décision de la CRF d'ordonner la suspension tout comme le dépôt d'une déclaration d'activité suspecte par une entité assujettie nécessitent une action immédiate.
3. Les autorités ont présenté une affaire démontrant l'application de l'article 14 dans la pratique : en étroite coopération avec les prestataires de services financiers, les CRF étrangères et les autorités chargées des enquêtes pénales, la CRF a suspendu une transaction sur la base d'une déclaration d'activité suspecte, pour finalement parvenir à geler les produits d'une activité criminelle.
4. Les autorités ont également démontré la pratique en produisant des statistiques détaillées pour les années 2016 à 2018 :

	Type de suspension		Valeur Total (EUR)
	Compétence propre de la CRF*	Prestataire*
2016	173 (150)	82 (30)	7 727 876
2017	112 (100)	97 (21)	16 306 366
2018	120 (99)	100 (31)	6 707 124
Total	405 (349)	179 (82)	30 741 366

* Les chiffres correspondent au nombre total de cas. Le nombre effectif de cas (lorsque l'analyse opérationnelle a conduit la CRF à communiquer des informations aux autorités nationales compétentes pour engager une procédure pénale ou étayer une enquête pénale en cours) est indiqué entre parenthèses.

 Montant total en EUR des différents avoirs en HUF, USD, GBP et EUR. Le chiffre exact peut différer du fait des taux de conversion.

Conclusion

5. La CRF hongroise est compétente pour suspendre les transactions nationales suspectes pendant une durée maximale de sept jours ouvrés, sans qu'une DOS soit nécessaire à cet effet. Des statistiques détaillées et un exemple concret ont été fournis pour démontrer la mise en œuvre effective.

Italie

1. La CRF italienne a le pouvoir de reporter des transactions soupçonnées d'être liées au blanchiment de capitaux, à des infractions principales connexes ou au financement du terrorisme. Elle peut prendre cette décision de sa propre initiative ou à la demande d'autres autorités compétentes, pour une durée maximale de cinq jours ouvrés. La mesure repose sur une décision autonome, sous réserve que les conditions requises soient remplies. Pour une action efficace, la CRF s'assure auprès des autorités de police compétentes que la transaction ne fait pas déjà l'objet d'enquêtes ou de poursuites judiciaires et que le report ne compromet pas des investigations ou procédures en cours. La CRF veille également à ce que le report provisoire puisse être garanti et soit étayé par des ordonnances de saisie ou de confiscation appropriées, émises par les autorités compétentes. Après avoir rendu sa décision, la CRF se met en liaison avec les autorités de police compétentes pour s'enquérir de leur intérêt à saisir ultérieurement les fonds, et transmet rapidement des informations en retour à l'entité déclarante ou, selon le cas, à la CRF étrangère requérante.
2. Les entités déclarantes sont tenues de présenter une DOS à la CRF en cas de suspicion de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme, avant l'exécution de la transaction. Il est demandé aux entités concernées de ne pas exécuter la transaction suspecte avant la fin du processus d'échange d'informations.
3. Des statistiques ont été fournies pour démontrer le caractère effectif des pouvoirs de la CRF en matière de report de transactions :

Année	Nombre de reports potentiels	Nombre de décisions de report effectives
2017	214	38
2018	328	47
Total	542	85

Conclusion

4. La CRF italienne peut ordonner le report d'une transaction suspecte pour une durée maximale de cinq jours ouvrés après réception d'une DOS et à la demande des autorités compétentes nationales ou étrangères. La CRF a démontré sa pratique effective en la matière.

Lettonie

1. Il est établi dans la loi LAB/CFT que l'entité déclarante ne doit pas exécuter une transaction s'il existe des soupçons sérieux que les fonds en question sont liés au blanchiment de capitaux/financement du terrorisme (article 32(1)). Dans ce cas, l'entité informe la CRF de Lettonie de la transaction et attend les instructions de celle-ci avant toute autre action.
2. La CRF s'est vue octroyer le pouvoir de reporter des transactions nationales suspectes en les gelant temporairement. Il s'agit d'une mesure d'urgence qui dure au maximum cinq jours ouvrés. La décision de reporter une transaction ne doit pas obligatoirement reposer sur une DOS. Pendant la durée de validité de la mesure, la CRF peut décider de geler les fonds pendant une durée allant jusqu'à 45 jours (et six mois pour FT), ce qui a été confirmé par des exemples de cas, s'il y a des motifs sérieux de soupçonner qu'une infraction pénale (y compris de blanchiment de capitaux) est commise ou a été commise. Dans ce cas, elle ouvre une enquête.

3. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies pour démontrer l'application du pouvoir de la CRF de suspendre des transactions pendant une durée de cinq jours, ou pour une période prolongée de 45 jours :

	À la suite d'une DOS			Propre initiative			Total (en EUR)
	5 jours	45 jours	Montant (en EUR)	5 jours	45 jours	Montant (en EUR)
2015	221	162	19 880 107	134	70	307 305	21 614 095
2016	346	218	31 428 653	55	33	3 295 064	36 170 978
2017	237	174	17 374 991	121	63	21 912 015	45 636 013
2018	240	127	81 992 238	87	67	19 429 548	101 482 411
Total	1 044	681	150 675 989	397	233	44 943 932	204 903 597

Conclusion

4. La CRF lettone peut reporter des transactions nationales suspectes pour une période initiale de cinq jours, ou – si une enquête est ouverte par la CRF – pour une durée maximale de 45 jours. La CRF peut prendre cette mesure à la suite d'une DOS, mais également de sa propre initiative ou à la demande d'une autorité compétente. Les autorités ont démontré l'application de ces mesures dans la pratique au moyen de statistiques et des exemples de cas.

Lituanie

- La Lituanie a mis en place des mesures législatives pertinentes permettant à la Cellule de Renseignement Financier, qui fait partie du Ministère de l'Intérieur, de prendre des mesures urgentes pour suspendre une opération monétaire ou une transaction suspecte pendant une période de 10 (dix) jours ouvrables. La loi sur la prévention du blanchiment d'argent et du financement du terrorisme de la République de Lituanie, dans son article 7 dispose que la CRF a, entre autres, le droit d'ordonner aux institutions financières et autres entités assujetties de suspendre, pour une durée maximale de dix jours ouvrables, les opérations monétaires ou transactions suspectes effectuées.
- La CRF ne limite pas la suspension des opérations monétaires ou transactions suspectes aux seuls cas où une DOS a été reçue - cela peut également être fait sur demande reçue des CRF étrangères ainsi que des autorités répressives nationales et étrangères.
- Lors de la suspension d'une opération monétaire, les autorités compétentes doivent remettre aux entités assujetties une ordonnance de restriction temporaire des droits de propriété telle que réglementée par le Code de procédure pénale. Dans les cas où une demande d'entraide judiciaire est soumise par un pays étranger, l'exécution de ces demandes est coordonnée en coopération avec le bureau du procureur général et le ministère de la Justice. Les autres autorités nationales chargées de l'application des lois ont le droit de suspendre les transactions conformément aux dispositions du Code de procédure pénale (c'est-à-dire dans le cadre d'une enquête pénale).

Conclusion

- La CRF lituanienne peut reporter les transactions suspectes nationales pour une période initiale de dix jours. La CRF peut prendre la décision pertinente non seulement dans le cas où une DOS a été soumise, mais également de sa propre initiative ou à la demande d'une autorité compétente. Les autorités n'ont pas fourni de statistiques ou d'exemples de cas sur l'application de l'article 14 dans la pratique.

Malte

- La CRF maltaise est habilitée à reporter l'exécution de toute transaction à effectuer par une entité déclarante si elle sait ou suspecte que cette transaction est liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme ou concerne des biens tirant leur origine ou constituant le produit d'une activité criminelle (article 28(1) de la loi sur la prévention du blanchiment de capitaux).

2. Les entités déclarantes sont tenues de signaler toute transaction suspecte à la CRF et d'attendre une éventuelle décision de report de la CRF avant d'exécuter cette transaction. L'entité déclarante pourra néanmoins exécuter la transaction s'il lui est impossible d'informer la CRF au préalable, ou lorsque la non-exécution de la transaction risque de compromettre une enquête pour blanchiment de capitaux ou financement du terrorisme.
3. La décision de report peut être rendue sur la base d'une DOS ou de toute autre information communiquée à la CRF (par exemple à la demande d'une CRF étrangère).
4. La durée maximale de suspension d'une transaction varie selon l'origine de l'information. Lorsqu'elle fait suite à une DOS, la suspension peut durer jusqu'à trois jours ouvrés : un jour ouvré après la date à laquelle l'information est communiquée à la CRF en application de la loi et deux jours supplémentaires après que la CRF a rendu une décision de report. Lorsque la mesure est prise sur la base d'informations obtenues par d'autres moyens, il n'y a pas de suspension automatique de l'exécution de la transaction. La transaction peut être suspendue pendant une durée maximale de deux jours ouvrés à compter du jour où la CRF notifie l'opposition à l'entité déclarante.
5. À la fin de la période de suspension (de deux ou trois jours ouvrés selon le cas), la CRF ne peut plus reporter l'exécution d'une transaction en attente et l'entité concernée pourra procéder à la transaction, sauf si une décision de saisie conservatoire est prononcée.
6. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies :

	Nombre de demandes reçues	Nombre de décisions de report	Nombre de décisions de report suivies d'une saisie conservatoire	Montant total (en EUR)
2015	8	5	5	Non disponible
2016	25	2	1	13 675 012
2017	48	4	0	621 670
2018	129	13	8	17 298 323*
Total	210	24	14	31 595 005

* Les chiffres en euros peuvent différer légèrement de la valeur réelle des avoirs reportés, du fait de la conversion des dollars américains et couronnes suédoises en euros.

7. Par ailleurs, les autorités ont fourni trois exemples de cas dans lesquels des décisions de report ont été rendues sur la base d'une DOS ou d'informations provenant d'autres sources. Il est donc possible de conclure que la CRF exerce effectivement son pouvoir de reporter des transactions suspectes.
8. Au moment du rapport de 2014 de la CdP sur Malte, la CRF maltaise ne pouvait reporter des transactions que sur la base d'une DOS. Les compétences de la CRF ont été étendues à la suite d'amendements à la loi LBC.

Conclusion

9. La CRF maltaise a obtenu le pouvoir de reporter des transactions nationales suspectes pendant une durée de deux jours ouvrés, sur la base d'une DOS mais également d'autres sources. Dans le cas d'une DOS, la suspension d'une transaction peut durer un jour ouvré supplémentaire en application de la loi. La mise en pratique de ces pouvoirs a été démontrée par des statistiques ainsi que par des cas concrets.

Monaco

1. L'article 37 de la Loi n° 1362 relative à la lutte contre le blanchiment des capitaux, le financement du terrorisme et la corruption (telle que modifiée en 2018) habilite la CRF monégasque à suspendre une transaction suspecte. La décision de suspension doit être notifiée à l'entité qui est à l'origine du signalement. La suspension peut durer jusqu'à 5 jours ouvrés.
2. La législation monégasque ne prévoit pas de limiter l'application de cette mesure aux où une DOS avait été soumise antérieurement – article 51 de la Loi n° 1362 –. Dans l'exercice de ses missions (y compris la suspension d'une transaction suspecte), la CRF est fondée à utiliser toute information potentiellement pertinente pour ses activités. De plus, cet article prévoit des modalités de coopération avec les CRF étrangères et habilite aussi la CRF monégasque, dans des conditions spécifiques, à exécuter la demande d'une CRF étrangère pour la suspension d'une transaction.
3. La CRF monégasque a régulièrement utilisé son droit de suspendre des transactions – des statistiques sont présentées ci-dessous sur ce point :

Années	Déclarations de soupçon reçues	Dossiers transmis au Parquet Général	Représentant X déclarations de soupçon	Rapport transmissions / déclarations	Oppositions en nombre	Oppositions en valeur
2014	744	15	32	4,30%	2	2.200.000 €
2015	726	16	35	4,82%	2	4.400.000 €
2016	725	8	50	6,90%	-	-
2017	711	6	13	1,83%	2	2 950 000 €
2018	590	14	33	5,59%	1	11 382 365 USD

4. Les autorités ont également communiqué une affaire où, sur demande d'une CRF étrangère, la CRF monégasque a suspendu une transaction portant sur plus de 8 millions d'euros.

Conclusion

5. La CRF monégasque a obtenu la compétence de suspendre sur le territoire monégasque une transaction suspecte, sans qu'il soit nécessaire de fonder cette mesure sur une DOS, pour une durée ne pouvant excéder 5 jours ouvrables. Cette pratique a été étayée par la communication de statistiques.

République de Moldova

1. La CRF de Moldova est habilitée à prendre une décision de suspension de l'exécution d'une activité ou d'une transaction suspecte ou de suspension d'avoirs suspects, éventuellement liés au BC ou FT, pour une durée maximale de trente jours ouvrés (article 33 de la loi LAB/CFT). Elle peut le faire de sa propre initiative ou à la demande d'une autorité compétente. La CRF informe la personne physique ou morale concernée par la décision.
2. Les entités déclarantes, d'office ou sur demande, suspendent ou reportent la conclusion d'une transaction pendant cinq jours ouvrés en cas de suspicion concernant une transaction.
3. Sur demande de la CRF, le tribunal peut décider de prolonger la période de suspension jusqu'à 60 jours ouvrés.

4. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies pour démontrer l'application effective :

Nombre de décisions de la CRF	Montant (en EUR)
2015	126
2016	144
2017	34
2018	22
Total	326
	19 221 006 + actions

5. Les autorités ont également démontré l'application de l'article 14 par deux cas concrets.
 6. Le rapport d'évaluation de 2014 de la CdP sur la République de Moldova a conclu que l'article 14 était mis en œuvre de manière adéquate.

Conclusion

7. La CRF de la République de Moldova est en mesure prendre une décision de report d'une transaction suspecte, de sa propre initiative, après réception d'une DOS ou à la demande d'une autorité compétente. La durée maximale de cette mesure est de trente jours ouvrés. Sa mise en œuvre effective a été démontrée par des statistiques et deux exemples d'affaires.

Monténégro

1. La loi sur la prévention du blanchiment de capitaux et du financement du terrorisme autorise la CRF du Monténégro à suspendre temporairement une transaction pour laquelle il existe des soupçons de blanchiment de capitaux et d'infractions principales connexes ou de financement du terrorisme (article 61). La décision est notifiée par écrit aux entités déclarantes, mais peut également être communiquée verbalement en cas d'urgence (auquel cas elle sera suivie d'un ordre écrit).
2. La CRF peut ordonner la suspension pour une durée maximale de 72 heures, lors de laquelle elle évalue les motifs à l'origine des soupçons. Le délai peut être prolongé s'il comporte un jour non ouvré. Sur notification de la CRF, l'entité déclarante concernée prend immédiatement les mesures nécessaires. Au cours de cette période, la CRF informe également les autorités administratives de la suspension de la transaction. Ces dernières (généralement, le bureau du procureur) examinent la notification et peuvent prolonger la suspension pour une durée maximale de six mois.
3. La CRF peut prendre sa décision après avoir reçu une DOS ou une demande dûment motivée d'une autorité compétente.
4. La CRF a exercé ses pouvoirs à plusieurs reprises entre 2014 et 2018.

Nombre de transactions suspendues	Montant (en EUR)
2014	19
2015	17
2016	6
2017	19
2018	22
Total	83
	50 466 080

Conclusion

5. La CRF du Monténégro est compétente pour suspendre une transaction nationale suspecte pour une durée maximale de 72 heures, sans qu'une DOS soit nécessaire à cet effet. La pratique a été démontrée par des statistiques.

Pays-Bas

1. Aux Pays-Bas, c'est le procureur public qui a le pouvoir de reporter une transaction nationale suspecte. En présence d'une transaction suspecte (liée à, inter alia, BC ou FT), la CRF notifie le procureur public qui décide alors d'un éventuel blocage (temporaire) de la transaction (article 14 du Code de procédure pénale). La décision de report est limitée aux cas dans lesquels il existe une DOS. La mesure de blocage temporaire d'une transaction peut être prise en urgence s'il y a lieu. On ignore combien de temps pourrait prendre l'échange d'informations nécessaire entre la CRF et le procureur public.
2. La loi ne limite pas en durée la possibilité de saisir les avoirs ou les fonds concernés par la transaction, même si cette mesure n'est que temporaire.
3. Aucune statistique ou affaire concrète n'ont été fournies pour démontrer la mise en œuvre effective de cette mesure.

Conclusion/Recommandation

4. Le procureur public néerlandais a la possibilité d'ordonner le report de transactions pour une période illimitée, mais uniquement lorsque le dossier lui est transmis par la CRF et sur la base d'une DOS. Il est recommandé aux autorités néerlandaises d'envisager d'étendre les pouvoirs de la ou des autorités compétentes (par exemple procureur et/ou CRF) de prendre des décisions de report de leur propre initiative et à la demande des autorités nationales concernées. Il est également recommandé aux Pays-Bas d'envisager la tenue de statistiques sur le nombre de décisions de report émises et toute autre information pertinente.

Macédoine du Nord

1. La CRF de Macédoine du Nord est autorisée à agir en urgence pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction soupçonnée d'être liée au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme (article 64(3) et article 120(1) de la loi LAB/CFT). Cette décision sera notifiée par écrit à l'entité concernée, ou verbalement dans les cas urgents (avec confirmation écrite ultérieure).
2. La CRF demande ensuite au procureur public compétent de proposer l'instauration de mesures provisoires. La décision de la CRF est valable jusqu'à ce qu'une décision de justice soit rendue, mais sa durée totale ne peut être supérieure à 72 heures (ou 120 heures en cas de jours non ouvrés).
3. Si le procureur public juge la demande infondée, il en informe immédiatement la CRF qui notifie à son tour le refus à l'entité concernée. Si le procureur considère que la requête est fondée, il soumet la proposition à un juge qui dispose d'un délai de 24 heures à compter de sa réception pour décider de l'adoption de mesures provisoires supplémentaires.
4. La CRF peut ordonner le report d'une transaction dans tous les cas où il existe un soupçon de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme : la mesure ne se limite pas aux transactions ayant fait l'objet d'une DOS.
5. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies pour démontrer l'application de l'article 14 dans la pratique :

Année	Nombre de décisions de report rendues	Montant total des mesures provisoires (en EUR)*
2016	6	123 786
2017	1	720 226
2.018	11	12 251 728
Total	18	13 095 740

* Les chiffres en EUR peuvent différer légèrement de la valeur réelle des avoirs, du fait de la conversion des denars macédoniens et dollars américains en EUR.

Conclusion

6. La CRF de Macédoine du Nord a le pouvoir d'ordonner le report de transactions nationales suspectes pendant une durée maximale de 72 heures (ou 120 heures en cas de jours non ouvrés). La mesure doit reposer sur des soupçons sérieux de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme mais n'est pas limitée aux cas dans lesquels une DOS a été communiquée. La mise en pratique des mesures provisoires a été démontrée par des statistiques.

Pologne

1. L'Inspecteur général des informations financières placé sous l'autorité du ministère des Finances (la CRF) est autorisé à suspendre des transactions ou à bloquer un compte (pouvant être alimenté par d'autres transactions) lorsqu'il existe un soupçon justifié que la transaction ou les avoirs en question sont liés au blanchiment de capitaux ou au financement du terrorisme (article 86 de la loi LAB/CFT).
2. L'Inspecteur général peut décider de suspendre une transaction à l'initiative d'une entité assujettie (c'est-à-dire après réception d'une DOS) ou de sa propre initiative. Dans les deux cas, les mesures précitées restent en place pendant une durée maximale de 96 heures à compter du moment où l'Inspecteur général accuse réception d'une DOS ou donne l'ordre de les appliquer. Si les mesures font suite à une DOS, l'Inspecteur général vérifie les soupçons de l'entité et demande les mesures (ou les annule) dans les 24 heures suivant la réception de la déclaration. Immédiatement après avoir communiqué sa décision à l'entité assujettie, l'Inspecteur général informe le procureur du soupçon de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme. Ce dernier peut ensuite décider de maintenir la suspension de la transaction ou le blocage du compte pour une durée maximale de six mois à compter de la date à laquelle il reçoit la notification.
4. Les autorités ont fourni les statistiques suivantes sur le nombre de suspensions de transactions et de blocages de comptes.

	Nombre de mesures prises		Montant concerné (en EUR)
	Blocage de comptes*	Suspension de transactions*	Blocage de comptes	Suspension de transactions
2015	341 (33)	40 (40)	37 720 545	798 597
2016	325 (30)	22 (21)	39 914 834	7 264 814
2017	351 (41)	21 (19)	32 772 264	687 728
2.018	302 (69)	15 (13)	100 333 100	27 181 326
Total	1319 (173)	98 (93)	210 740 743	35 932 465

* Ces chiffres correspondent au nombre total de blocages ou suspensions ordonnés « d'initiative » tandis que les chiffres entre parenthèses correspondent aux mesures ordonnées après notification des institutions assujetties (c'est-à-dire après réception d'une DOS).

5. Les autorités ont également fourni un certain nombre d'exemples d'affaires dans lesquelles l'Inspecteur général a ordonné avec succès le report de transactions ou le blocage de comptes.
6. Le rapport de 2013 de la CdP sur la Pologne recommandait aux autorités de tenir des statistiques complètes sur l'application de l'article 14. L'analyse de suivi de 2015 a conclu que cette recommandation avait été mise en œuvre.

Conclusion

7. L'Inspecteur général polonais (la CRF) est compétente pour bloquer des comptes ou de suspendre des transactions en cas de soupçons de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme. Il peut prendre cette décision sur la base d'une DOS ou de sa propre initiative, pour une durée maximale de 96 heures. Le pouvoir de report a été régulièrement exercé.

Portugal

1. L'article 48 de la loi portugaise de LAB/CFT prévoit la suspension temporaire de l'exécution d'une transaction dans les cas suivants : (1) lorsqu'une DOS a été transmise ; (2) lorsqu'aucune DOS n'a été communiquée mais qu'il aurait dû y en avoir une ; (3) lorsque d'autres informations pertinentes ont été portées à la connaissance du Département central d'enquêtes et de poursuites pénales et (4) sur proposition de la CRF après analyse des DOS existantes. Les suspicions entre BC et FT peuvent donner lieu à une ordonnance de suspension temporaire.
2. Il est clairement stipulé dans la loi que les mesures de suspension peuvent concerner des transactions présentes ou futures.
3. Lorsqu'une entité assujettie a des soupçons concernant une transaction ou un groupe de transactions, elle en informe rapidement le Département central d'enquête et de poursuites pénales et la CRF ; elle n'exécute pas les transactions en question sauf si elle considère qu'il est impossible de ne pas le faire, auquel cas elle informera ensuite rapidement les deux autorités compétentes. La CRF rédige un avis sur les mesures d'opposition et le transmet au Département central d'enquête et de poursuites pénales.
4. Au total, les autorités portugaises ont six jours ouvrés pour évaluer le soupçon et prendre une décision sur le report de la transaction : la CRF dispose de deux jours pour l'évaluation et le ministère public de quatre jours consécutifs. Sur décision du juge d'instruction, les mesures de suspension s'étendront sur une période de trois mois au maximum, pouvant faire l'objet de prorogations successives au cours de l'enquête.
5. Aucune statistique ou affaire concrète n'ont été fournies pour démontrer la mise en œuvre effective.

Conclusion/Recommandation

6. Les autorités portugaises ont le pouvoir de reporter une transaction ou un groupe de transactions pour une durée totale de six jours ouvrés. Ce pouvoir ne se limite pas aux cas dans lesquels une DOS a été communiquée. Aucune pratique n'ayant été démontrée, il est recommandé aux autorités d'envisager de tenir des statistiques sur la mise en œuvre de l'article 14.

Roumanie

1. La CRF roumaine peut ordonner le report de transactions non exécutées s'il existe des soupçons de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme. Pour confirmer ces soupçons, la CRF analyse les informations financières obtenues et informe immédiatement le bureau du procureur si elle relève des motifs de blanchiment de capitaux. Si des motifs de financement du terrorisme sont retrouvés, elle en informe également les services de renseignement roumains. Lorsque d'autres infractions principales sont détectées, la CRF communique l'information aux autorités de police compétentes.
2. La CRF peut ordonner le report après réception d'une DOS ou à la demande des autorités compétentes, pour une durée de 48 heures. Elle peut également demander au bureau du procureur de prolonger la suspension pour 72 heures supplémentaires.

3. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies pour démontrer l'application de l'article 14 pour l'année 2017 : sur un total de 326 DOS concernant des transactions non exécutées, la CRF a décidé de suspendre les opérations dans 232 cas. Dans 31 cas, la durée des mesures était insuffisante et la CRF a demandé au bureau du procureur de les prolonger. Dans 71 cas, la CRF a décidé de ne pas suspendre les opérations. Dans les 24 cas restants, les opérations avaient déjà été déclarées non exécutées et bloquées par l'entité déclarante concernée. Les montants ayant fait l'objet des mesures de suspension étaient de 19.670.096 EUR ; 13.482.096 RON ; 19.973.006 USD ; 15.000 GBP et 8.500 PLN.
4. Il a été noté dans le rapport d'évaluation de 2012 de la CdP que des amendements mettant en œuvre l'article 14 avaient été adoptés peu auparavant, mais que l'efficacité de cette mise en œuvre ne pouvait pas encore être mesurée.

Conclusion

5. La CRF roumaine peut reporter des transactions nationales suspectes après réception d'une DOS ou à la demande des autorités compétentes. Cette mesure est prise pour une durée initiale de 48 heures pouvant être prolongée de 72 heures par le procureur. Elle a démontré la mise en œuvre de ces mesures au moyen de données relatives à l'année 2017.

Fédération de Russie

1. Dans leurs réponses au questionnaire, les autorités russes ont fait référence à la législation, à savoir l'article 7 (10) de la loi LAB/CFT, qui crée l'obligation pour les organisations qui font des opérations en numéraires ou autres actifs de suspendre les opérations pendant cinq jours ouvrables si au moins une partie de la transaction est directement ou indirectement détenue ou contrôlée par la personne physique ou morale dont les actifs ont été gelés ou si une personne physique figurant sur la liste des terroristes effectue des opérations en numéraire ou autres actifs conformément aux autorisations de la loi LAB/CFT. En outre, les organisations qui font des opérations en numéraire ou autres actifs sont tenues de fournir des informations sur les opérations suspendues à la CRF nationale immédiatement après la suspension. Si la CRF estime qu'il y a un fondement raisonnable pour la suspension, elle peut prendre une résolution pour suspendre ces opérations pour une période supplémentaire de 30 jours afin de mettre en place des outils de gel supplémentaires à plus long terme si nécessaire. Ces dispositions ne visent toutefois pas les principes énoncés à l'article 14, à savoir que la CRF ou à toute autre autorité compétente ou organe, lorsqu'il existe un soupçon que la transaction est liée à une opération de blanchiment, peut intervenir en urgence pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction en cours, afin de lui permettre d'analyser la transaction et de confirmer les soupçons.
2. Les autorités ont également fait valoir qu'un tribunal peut ordonner la suspension des opérations sur les comptes bancaires et d'autres opérations en numéraire ou autres actifs de la personne physique ou morale s'il existe une information obtenue légalement sur son implication dans des activités extrémistes, le terrorisme ou la prolifération d'armes de destruction massive ou si celle-ci est directement ou indirectement détenue ou contrôlée par la personne physique ou morale qui participe à ces activités. Là encore, ces dispositions ne concernent pas les soupçons sur le blanchiment d'argent et la possibilité d'entreprendre une action urgente et de suspendre la transaction afin de l'analyser.

Conclusion/recommandation

3. Le cadre juridique de la Fédération de Russie ne prévoit pas de dispositions spécifiques répondant aux exigences de l'article 14. La Conférence des Parties salue les efforts actuellement en cours par les autorités russes pour adopter des mesures qui permettraient à la CRF de prendre des mesures urgentes lorsqu'il existe un soupçon que la transaction soit liée à une opération de blanchiment, d'agir en urgence pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction en cours, afin de lui permettre d'analyser la transaction et de confirmer les soupçons. La Fédération de Russie est encouragée à garantir la promulgation d'une telle législation.

Saint-Marin

1. La CRF de Saint-Marin est habilitée à reporter des transactions, à bloquer des fonds, des avoirs et d'autres ressources économiques et à surveiller toute relation d'affaires sur le plan financier. La durée maximale de report de transactions suspectées de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme (et de transactions portant sur des avoirs ou des fonds soupçonnés de tirer leur origine d'infractions principales) est de cinq jours ouvrés. La CRF peut ordonner ce report de sa propre initiative ou sur la base d'informations provenant d'une autre source.
2. La décision de blocage prise par la CRF, qui s'applique lorsqu'il existe des motifs sérieux de penser que les avoirs tirent leur origine du blanchiment de capitaux, d'infractions principales ou du financement du terrorisme ou pourraient être utilisés pour commettre ce type d'infractions pénales, dure 15 jours et peut être étendue à 45 jours par une autorité judiciaire sur demande motivée de la CRF. Une telle mesure est notifiée dans les 48 heures à l'autorité judiciaire qui confirmera le blocage dans les 96 heures qui suivent si les conditions nécessaires sont remplies. Lorsque la mesure de blocage arrive à terme ou est annulée, les avoirs bloqués sont remis à leur propriétaire légitime.
3. La CRF ne doit pas obligatoirement avoir reçu une DOS pour pouvoir ordonner le report de transactions ou le blocage d'avoirs. Au contraire, la CRF peut prendre une telle décision dès lors qu'il existe des éléments permettant de soupçonner un acte de blanchiment de capitaux/financement du terrorisme ou des infractions principales (dans le cas du report de transactions) ou des motifs sérieux de soupçonner des actes de blanchiment de capitaux/financement du terrorisme ou des infractions principales (dans le cas du blocage d'avoirs/de fonds).
4. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies pour démontrer l'application de l'article 14 dans la pratique :

	Mesures prises		Relations d'affaires concernées	Montant (en EUR)
	Report	Blocage
2008	0	0	0	s o
2009	0	1	1	155 776
2010	0	0	0	s. o.
2011	1	13	33	14 810 960
2012	1	6	29	24 533 981
2013	0	2	4	12 051 253
2014	0	2	3	517 672
2015	3	5	34	3 269 662
2016	1	1	2	268 603
2017	0	2	3	1 532 120
2018	0	0	0	s. o.
Total	6	32	109	57 140 027

Conclusion

5. La CRF de Saint-Marin est habilitée à reporter des transactions pour une durée maximale de cinq jours ouvrés, de sa propre initiative (indépendamment de la réception d'une DOS) ou à la demande d'une autorité judiciaire nationale ou d'une CRF étrangère. Cette mesure a été appliquée dans la pratique.

Serbie

1. La loi serbe en matière de LAB/CFT autorise la CRF à ordonner par écrit à une entité assujettie la suspension temporaire d'une transaction, si elle estime qu'il existe un soupçon fondé de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme concernant une transaction ou une personne effectuant une transaction. Elle en informe les autorités compétentes pour que ces dernières puissent agir en conséquence. La mesure s'étend sur une période de 72 heures qui peut être prolongée de 48 heures si elle comporte des jours non ouvrés.
2. Dans les cas urgents, le directeur de la CRF peut communiquer la décision verbalement, en la confirmant par écrit au plus tard le jour ouvré suivant.
3. Les entités assujetties peuvent également suspendre temporairement une transaction pour une durée maximale de 72 heures, s'il existe des raisons de soupçonner un blanchiment de capitaux.
4. La décision de la CRF n'est pas limitée aux cas dans lesquels une DOS a été transmise, mais peut également reposer sur des informations reçues d'une autre autorité compétente.
5. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies pour démontrer l'application de l'article 14 :

Année	Nombre de décisions de report rendues par la CRF en vue de la suspension de transactions
2015	1
2016	2
2017	0
2018	7
31.5.2019 –	1
Total	11

Conclusion

6. La CRF serbe est compétente pour reporter des transactions nationales suspectes pendant 72 heures au maximum (cette période pouvant être prolongée de 48 heures si elle comporte des jours non ouvrés), après réception d'une DOS ainsi qu'à la demande d'une autorité compétente.

République slovaque

1. La législation slovaque prévoit l'adoption de mesures urgentes pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction, à la fois par la CRF et par les entités assujetties. Le délai initial est de 120 heures au maximum, mais il peut être prolongé de 72 heures (jours non ouvrés non compris). Lorsqu'elle a un soupçon, l'entité déclarante a l'obligation de reporter l'opération commerciale inhabituelle jusqu'à son signalement à la CRF.
2. La CRF ordonne le report d'une transaction à l'entité assujettie si cette mesure est nécessaire pour analyser le dossier en cas de soupçons de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme. L'entité déclarante prolonge ainsi le délai initial d'exécution de la transaction jusqu'à la levée de la mesure d'urgence par la CRF.
3. Ces décisions ne se limitent pas aux cas où une DOS a été communiquée, bien qu'il s'agisse du scénario le plus courant dans lequel des mesures de report sont appliquées. Elles peuvent être prises à la demande des autorités de police ou d'autres sources.

4. Les chiffres suivants ont été fournis :

	Reports	Montant des transactions reportées (en EUR)	Dossier transmis à la police	Fonds retenus sur décision du procureur	Exercice de poursuites pénales	Affaires avec prévenus
2016	196	28 039 385	143	20	31	2
2017	123	9 895 434	87	13	31	1
2018	71	4 017 794	42	7	13	2
Total	390	41 952 613	272	40	74	5

Conclusion

5. La CRF slovaque peut ordonner le report de transactions nationales suspectes (pour une durée de 120 heures pouvant être prolongée de 72 heures) sans qu'une DOS soit nécessaire à cet effet. Les autorités ont démontré que la CRF avait appliqué ce pouvoir dans la pratique.

Slovénie

- La CRF de Slovénie est habilitée à ordonner la suspension temporaire de transactions pour une durée maximale de trois jours ouvrés, si elle considère qu'il existe des motifs sérieux de soupçonner des activités de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme (article 96 de la loi LAB/CFT). La décision peut être communiquée verbalement en cas d'urgence, mais doit ensuite être confirmée par écrit.
- Si dans le délai de trois jours ouvrés, la CRF ne parvient pas à obtenir confirmation du soupçon de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme, elle en informe les autorités compétentes et les entités assujetties qui exécutent alors la transaction immédiatement.
- La loi ne stipule pas expressément qu'une DOS doit être communiquée pour permettre le report d'une transaction. Cependant, dans la pratique, c'est le plus souvent le cas.
- La loi LAB/CFT prévoit des sanctions allant de 12 000 à 120 000 EUR pour les entités assujetties qui ne respecteraient pas la mesure de suspension temporaire d'une transaction ordonnée par la CRF.
- Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies. Un certain nombre de mesures ont donné lieu à une décision de justice ordonnant le gel provisoire des avoirs sur les comptes.

Décisions	Montant (en EUR)	Comptes bancaires	Personnes physiques	Personnes morales
2015	7	581 438	9	5
2016	10	1 750 671	22	13
2017	17	816 338	19	11 (9 étrangères)
2018	14	3 356 244	19	11 (11 étrangères)
Total	48	6 504 691	69	40 (20 étrangères)
				21 (1 étrangère)

Conclusion

6. La CRF slovène a le pouvoir d'ordonner le report d'une transaction suspecte pendant une durée de trois jours ouvrés. Une telle mesure fait souvent suite à une DOS, mais celle-ci n'est pas indispensable pour prendre la décision de suspension. Ce pouvoir a été exercé dans la pratique.

Espagne

1. Le Tribunal pénal espagnol peut ordonner le report d'une transaction nationale suspecte en tant que mesure d'urgence. La durée du report est fixée librement par le juge. Le Tribunal ne peut ordonner cette mesure qu'à la demande d'un procureur ou de la police, qui sont informés par les entités assujetties au moyen d'une DOS en cas de suspicion de blanchiment de capitaux/financement du terrorisme concernant une transaction donnée. Les décisions de report ne peuvent donc reposer que sur l'existence d'une DOS.
2. Aucune information n'a été fournie sur l'exercice de ce pouvoir dans la pratique.

Conclusion/Recommandation

3. Le Tribunal pénal peut ordonner le report d'une transaction nationale suspecte à la demande d'un procureur ou de la police, informés par le biais d'une DOS. La durée de la mesure est déterminée au cas par cas. Aucune pratique de l'adoption de décisions de report par le tribunal n'a été démontrée. Il est par conséquent recommandé aux autorités d'envisager d'étendre les pouvoirs de l'autorité compétente (par exemple le procureur ou la CRF) afin qu'elle puisse adopter des mesures urgentes de report de transactions nationales suspectes i) de sa propre initiative ii) après réception d'une DOS et iii) à la demande d'une autorité nationale compétente. Il est également recommandé aux autorités d'envisager de tenir des statistiques sur l'application de l'article 14.

Suède

1. Les Services de sécurité suédois et la CRF (qui fait partie de l'autorité de police suédoise) peuvent prononcer un gel temporaire des mouvements ou cessions de biens (fonds, titres ou autres droits) ou de valeurs équivalentes détenues par une entité assujettie (chapitre 4, article 11, interdiction de la cession de biens, loi LAB/CFT). Cette mesure peut être interprétée comme le pouvoir des autorités compétentes de reporter la conclusion d'une transaction (future) donnée. La décision de report doit être communiquée au procureur dans les meilleurs délais, afin que ce dernier puisse à son tour se prononcer en urgence sur le maintien ou non de la mesure. L'entité assujettie est immédiatement informée de la décision du procureur.
2. Cette mesure n'est pas limitée aux cas dans lesquels une DOS a été communiquée. Elle peut durer jusqu'à deux jours ouvrés si elle n'a pas été levée auparavant.
3. En ce qui concerne les déclarations a priori, la loi LAB/CFT prévoit au chapitre 3, article 3 qu'une entité assujettie devra s'abstenir d'exécuter une transaction avant de transmettre une déclaration à la CRF (conformément à la loi LAB/CFT, chapitre 4, section 3) s'il existe des motifs sérieux de soupçonner des activités de blanchiment de capitaux/financement du terrorisme. Cela dit, la transaction pourra tout de même avoir lieu s'il est impossible de faire autrement ou si le fait de ne pas l'exécuter risque de compromettre la suite de l'enquête.
4. Un exemple concret a été fourni pour démontrer que la CRF de Suède a imposé des mesures visant à faire opposition à des transactions suspectes. Les statistiques suivantes indiquent le nombre de décisions prises et les montants correspondants :

Année	Décisions	Montant (en EUR)*
2014 (juillet-décembre)	25	376 680
2015	72	770 685
2016	58	2 266 180
2017	70	1 598 053
2018	96	6 248 356
2019 –	41	3 546 282
Total	362	14 806 236

* Les chiffres en euros peuvent différer légèrement de la valeur réelle des avoirs reportés, du fait de la conversion des dollars américains et couronnes suédoises en euros.

Conclusion

5. Les autorités suédoises sont compétentes pour empêcher temporairement l'exécution de transactions suspectes pour une durée maximale de deux jours ouvrés, sur la base d'informations reçues des entités assujetties ou d'autres sources. La Suède a démontré sa pratique par une étude de cas ainsi que par des statistiques.

Türkiye

1. Le ministre du Trésor et des Finances turc peut officiellement reporter des transactions suspectées de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme (article 19(a) de la loi LAB/CFT) pour une durée de sept jours ouvrés, à l'initiative de la CRF. Il peut imposer cette mesure après avoir reçu une DOS faisant apparaître la nécessité d'un report de la transaction, de sa propre initiative ou à la demande d'homologues étrangers.
2. Le Règlement relatif au report des transactions dans le cadre de la prévention du blanchiment des produits du crime et du financement du terrorisme précise les principes et procédures à suivre en matière de report ou d'interdiction de l'exécution de transactions suspectes. Celles-ci peuvent être en voie ou en cours d'exécution par les entités assujetties. Cela étant, après la communication d'une DOS à la CRF, l'entité déclarante n'exécutera pas la transaction suspecte avant de recevoir des instructions supplémentaires.
3. Les statistiques suivantes ont été fournies sur le nombre de demandes ou de DOS reçues et de transactions reportées :

Demandes reçues	Transactions reportées*	Montant concerné (en EUR)
2016	2790	961
2017	9 785	8 220
Total	12 575	9 181
		182 793 600

* Cela inclut les DOS, les demandes étrangères et les décisions prises d'initiative. En 2017, une transaction a été reportée sur la base d'une demande étrangère et 71 transactions ont été reportées d'initiative. Les autres mesures de report faisaient suite à une DOS.

 Les chiffres en euros peuvent différer légèrement de la valeur réelle des avoirs reportés, du fait de la conversion des livres turques, dollars américains et GBP en euros. Outre les montants précédés, des transactions portant sur de l'or, de l'argent et des biens immobiliers ont également été suspendues en 2016 et 2017.

Conclusion

4. La loi turque donne au ministre du Trésor et des Finances, à l'initiative de la CRF, le pouvoir de reporter des transactions nationales suspectes pour une durée maximale de sept jours ouvrés, sans qu'il soit nécessaire de disposer d'une DOS à cet effet. Les statistiques montrent que ce pouvoir a été exercé dans la pratique.

Ukraine

1. La CRF ukrainienne peut ordonner la suspension de transactions financières (article 17(2) de la loi LAB/CFT) pour une durée de cinq jours ouvrés. Durant cette période, elle procède à des analyses supplémentaires pour décider de prolonger ou non la suspension, la durée totale de la mesure ne pouvant être supérieure à trente jours ouvrés.
2. Si le soupçon n'est pas confirmé, la CRF annule immédiatement la décision de suspension et informe l'entité déclarante pour que celle-ci puisse exécuter la transaction.

3. Les entités déclarantes sont tenues de signaler les soupçons à la CRF, puis elles suspendent la ou les transaction(s) financière(s) en question pendant une durée maximale de deux jours ouvrés.
4. La CRF peut prendre la décision sur la base d'une DOS communiquée par une entité déclarante ou de sa propre initiative.
5. Les chiffres suivants ont été fournis pour démontrer l'application de l'article 14 :

Suspension par l'entité déclarante	Suspension par la CRF	Total suspensions	Montant des fonds bloqués (en EUR)
2015	234	1676	1910
2016	149	608	757
2017	128	633	761
2018	132	265	397
Total	643	3182	3825
			333 millions

Conclusion

6. La CRF ukrainienne a le pouvoir de reporter des transactions nationales suspectes de sa propre initiative ou après réception d'une DOS, pour une période initiale de cinq jours ouvrés qui peut être prolongée à 30 jours ouvrés maximum. L'application de ces mesures dans la pratique a été démontrée.

Royaume-Uni

1. La CRF du Royaume-Uni est habilitée à surseoir à l'autorisation de conclure une transaction pour une période initiale de sept jours ouvrés, après réception d'une déclaration d'activité suspecte. Le système appliqué est donc un système d'autorisation et non de report des transactions.
2. Toute personne agissant dans le cadre de son activité professionnelle au sein du secteur réglementé est tenue de procéder à une « communication d'informations autorisée » (également appelée « déclaration d'activité suspecte pour la défense contre le blanchiment de capitaux ») en cas de soupçon de blanchiment de capitaux ou de financement du terrorisme. Les informations doivent être communiquées avant que la transaction ait lieu, hormis dans les cas où la personne ne savait pas ou ne soupçonnait pas que le bien était d'origine criminelle au début de l'acte, ou lorsqu'elle peut justifier la non-divulgation préalable par un motif sérieux. L'autorisation de conclure une transaction peut ensuite être accordée par un agent des douanes ou autre agent habilité en vertu de la loi LAB/CFT ou être présumée en l'absence de confirmation après sept jours ou à l'issue d'un moratoire de 31 jours. Le moratoire correspond à la période durant laquelle des investigations complémentaires sur d'éventuelles opérations de blanchiment de capitaux peuvent avoir lieu et des décisions être prises concernant les mesures coercitives supplémentaires (gel des comptes ou restitution civile du bien). Une décision judiciaire peut étendre le moratoire à 186 jours si l'enquête nécessite plus de temps.
3. L'agent des douanes ou autre agent habilité ne peut autoriser la conclusion de la transaction qu'après avoir fait une déclaration à l'Agence nationale de lutte contre la criminalité et obtenu le consentement de cette dernière.
4. Ces mesures ne s'appliquent que dans le cas où une déclaration d'activité suspecte a été communiquée.
5. En plus de cette procédure, les autorités de police peuvent demander une décision de gel de comptes ou une ordonnance de blocage pour empêcher une personne de réaliser des transactions sur des biens avant qu'une ordonnance de confiscation soit rendue ; cela dit, il ne s'agit pas d'une mesure urgente au sens où elle implique le report/sursis à l'octroi de l'autorisation de conclure une transaction. Les ordonnances de gel nécessitent des soupçons sérieux, généralement fondés sur l'existence d'une déclaration d'activité suspecte.

6. Les autorités n'ont pas démontré l'application de ces mesures.

Conclusion/Recommandation

7. Les autorités britanniques peuvent reporter des transactions nationales pour une durée maximale de sept jours, qui peut être étendue à 31 jours, et prorogeable à six mois, avec l'accord du tribunal, si cela est nécessaire aux fins d'une enquête pour blanchiment de capitaux. Ce pouvoir est limité aux cas dans lesquels une « déclaration d'activité suspecte pour la défense contre le blanchiment de capitaux » a été communiquée. Il est recommandé aux autorités britanniques d'envisager d'étendre les pouvoirs de la CRF afin qu'elle puisse surseoir à l'octroi de l'autorisation de conclure une transaction ou ordonner des mesures de report de sa propre initiative et à la demande des autorités nationales compétentes, indépendamment de l'existence d'une déclaration d'activité suspecte. Par ailleurs, il est recommandé aux autorités d'envisager de tenir des statistiques sur l'application de l'article 14.

Annexe II. Mise en œuvre de l'article 47(1)

Introduction Article 47(1)

1. L'article 14 est complété par l'article 47(1) qui dispose que la CRF devrait être autorisée à engager en urgence, à la demande d'une CRF étrangère, une mesure de report d'une transaction suspecte :
 - (1) « Chaque Partie adopte les mesures législatives ou autres qui se révèlent nécessaires pour permettre à sa cellule de renseignement financier d'initier en urgence, à la demande d'une cellule de renseignement financier étrangère, une mesure de suspension ou de report de la conclusion d'une transaction en cours. Les conditions et la durée d'une telle mesure sont identiques à celles prévues par le droit interne de la cellule de renseignement financier requise pour le report des transactions »
 - (2) « La cellule de renseignement financier requise prend les mesures prévues au paragraphe 1 lorsqu'elle estime, sur la base des éléments développés communiqués par la cellule de renseignement financier requérante, que :
 - a. la transaction est liée à une opération de blanchiment et que
 - b. la transaction aurait été suspendue, ou l'autorisation de conclure celle-ci non accordée si elle avait fait l'objet d'une DOS au niveau national ».
2. L'article 47 complète donc l'article 14 en demandant la mise en place de mesures pour permettre à une CRF d'initier en urgence une mesure de report d'une transaction suspecte à la demande d'une CRF étrangère. Conformément à l'article 47(1), la CRF requise est le point de contact de la CRF étrangère requérante. L'autorité qui prend la décision de report n'est pas nécessairement la CRF. Le report est effectué lorsque les critères énoncés à l'article 47(2) sont remplis, c'est-à-dire lorsque a) la CRF requise estime que la transaction est liée à une suspicion de blanchiment de capitaux et b) la transaction aurait été suspendue si elle avait été déclarée au niveau national.
3. La présente annexe examine le degré de mise en œuvre de l'article 47(1) par les États de la CdP. Une majorité d'États ayant fourni des informations pertinentes dans leur réponse initiale au questionnaire sur l'article 14, cette synthèse a été intégrée à l'étude sous forme d'addendum. Pour avoir une vue d'ensemble de la question, le Secrétariat a demandé aux États parties qui n'avaient pas donné d'informations sur l'article 47(1) de transmettre des informations supplémentaires sur le pouvoir de reporter des transactions à la demande d'une CRF étrangère, conformément à l'article 47(1).
4. Il est important de rappeler (voir au-dessus, paragraphe 6 de l'étude de suivi thématique relative à l'article 14) qu'aucune conclusion sur la mise en œuvre et les recommandations de suivi n'est faite concernant l'article 47(1), car initialement, cette disposition ne faisait pas partie du champ de l'étude de suivi thématique.
5. Comme l'a noté un des États parties dans ses réponses au questionnaire, les États de la CdP adoptent des approches très diverses pour ce qui est de la mise en œuvre des articles 14 et 47(1), à la fois en ce qui concerne l'autorité compétente et la durée des mesures de report. Concrètement, cela pourrait poser problème dans des dossiers présentant des éléments transfrontaliers au sens de l'article 47, car la CRF devra alors tenir compte des délais et procédures appliqués par l'autorité étrangère. Une approche plus harmonisée entre les États de la CdP pourrait améliorer l'efficacité de l'action en la matière.

Mise en œuvre

6. La plupart des États parties prévoient dans leur législation la possibilité d'ordonner des mesures urgentes en réponse à une demande étrangère. Les paragraphes suivants n'ont d'autre but que de donner un aperçu des quelques particularités relevées lors de l'examen des informations fournies.
Au Royaume-Uni, par exemple, l'autorité compétente peut prendre une décision « de sa propre initiative », ce qui donne à penser que des informations de sources étrangères ou des demandes étrangères pourraient constituer un motif suffisant d'adoption de mesures par les autorités elles-mêmes. Cela dit, cette possibilité n'est pas expressément prévue par la loi. La CRF espagnole ne peut ordonner des mesures urgentes qu'à la demande d'une CRF d'un État membre de l'UE (ce qui ne concerne donc pas tous les États de la CdP). Un État partie n'a pas donné de précisions sur la possibilité d'ordonner des mesures temporaires sur la base d'une demande étrangère.
7. Dans les pays qui ont habilité une autorité autre que la CRF à suspendre les transactions suspectes, les demandes formulées par les CRF étrangères au titre de l'article 47 sont transmises par l'intermédiaire de la CRF nationale, conformément à la procédure énoncée à l'article 14. Les Pays-Bas n'ont pas expressément prévu dans leur loi la possibilité d'ordonner le report temporaire d'une transaction sur la base d'une demande étrangère. Néanmoins, la CRF néerlandaise répondra à toute demande de mesure temporaire émanant d'une CRF étrangère en prenant les mesures nécessaires pour autant que cette demande soit conforme aux exigences prévues dans le droit interne. La même règle s'applique en Turkiye, où la CRF peut recevoir des demandes de report de transactions de CRF étrangères. La CRF communique la demande au ministre du Trésor et des Finances qui prend alors une décision concernant le report.
8. L'Italie, la Hongrie et la Turkiye ont fourni des statistiques pour démontrer la mise en œuvre effective de l'article 47(1). Saint-Marin a indiqué ne pas avoir reçu de demande de report d'une transaction suspecte de la part d'une CRF étrangère.
9. Le tableau suivant montre la mise en œuvre de l'article 47(1) dans l'ensemble des États de la CdP qui ont participé à la présente étude⁷ :

Annexe III – Règles de procédure: 19 bis

Règle 19² – Procédure de contrôle de la mise en œuvre de la Convention

En relation avec sa fonction en vertu de l'article 48, paragraphe 1a de la Convention, la Conférence des Parties applique les procédures ci-après.

Questionnaire

1. La Conférence des Parties prépare dans un délai de six mois après la première réunion de la Conférence un questionnaire aux fins du contrôle de la mise en œuvre appropriée de la Convention (ci-après « le Questionnaire »).
2. Le Questionnaire vise à recueillir des informations sur la mise en œuvre de dispositions de la Convention qui ne sont pas couvertes par d'autres normes internationales pertinentes faisant l'objet d'une évaluation mutuelle par le GAFI, MONEYVAL et d'autres organismes d'évaluation équivalents LCB/FT (les organismes régionaux de type GAFI, le Fonds monétaire international et la Banque Mondiale).

² Lors de sa 9ème plénière, la CdP a décidé de suspendre la procédure établie par la Règle 19 et d'appliquer un suivi thématique transversal selon les termes de la Règle 19 bis nouvellement adoptée, pour une période initiale de deux ans, avec une nouvelle discussion faisant le bilan de la question lors de sa 11ème plénière en 2019. La procédure de suivi relative à la Règle 19 continuera au moins jusqu'à une prochaine discussion en 2018.

Annexe IV – Questionnaire

COUNCIL OF EUROPE

Introduction

Lors de sa 9^e réunion, qui s'est tenue à Strasbourg du 21 au 22 novembre 2017, la Conférence des Parties à la Convention relative au blanchiment, au dépistage, à la saisie et à la confiscation des produits du crime et au financement du terrorisme (STCE n°198) a décidé de lancer la mise en œuvre d'un mécanisme de suivi thématique horizontal pour une période initiale de deux ans. Cet examen porte sur la manière dont tous les États parties appliquent certaines dispositions de la Convention, et doit être documenté dans un rapport de suivi thématique (Règle 19 bis des Règles de procédure).

Lors de sa 10^e réunion, tenue à Strasbourg du 30 au 31 octobre 2018, la Conférence des Parties a décidé que le deuxième rapport de suivi thématique devrait traiter de l'article 9(3) ainsi que de l'article 14 de la Convention.

Les Parties sont invitées à soumettre des informations sur la mise en œuvre de ces dispositions sur la base du questionnaire fourni ci-dessous. Les Parties sont également invitées à examiner le Guide pour la préparation des réponses, ajouté à ce questionnaire.

Soumission d'informations et date limite

Les questions ci-dessous reflètent les parties pertinentes du questionnaire adopté par la Conférence des Parties lors de sa 2^e réunion (Strasbourg, 15-16 avril 2010). Le questionnaire permet aux Parties de structurer les informations qu'elles soumettent, une fois recueillis les éléments et données nécessaires sur la mise en œuvre des dispositions de la Convention. Les Parties sont priées de s'assurer que leurs réponses restent aussi concises et brèves que possible.

Le Rapport explicatif de la STCE n°198⁸ peut être utile aux Parties pour structurer leurs réponses au questionnaire.

Les exemples fournis par les Parties peuvent inclure des cas de coopération fructueuse et/ou infructueuse avec d'autres Parties. La période de référence à prendre en compte pour le recueil de données doit commencer en janvier 2015.

Les réponses à ce questionnaire resteront confidentielles. Lorsque les parties communiquent des cas/exemples, certaines données (par exemple le nom de l'accusé ou d'autres détails pouvant révéler l'identité de celui-ci ou de la victime) peuvent être anonymisées si elles le souhaitent.

Les Parties sont invitées à envoyer leurs réponses au Secrétariat le 28 février 2019 au plus tard à l'adresse suivante : DGI-COP198@coe.int.

QUESTIONNAIRE

Article 14 – Report des transactions nationales suspectes

Votre pays a-t-il adopté des mesures législatives et autres pour permettre à une cellule de renseignements financiers ou, selon le cas, à toute autre autorité compétente ou organe, lorsqu'il existe un soupçon que la transaction est liée à une opération de blanchiment, d'agir en urgence pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction en cours, afin de lui permettre d'analyser la transaction et de confirmer les soupçons ?

Réponse

Votre pays limite-t-il l'application de telles mesures aux cas dans lesquels une déclaration d'opération suspecte a été préalablement communiquée ?

Réponse

Quelle est la durée maximale prévue par la législation nationale pour toute suspension ou report de la conclusion d'une transaction ?

Réponse

Informations à l'appui de la réponse

L'article 14 impose aux Parties de prendre des mesures pour permettre aux CRF ou, le cas échéant, aux autres autorités ou organismes compétents de prendre des mesures urgentes en vue de différer une transaction suspecte nationale.

Il est considéré que la Convention apporte une valeur ajoutée en ce sens qu'elle impose aux Etats Parties d'adopter les mesures nécessaires pour permettre d'agir en urgence dans les cas appropriés pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction en cours, afin de pouvoir analyser la transaction et confirmer les soupçons.

Chaque Partie peut limiter l'application d'une telle mesure aux cas dans lesquels une déclaration d'opération suspecte a été préalablement communiquée. La durée maximale pour toute suspension ou report de la conclusion d'une transaction est prévue par la législation nationale.

Les Parties sont tenues de fournir au minimum les articles pertinents de la législation nationale, règlements ou d'autres documents traitant de cette question, avec des exemples de cas et/ou des données statistiques et toutes autres mesures pertinentes démontrant la mise en œuvre de cette disposition de la Convention à l'appui de leur réponse. En outre, les Parties sont encouragées à appuyer leur réponse en fournissant toute autre information pertinente démontrant la mise en œuvre de cette disposition de la Convention.

Annex V. Réponses des États Parties

Note : les informations fournies ci-après se limitent à celles que les Etats parties ont soumises en réponse au questionnaire. Les informations complémentaires demandées ultérieurement par les rapporteurs/Secrétariat et envoyées sous différents formats (emails, documents scannés, feuilles excel, etc.) n'ont pas été incluses dans cette annexe.

⁹ The definitions of "monitoring participants" and "other persons involved in monitoring" under Azerbaijani legislation largely corresponds to the definitions of FIs and DNFBPs respectively.

¹⁰ Please kindly note that Article 11.4 of the AML/CFT Law directly prescribes the said actions for monitoring participants. However, the provisions of Article 11.4 are also applicable with respect to other persons involved in monitoring due to cross-reference stipulated under Article 5.1 of the AML/CFT Law.

The latter referenced to Article 19.3 of the AML/CFT Law within the same 72 hours period may take further measures to extend the suspension period based on the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan. It should be also noted that under Article 11.3 of the AML/CFT Law in case when non-execution of a transaction is impossible or where non-execution by REs may cause impediments for identification of the beneficial owner, the REs should send the respective reports immediately after execution of such transactions. Implementation According to available statistics, between 2014 and 2018 (inclusive), the Service imposed 11 suspension measures related to money laundering on amounts totalling 6,6047 mln. AZN. Out of these measures 9 were applied against individuals and 2 against legal entities. To further supplement the provided information and statistics, below is the case example demonstrating implementation of suspension measures by the Service (the real names of the parties in the case example have been changed to maintain confidentiality). Please note that the information below is not meant to be public. According to the STR received from Bank X, the local individual "A" established "ABC" LLC in 2018. The main activity of "ABC" LLC is customs brokerage. Individual "A" also opened a card account in Bank X in the name of "ABC" LLC. The said card account received transfers of more than 100,000 USD within one week of its opening. Such funds were originated from card holders (more than 100 different plastic cards) of 2 foreign countries. One of the banks from the originating foreign countries sent notification to Bank X regarding non-execution of the relevant transaction by its customer-card holder. Based on received notification, Bank X questioned the operations conducted by individual "A". The latter was not able to provide reasonable/adequate responses to Bank X questions. Bank X suspected that the respective funds from the foreign originated plastic cards were transferred fraudulently and filed the respective STR with the Service. Based on analysis of information contained in the STR, the Service also suspected that the funds were fraudulently obtained and, respectively, transactions have elements of a crime. Referenced to Article 19.2 of the AML/CFT Law the Service made decision to suspend the transactions of individual "A" and "ABC" LLC for 72 hours and the materials of the respective case were transferred for further investigation to the law enforcement authority.
	Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted? Yes. In accordance with provisions of Article 19 of the AML/CFT Law, the Service makes decision on suspension based on the information submitted by the REs on suspicious transactions related to the money laundering and financing of terrorism. Please refer to answer of question 1 of Article 14 for more details.
	What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation? Under Article 19 of the AML/CFT Law, the Service should make decision on suspension within 2 business days upon receipt of information on suspicious transaction from the REs. In case if the Service decides to suspend the reported transaction, it may do so for the period not exceeding 72 hours. Therefore, maximum duration in such case consists of 2 business days and additional 72 hours. As noted under answer to question 1 of Article 14, further suspension measures can be taken by the respective law-enforcement authorities as a part of a criminal proceeding. or requests of the prosecutor's office, bodies/institutions or foreign authorities, the Financial Intelligence Department has the authority to issue a written order to liable persons for a temporary suspension of transaction(s). In urgent cases, the Financial Intelligence Department issues a verbal order to liable persons, which is later confirmed by a written order.

Excerpt from the Law on Prevention of Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorist Activities ("Official Gazette of BiH", no. 47/14 and 46/16):

Article 58
(Temporary suspension of transactions)

(1) If, while carrying out its duties, including acting on requests of the authorities referred to in Articles 57, 62 and 66 hereof, the FID suspects money laundering or financing of terrorist activities in reference to a certain transaction, account or person, the FID may issue a written order for a temporary suspension of the transaction or transactions for no longer than 5 working days, and the period of temporary suspended transaction shall be counted from the moment of issuing the order for suspension by the FID, or from the moment of reporting on the suspicious transaction, when the reporting was made before the transaction and was confirmed by the FID. The FID may give additional instructions to a liable person as regards that transaction, suspension of transaction, execution of transaction as well as communication with the person or persons who are connected with the transaction or transactions.

(2) In urgent cases, the FID may issue a verbal order for temporary suspension of a transaction or transactions referred to in paragraph (1) hereof but shall forward a written order to a liable person on the following working day at the latest.

(3) An order for temporary suspension of a transaction or transactions shall include:

- a) Date and time the period of temporary suspension is counted from;
- b) Transaction account number;
- c) Data about the owner of account;
- d) Name of liable person and his other data;
- e) Amount of financial transaction or transactions to be temporarily suspended or suspended from being made;
- f) Other data related to a liable person and a suspicious transaction or transactions.

(4) After the period referred to in paragraph (1) hereof expires, a financial transaction may be temporarily suspended only by a decision of the competent court pursuant to the criminal procedure codes of BiH, FBiH, RS and BDBiH.

(5) The FID shall inform the authorities referred to in Articles 57, 62 and 66 hereof on issued written orders or on reasons for rejecting requests for temporary suspension of a transaction or transactions.

Article 59
(Termination of orders for temporary suspension of transactions)

(1) Should FID, after issuing the order for temporary suspension of transaction(s) within the deadline stipulated in Article 58 paragraph (1) hereof, assess that there is no further reason for the temporary suspension of transaction, it shall without delay notify the liable person in writing, who then may immediately perform the transaction.

(2) If FID does not take actions prescribed in paragraph (1) hereof, the liable person may immediately perform the transaction.

(3) The termination of an order for temporary suspension of transactions referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) hereof, as well as failure to issue an order for temporary suspension of a reported suspicious transaction shall not necessarily imply that a suspicion of money laundering or financing of terrorist activities does not exist.

2. Question: Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

	Answer: The Financial Intelligence Department of the State Investigation and Protection Agency may temporarily suspend the transaction(s), including actions upon the requests of prosecutor's office and other bodies, if there is a suspicion of money laundering or financing of terrorist activities related to a transaction, account or person. Thus, the action of the Financial Intelligence Department is not restricted to the existence of a suspicious transaction report. 3. Question: What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation? Answer: Temporary suspension of a transaction or transactions is for a maximum of five working days, and the period of temporary suspended transaction is counted from the moment of issuing the order. After expiration of this period, the financial transaction may be temporarily suspended only by a decision of the competent court in accordance with the criminal procedure codes of BiH, FBiH, RS and BDBiH. Statistical data of the Financial Intelligence Department of the State Investigation and Protection Agency for the period from 1 January 2015 to 31 December 2018, which refers to the temporary suspended funds are: <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Year</th><th>Number of orders</th><th>Summary amount of temporary suspended funds (BAM)*</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>2018</td><td>8</td><td>104,100,830.06</td></tr> <tr> <td>2017</td><td>8</td><td>272,119.40</td></tr> <tr> <td>2016</td><td>18</td><td>19,898,135.53</td></tr> <tr> <td>2015</td><td>24</td><td>3,351,596.69</td></tr> <tr> <td>TOTAL</td><td>58</td><td>127,622,681.68</td></tr> <tr> <td colspan="2"><hr/></td><td></td></tr> <tr> <td colspan="2">Value in EUR (total)</td><td>65,252,441.00</td></tr> </tbody> </table> conversion was made on 5 March 2019, at the middle rate of the CBBH Please find attached detailed statistics per years.	Year	Number of orders	Summary amount of temporary suspended funds (BAM)	2018	8	104,100,830.06	2017	8	272,119.40	2016	18	19,898,135.53	2015	24	3,351,596.69	TOTAL	58	127,622,681.68	<hr/>			Value in EUR (total)		65,252,441.00

Bulgaria	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion? Answer Bulgarian Parliament has recently adopted an entirely new Law on measures against money laundering (LMML). Amendments of the Law on measures against the financing of terrorism (LMFT) and other relevant laws have been also adopted. The new law was published in the Official Gazette on 27th March 2018 and entered into force on 31st March 2018. On 31st December 2018 the Rules on the implementation of the LMML have been adopted by the Council of Ministers. The new preventive legislation is not only aimed at the transposition of the 4th AMLD, but also addresses requirements of the Council of Europe Convention on Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds from Crime and on the Financing of Terrorism (CETS No. 198), the UNSCRs and last but not least – the FATF Recommendations. More specifically, the legislative amendments are related to the implementation of Chapter III, Section 2 and Chapter V of the Convention which are related to the functions and legal powers of the FIU and cooperation between FIUs. Amendments have been introduced with regard to the rules for postponement of suspicious transactions/operations. These concern three main issues:

		-The duration of the postponement has been increased from 3 to 5 working days (thus giving both the opportunity of the FIU, LEAs and the Prosecution to gather more evidence before proceeding with imposing provisional measures, also allowing the reporting entity to adequately handle any requests of the customer); -Bearing in mind the general provision of Art. 14 and the relevant paragraphs of the Explanatory report to the Convention, the amendments also aim at a more efficient and timesaving procedure regarding the postponement as the new law gives power to the director of the Financial Intelligence Directorate of SANS (in its capacity of the Bulgarian FIU) to issue orders the postponement. - There is an explicit provision for the postponement of transactions/operations upon request by another State Party (Art. 92 LMML and the amended Art. 11 LMFT) which provides a more comprehensive regulation of these issues. Prior to the adoption of the new LMML, the requirements of Art. 47 of the Convention were addressed by a more general provision of the former AML law. Upon suspicion of money laundering the Head of the Bulgarian FIU may postpone a transaction/operation for a period of up to five working days. Upon suspicion of terrorist financing the Minister of Interior or the Chairperson of the State Agency for National Security, or officials expressly empowered thereby may postpone a transaction/operation for a period of up to five working days. The relevant provisions from the Bulgarian AML/CFT legislation are described below: Law on Measures Against Money Laundering (LMML) - Article 73: Upon the receipt of notification ¹¹ on suspicions and/or knowledge of money laundering and/or funds of criminal origin, the Director of the Financial Intelligence Directorate of the State Agency for National Security may issue a written order for the postponement of a particular operation or transaction for a period of up to five working days reckoned from the day succeeding the day of issuing of the order, in order to analyse the said operation or transaction, confirm the suspicion and disseminate the results of the analysis to the competent authorities. Where a preventive attachment or garnishment¹² is not imposed within that period, the obliged entity may carry out the operation or transaction. After carrying out the analysis, within three working days reckoned from the day succeeding the day of issuing of the order, the Financial Intelligence Directorate of the State Agency for National Security shall inform the prosecutor's office of the postponement of the operation or transaction, providing the necessary information while protecting the anonymity of the person who submitted the notification. The prosecutor may approach the relevant court with a motion for the imposition of a garnishment or preventive attachment. The court must adjudicate on the motion within 24 hours from the receipt thereof. Law on Measures Against Financing of Terrorism (LMFT) – Article 11: Upon the receipt of notification on suspicions and/or knowledge of financing of terrorism, the Minister of Interior or the Chairperson of the State Agency for National Security, or officials explicitly empowered thereby, may issue a written order for the postponement of a particular operation or transaction for a period of up to five working days reckoned from the day succeeding the day of issuing of the order, in order to analyse the said operation or transaction, confirm the suspicion and disseminate the results of the analysis to the competent authorities. ¹¹ According to Art. 73, Para 1 LMML, the postponement may be ordered upon the receipt of a suspicious transaction report from the obliged entities under Art. 4 LMML (Art. 72 LMML), upon the receipt of information for ML from state authorities (Art. 88 LMML), upon the receipt of information for ML from a foreign FIU (Art. 89 LMML) as well as upon a request from a foreign FIU (Art. 90 LMML).

¹² These are different types of provisional measures depending on the type of assets (movable or immovable) which prevent the transfer, disposition or other actions to be undertaken with regard to the assets.

	National Security shall promptly inform the prosecutor's office of the postponement of the operation or transaction, providing the necessary information while protecting the anonymity of the person who submitted the notification. Where a preventive attachment or garnishment is not imposed within that period, the obliged entity under LMML may carry out the operation or transaction. Moreover, the LMFT envisages, in case of emergency, when this is the only opportunity to freeze funds and other financial assets or economic resources of a person in respect of whom there is reason to believe that he or she prepares to commit a terrorist act, the Minister of Interior or the Chairperson of the State Agency for National Security or an official explicitly authorised thereby may, by a written order, freeze funds and other financial assets or economic resources for a period of up to 45 working days reckoned from the day following the date of issuing of the order whereas they shall notify forthwith the prosecutor's office and shall provide to it any required information.

	Answer According to Art. 73, Para 1 LMML, the postponement may be ordered upon the receipt of a suspicious transaction report from the obliged entities under Art. 4 LMML (Art. 72 LMML), upon the receipt of information for ML from state authorities (Art. 88 LMML), upon the receipt of information for ML from a foreign FIU (Art. 89 LMML) as well as upon a request from a foreign FIU (Art. 90 LMML).

5 working days reckoned from the day following the issuing of the order.
Case example: The case is based on several STRs from Bulgarian banks and relevant to requests from foreign FIUs from 2017 and 2018: The case involves incoming transfers under bank accounts of Bulgarian entities ordered mainly by different natural persons from foreign states and subsequent outgoing transfers of amounts under the threshold for declaring of the source of funds. The beneficiaries were mainly legal entities in foreign jurisdictions. The Bulgarian companies involved in the case had identical seat, client profile and economic behaviour. They were solely owned by foreign nationals and were incorporated in the Republic of Bulgaria by virtue of powers of attorney certified in a foreign state (a State Party). After the STRs were analyzed and information was exchanged with the foreign FIUs (most of which are State Parties), materials on the case have been forwarded to the Bulgarian Prosecution with suspicions of established scheme for laundering of funds generated from participation in social engineering frauds. Pursuant to Bulgarian AML/CFT legislation our FIU has exercised its powers on this case to postpone suspicious transactions conducted by the company established in Bulgaria involved in the scheme. The case also involves relevant checks by LEAs in foreign states. The sums of the suspended transactions were of a considerable amount of money.

Estonia	The corresponding legislative measures has been adopted in Estonia with Money Laundering and Terrorist Prevention Act (MLTFPA). Full text of the act is relevant here: https://www.riigiteataja.ee/en/eli/ee/521022023001/consolidate/current Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) has the right to withhold a transaction in case of money laundering suspicion. According to MLTFPA § 57 - In the event of suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, the FIU may issue a compliance notice to stop a criminal activity or, at the request of the financial intelligence unit of another country, to suspend a transaction or impose restrictions on the disposal of property on an account, property kept on an account or property constituting the object of the transaction, official operation or official service or other property suspected of being associated with money laundering or terrorist financing for up to 30 calendar days as of the delivery of the compliance notice. Initial withhold can last up to 30 days, after that the FIU can withhold transaction another 60 days if the owner or the possessor does not prove the legal origin of the property or there is terrorism financing suspicion (MLTFPA § 57 (3)). If after that period still the beneficial owner of the money has not been established, the FIU may ask the administrative court for permission to restrict the disposal of the property until the owner of beneficial owner of the property has been established, but not for more than one year (MLTFPA § 57 (6)). Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?  No, all restrictions come from the MLTFPA § 57 and they are not bound to the restriction, that previously should have been submitted suspicious transaction report.  What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation? According to the MLTFPA, the maximum duration of restricting the disposal of the property is one year. The 30+60-day restriction can be set by the FIU itself, up to a one-year limit is allowed only on the permission from administrative court. According to the MLTFPA § 57 subsection 1 in the event of suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, the FIU may issue a compliance notice to stop a criminal activity or, at the request of the financial intelligence unit of another country, to suspend a transaction or impose restrictions on the disposal of property on an account, property kept on an account or property constituting the object of the transaction, official operation or official service or other property suspected of being associated with money laundering or terrorist financing for up to 30 calendar days as of the delivery of the compliance notice. In the event property registered in the land register, ship register, central securities depository, motor register, register of construction works or another state register, the FIU may, in the event of justified suspicion, restrict the disposal of the property for the purpose of ensuring its preservation for up to 30 calendar days. According to subsection 3 by means of a compliance notice, the FIU may, in addition to the period specified in subsection 1 of this section, restrict the disposal of property for the purpose of ensuring its preservation for additional 60 calendar days where the possessor or owner of the property fails to prove the legal origin of the property or there is suspicion that the property is used for terrorist financing.

		After that according to subsection 6, where the owner of the property or, in the event of property held on the account, also the beneficial owner of the property has not been established, the FIU may ask the administrative court for permission to restrict the disposal of the property until the owner or beneficial owner of the property has been established and the FIU may ask the same also upon termination of criminal proceedings, but not for more than one year. The FIU has a powerful mechanism to issue suspension orders i.e., precepts. It can issue the precept to suspend a transaction or impose restrictions on the disposal of property. These measures were used regularly to safeguard assets. Other measures are also utilised, such as entering restrictions on the land register to prevent the sale, dissipation or lodging of a charge against immovable property. In a time period of 2018 – 2022, FIU has restricted the assets: <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Year</th><th>30-day restrictions</th><th>60-day restrictions</th><th>1 year restrictions</th></tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>2018</td><td>69</td><td>51</td><td>-</td></tr> <tr> <td>2019</td><td>50</td><td>39</td><td>2</td></tr> <tr> <td>2020</td><td>32</td><td>15</td><td>2</td></tr> <tr> <td>2021</td><td>15</td><td>12</td><td>5</td></tr> <tr> <td>2022</td><td>56</td><td>12</td><td>5</td></tr> </tbody> </table> * Restrictions on accounts and assets are both included. 60-day or one-year restrictions have been tied to the initial 30-day restriction. One year restriction may also be set after the end of the criminal proceedings. Case example for FIU restriction and the initiated criminal proceedings Estonian company X, manager of a crowd-funding platform, transferred millions of euros to its account in foreign country A. The credit institution servicing the accounts of company X suspected that the latter was not using the funds it received for their intended purpose and asked for additional information. Once the company X refused to provide it, the credit institution blocked the account of company X account and submitted an urgent report to the FIU in 2020. The FIU analysed the report and, as a result of its preliminary analysis, found negative background information on a person related to the actual beneficiary of company X. The FIU imposed a restriction on the account of company X and subsequently asked all Estonian credit institutions for information related to company X, questioned the authorised representative of company X and requested information from the FIU of country A. The authorised representative of company X was not able to explain to the FIU the substance or legality of the company's payment behaviour, nor did he provide any additional documents or evidence regarding the origin of the money, the intended nature of the transactions or the company's activities. It was suspected that the platform advertised some fictitious projects. The account of company X was suspended for an additional 60 days. The company X was requested to provide additional information on its investment projects and the member of the management board was called to provide explanations. The FIU submitted a criminal report to the Police and Border Guard Board, followed by several disseminations thereafter to supplement the criminal case. During the additional analysis, it emerged that the member of the management board of company X was a straw man, and that the actual beneficiary of the company was a citizen of country B. The FIU also cooperated with the relevant foreign FIUs and requested for restriction of funds in those jurisdictions. During the court proceedings funds were seized in Estonia and in one foreign jurisdiction. Case example for 1 year restriction and transfer the funds to state ownership	Year	30-day restrictions	60-day restrictions	1 year restrictions	2018	69	51	-	2019	50	39	2	2020	32	15	2	2021	15	12	5	2022	56	12	5

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

No, there is not such restriction in the Hungarian legislation.

According to the Section 35 (1) of the AML/CFT Act the service provider shall suspend execution of the transaction in accordance with the HFIU's instruction if the HFIU notifies the service provider in writing regarding a fact, data or circumstance constituting grounds for reporting in connection with the transaction or the service provider's client.

The HFIU notifies the service provider in the framework of its operative analysis.

The operative analysis of the HFIU is triggered mainly by the obliged entities reporting a SAR, however there are other triggers (incoming information, requests, reports), which generate operative analysis of the HFIU /see Section 40 of the AML/CFT Act/:

- request, spontaneous information from foreign FIU;
- information sent by supervisory body, Customs Authority;
- cash control reports from Customs Authority;
- report from FRM (financial restrictive measures) authority;
- request from competent domestic authorities.

In view of the above, the Hungarian legislation does not restrict the use of the legal instrument suspension to cases where a SAR was submitted.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

The duration of the suspension is 4 working days, which can be expanded with extra 3 working days /Section 35 (2) and (3) of the AML/CFT Act/.

Italy	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion?  Answer Legislative references and background <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • According to the Italian AML legislation, the UIF, as the Italian Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU), is entrusted with the power of suspending transactions that are suspected of money laundering, associated predicate offences or terrorist financing. • In particular, under article 6(4)(c) of Legislative Decree n. 231 of 21 November 2007¹³, as amended by legislative decree n. 90 of 25 May 2017, implementing art. 32(7) of the Directive (EU) 2015/849 (Fourth AML Directive¹⁴), the UIF may suspend suspicious transactions, also upon request by competent Law enforcement bodies (Nucleo Speciale Polizia Valutaria of Guardia di Finanza and Direzione Investigativa Antimafia) and the Judicial authority, as well as upon request by another FIU, for up to five working days, provided there is no prejudice to ongoing investigations. • The effectiveness of the postponement power relies also on the provision in article 35(1) of Leg. Decree 231/2007. Obliged entities, in fact, have an obligation to “transmit without delay any Suspicious Transaction Report (STR) to UIF, whenever they know, suspect or have reasonable grounds to suspect that money laundering or terrorist financing is being or has been carried out or attempted, or that the funds, regardless of their origin, are the proceeds of criminal activity”, “prior to executing a transaction”. • This general principle of “ex ante” or “a priori” reporting (i.e. before executing a transaction) upon the detection of suspicion, is further qualified by the obligation, in article 35(2), for reporting entities to refrain from executing suspicious transactions until the disclosure process has been completed (as also foreseen by art. 32(7) of the Fourth Directive). • It is also important to underscore that, as prescribed by FATF standards and EU Directives, in accordance with article 35(1) recalled above, the obligation to file STRs applies also to attempted transactions: this is clearly conducive to the effective deployment of the postponement power by UIF. • As said, UIF is empowered to postpone transactions also upon request by a foreign FIU. This measure, introduced in the occasion of the implementation of the EU Fourth AML/CFT Directive (art. 32(7)), conforms to art. 47 of CETS 198. In accordance with these provisions, the postponement on behalf of a foreign counterpart can be carried out provided that UIF is satisfied that the transaction in question is indeed suspicious and, therefore, would have been suspended had it been reported domestically. Sanctions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pursuant to art. 58(6) of the Leg. Decree 231/2007, obliged entities that fail to suspend suspicious transactions as established by the UIF, pursuant to art. 6(4)(c), shall be subject to an administrative pecuniary sanction ranging from EUR 5,000 to EUR 50,000.

		The procedure <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The postponement power of the UIF is an important administrative tool that is particularly effective in delaying the execution of suspicious transactions for an interim time, until further precautionary measures can be taken by competent law enforcement authorities. • The provision in art. 6(4)(c) of Leg. Decree 231/2007 allows the UIF to adopt postponement actions based on an autonomous decision, provided that relevant requirements are fulfilled. As said, the postponement order can be issued also upon a request from other domestic agencies (Law enforcement agencies / Judicial authority) or from a foreign counterpart. • In any event, in order for the postponement to be effective, appropriate contacts are swiftly taken by UIF with competent law enforcement agencies to verify if the case underlying the transaction is already subject to investigations or legal proceedings, ensure that the postponement do not endanger such investigations or proceedings and make sure that the provisional suspension can be secured and consolidated through appropriate seizure or forfeiture orders. • In order to ensure a prompt and coordinated action by all the entities involved in the process (UIF, reporting entities/FIUs and other competent authorities), the UIF has issued instructions for filing reports, including as regards the aspects of “refraining” and postponing, (Provision of 4 May 2011, available in Italian on the UIF’s website¹⁵) and devised internal guidelines and procedures either for domestic Authorities’ or for foreign FIUs’ postponement requests. • Once the relevance of the case has been assessed and the decision of suspending the transaction has been taken by the UIF, it is pivotal that further action and the necessary liaison with competent law enforcement authorities are taken as quickly as possible, in order to seek their interest in the subsequent seizure of the funds and so that the reporting entity (or the requesting foreign FIU) receives a prompt feedback from the UIF. • The issue of the timeframe is particularly relevant in cross-border cases, where the suspension order issued by the UIF on behalf of a foreign counterpart must be followed by a MLA request. In such cases, feedback is provided by the UIF in a very short time, within which the transactions and the underlying assets have to be either refrained or released, and this poses significant challenges to effective cooperation (infra).

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

Answer

- Postponement orders are issued by the UIF whenever it is informed of suspicious transactions that have not been executed (yet) or, in any event, of funds or other assets of suspicious origin deposited on an account or other relationship. The triggering element can be provided by the reporting entity in its disclosure (e.g. pointing to the request of withdrawal or of a pending transfer) or independently detected by UIF.

¹⁵ <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:32015L0849&from=EN>.

- As said, requests for postponement of domestic suspicious transactions may also come from foreign FIUs (see supra) and from Law enforcement agencies / Judicial authority. In these instances, the UIF is empowered to postpone transactions or “freeze” funds regardless of whether such transactions or funds have been reported in a domestic disclosure.
- In any event, the case has to be assessed as relevant and a ground for suspicion is needed, in relation to either money laundering and associated predicate offences or financing of terrorism.

Statistical data

- 2017. The cases considered by UIF for suspension purposes strongly increased in 2017: 214 cases compared with 126 in 2016. In 38 cases the analysis led to a suspension order. The relevant cases mainly dealt with the redemption of insurance policies, while a smaller proportion involved the withdrawals of cash and transfers abroad (source: UIF Annual Report for 2017¹⁶).
- 2018. The number of cases for suspension further increased in 2018: 328 cases have been assessed and 47 suspension orders have been issued by the UIF (source: UIF Newsletter I/2019¹⁷). Interestingly, in a few cases where the activities targeted by the postponement order had a trans-national dimension, with funds going to or coming from other jurisdictions, UIF has coordinated with the competent foreign FIUs to secure the appropriate interest or follow up in all countries involved.
- In 2018 the UIF received from foreign FIUs n. 22 requests for postponement. In such cases the UIF took urgent actions in order to detect, monitor and keep blocked, at domestic intermediaries, funds of allegedly illicit origin from abroad.
- In 44 cases foreign FIUs communicated the execution of refraining measures in their countries for subsequent possible interest of the Italian authorities in the seizure of the assets. In such cases of postponement of foreign transactions, UIF rapidly liaised with domestic LEAs to secure prompt responses on possible need for seizure or forfeiture through appropriate channels.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

Answer

- According to the a.m. art. 6(4)(c) of leg. decree 231/2007, the maximum duration of a postponement order issued by the UIF is five working days. Within this timeframe, as said, UIF liaises with competent law enforcement agencies or prosecutors to ensure the appropriate follow up.
- The experience so far demonstrates that the system works in a highly effective manner, allowing to identify, block and recover substantial amounts of money in support of investigations or prosecutions.
- At the international level, as far as FIU-to-FIU cooperation is concerned, differences in domestic capacities and conditions underlying the postponement may limit effective action. This problem is heightened by existing differences in the duration of the postponement order across countries. More uniform approaches would benefit the overall capacity to stop and seize criminal funds in cross-border situations.

3. Orders within which the FIU Latvia freeze funds based on information provided by a foreign FIU

Case within which the FIU Latvia froze funds based on information provided by a foreign FIU
FACTS

1) The FIU Latvia received information from a foreign FIU, that the transactions carried out in foreign company's "G" (further in text – company "G") account held in credit institution in Latvia "Y" (further in text – credit institution "Y") might be connected to foreign corruption and misappropriation.

The foreign FIU informed the FIU Latvia that an investigation is being carried out regarding the possible corruption case.

2) The FIU Latvia verified the information by, among other things, requesting information from credit institution "Y".

The following was established:

- in the account of company "G" ~12 million USD were received from foreign company's "S" account held in foreign credit institution "L". (Purpose of payment – consultation services);
- debit operations made from company's "G" account (~3 million USD) are related regarding investments made in the interests of company "G";
- for several years in credit institution "Y" no information had been submitted regarding the person empowered to carry out actions with the account of company "G".

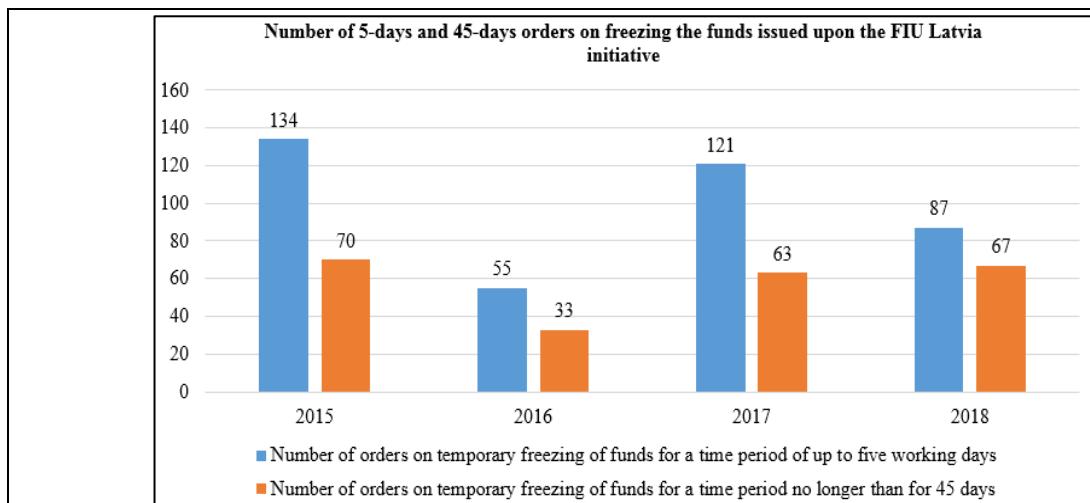

RESULTS

3) As suspicion rose of legalization of proceeds derived from criminal offences in a foreign country, the FIU Latvia:

- froze funds (~8.8 million USD) in the account of company "G", and froze the investments of company "G" (~2 million USD and investments in gold).
- referred the case materials to investigatory institution.

4) Investigatory institution added information from the case to an already existing criminal proceeding.

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

In conformity with the requirements of AML/CFT Law, the reporting entity shall, without delay, but not later than on the following working day, notify the FIU Latvia of refraining from executing a transaction. (AML/CFT Law sec. 32(2))

The FIU Latvia has the right to issue an order binding on the reporting entity or the State information system manager to freeze the funds if there are reasonable suspicions that a criminal offence is being committed or has been committed, including money laundering, terrorism financing or an attempt of such criminal offences. (AML/CFT Law sec. 32¹(1))

The FIU Latvia shall issue an order on freezing the funds:

- 1) after receipt of the report of the reporting entity on the refraining from executing a transaction;
- 2) upon its own initiative;
- 3) upon a request of foreign authorised institutions referred to in AML/CFT Law section 62(1) of AML/CFT Law to freeze the funds. (AML/CFT Law sec. 32¹(2))

Orders on freezing the funds issued upon the FIU Latvia initiative

Case within which the FIU Latvia froze funds upon its own initiative

FACTS

1) In foreign company's "V" (further in text – company "V") account held in credit institution in Latvia "X" (further in text – credit institution "X") two payments were received for ~5 million EUR from foreign company's "T" (further in text – company "T") account held in foreign credit institution "S" (further in text – credit institution "S").

According to the supporting documentation (agreements and invoices) of the payments, company "V" sold to company "T" gaming laptops.

2) Large part of the funds (~3.3 million EUR) were transferred from company's "V" account in credit institution "X" to a different credit institution's "X" client – foreign company "M" (further in text – company "M").

Payments were justified with a loan agreement.

3) The following were established during the analysis of the transactions:

- Credit institution "X" did not have complete justifying documentation for the transactions carried out by company "V".
- The submitted justifying documentation had indication of a forgery:

- signature and stamp's imprint on the documents might have been copied, as it was established that two different documents had identical signatures and stamps;
- the justifying documentation for movement of goods (that confirms custom's control and the movement of goods across the border) was printed on top of stamps.
- Payments for computers were not established in company's "V" account in a scale that could correspond to the payments received from company "T".

4) Taking into account the established facts and considering that the sphere for trading computers and similar goods is connected to a high falsification risk, as it is difficult to appraise the value of goods and their movement, the FIU Latvia suspects that the transactions might be related to a criminal offence inter alia legalization of funds of unknown origin.

RESULTS

5) To prevent further legalization of proceeds the FIU Latvia:

- upon its own initiative froze funds – issued orders for freezing funds for a set period of time in the accounts of credit institution's "X" client – company "V" for ~1.6 million EUR;
- referred the case materials to investigatory institution (the case holds a reference to Warsaw convention).

6) Investigatory institution initiated a criminal proceeding based on the information provided by the FIU Latvia.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

Section 32² of AML/CFT Law describes procedures by which the FIU Latvia shall issue an order on freezing of funds.

AML/CFT Law provides for 5 day refraining and 8 day refraining:

The FIU Latvia shall, not later than within 5 working days, but, if additional information needs to be requested, within 8 working days, after receipt of the report of the reporting entity the refraining from executing a transaction, assess whether the reporting entity has taken the decision provided for in section 32 of AML/CFT Law in accordance with the provisions of AML/CFT Law and whether the restriction of the rights determined for the particular person is commensurate, and shall issue an order to terminate the refraining from executing a transaction or to carry out temporary freezing of funds. An order of the FIU Latvia in accordance with which the reporting entity terminates the refraining from executing a transaction shall be substantiated. (AML/CFT Law sec 32²(1))

If the FIU Latvia has issued an order on temporary freezing of funds on the basis of the report of the reporting entity on the refraining from executing a transaction, then the FIU Latvia shall compile and analyse the obtained information and not later than within 40 days after receipt of the report of the reporting entity on the refraining from executing a transaction, but - in exceptional case - within an additional time period determined by the Prosecutor General or his or her specially authorised prosecutor (not longer than 40 days) that is necessary for the receipt of significant requested information, including from abroad, shall carry out one of the following actions:

1) issue an order on freezing of funds for a certain period of time if:

- a) money or other funds are to be considered proceeds of crime pursuant to section 4(3) of AML/CFT Law. In such case the funds shall be frozen for a period of time determined in the order, however, no longer than for six months;
- b) on the basis of the information at the disposal of the FIU Latvia, there are suspicions that

		a criminal offence is being committed or has been committed, including money laundering or an attempt of such criminal offence. In such case the funds shall be frozen for a period of time determined in the order, however, no longer than for 45 days; 2) provide a written notification to the reporting entity or the State information system manager that further temporary freezing of funds shall be terminated because there are no grounds for the issue of the order referred to in paragraph 2, subparagraph 1 of section 32²; 3) not later than on the fortieth day from the time when the report of the reporting entity on the refraining from executing the transaction has been received, notify the reporting entity or the State information system manager with a written order on the extension of the time period for freezing of funds of an additional time period determined by the Prosecutor General or his or her specially authorised prosecutor provided for in paragraph 2 of section 32². Case within which the FIU Latvia froze funds after the reporting entity (bank) initiated refraining from carrying out transaction

FACTS

- The FIU Latvia received information concerning suspicious transactions in Latvian company's SIA "B" (further in text – SIA "B") account held in credit institution in Latvia "Z" (further in text – credit institution "Z"):
 - In the account of SIA "B" in credit institution "Z" ~1.2 million EUR were received from foreign company's "C" account held in foreign credit institution "R";
 - part of the funds from SIA "B" account held in credit institution "Z" were debited:
 - ~200 000.00 EUR to SIA "B" accounts in different credit institutions in Latvia;
 - ~50 000.00 EUR to the account of natural person "K" in foreign credit institution (payment made as a repayment of a loan).
 - from SIA "B" account in credit institution "Z" another payment was submitted in total of 90 000.00 EUR to an account of "K" in a foreign credit institution.
- It was established that a year before the transfers were made by natural person "K" had become the sole owner and one of the officials of SIA "B". Credit institution "Z" had not been informed about the change of the beneficial owner.
- To acquire a more detailed information concerning the submitted payment (90 000.00 EUR), credit institution "Z" sent a request to the previous official and contact person of SIA "B – natural person "L".

Case within which the FIU Latvia froze funds based on information provided by a foreign FIU
FACTS

1) The FIU Latvia received information from a foreign FIU, that the transactions carried out in foreign company's "G" (further in text – company "G") account held in credit institution in Latvia "Y" (further in text – credit institution "Y") might be connected to foreign corruption and misappropriation.

The foreign FIU informed the FIU Latvia that an investigation is being carried out regarding the possible corruption case.

2) The FIU Latvia verified the information by, among other things, requesting information from credit institution "Y".

The following was established:

- in the account of company "G" ~12 million USD were received from foreign company's "S" account held in foreign credit institution "L". (Purpose of payment – consultation services);
- debit operations made from company's "G" account (~3 million USD) are related regarding investments made in the interests of company "G";
- for several years in credit institution "Y" no information had been submitted regarding the person empowered to carry out actions with the account of company "G".

RESULTS

3) As suspicion rose of legalization of proceeds derived from criminal offences in a foreign country, the FIU Latvia:

- froze funds (~8.8 million USD) in the account of company "G", and froze the investments of company "G" (~2 million USD and investments in gold).

Malta	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion?

Article 14 of the Warsaw Convention (together with Article 47 of the same) has been implemented through Article 28 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act [Cap 373 of the Laws of Malta] ("PMLA"), a copy of which is being attached hereto as Annex 1.

Article 28(1) of the PMLA empowers the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit ("FIAU"), i.e. the Maltese FIU, to postpone, where it considers it necessary, the execution of any transaction to be carried out by a reporting entity which the FIAU knows or suspects to be related to money laundering or the funding of terrorism, or involves property that is derived from or constitutes the proceeds of criminal activity. A postponement order can be issued not only following a Suspicious Transaction Report ("STR") by a reporting entity but also on the basis of any other information that may be obtained by the FIAU, including upon a request from a counterpart FIU.

It should be noted that Article 28 is complemented by Regulation 15(4) of the Prevention of Money Laundering and Funding of Terrorism Regulations ("PMLFTR"). This particular provision of the PMLFTR obliges a reporting entity to file a STR with respect to any pending transaction which it knows to, or suspects may, be related to proceeds of criminal activity or the funding of terrorism and to refrain from its execution in line with what is provided under Article 28 of the PMLA.

The PMLFTR do however provide for circumstances in which a reporting entity may still execute a pending transaction and report subsequently to the FIAU but this only '[w]here it is not possible for a subject person to refrain from carrying out a transaction prior to informing the Financial Intelligence Analysis Unit ... or where refraining from carrying out any such transaction is likely to frustrate the efforts of investigating or pursuing the beneficiaries of the suspected money laundering or funding of terrorism' [Regulation 15(5) of the PMLTR]. In any such case, once the transaction has been executed, the reporting entity has to submit a STR immediately and also set out the reasons why it deemed it impossible to refrain from executing the transaction. Regulation 15 is reproduced in Annex 2 hereto.

Information on how the said power can be exercised and the duration of any such postponement order is provided in the replies to the additional questions hereunder.

With regards to the actual implementation of this provision, statistical data on transactions postponed by the FIAU in terms of the said Article 28 over the period 2015 to 2018 is being provided in Annex 3 hereto. As the figures will show, postponement orders are not issued automatically by the FIAU but there has to be a reasonable suspicion on its part that justifies the issue of such an order. In addition, statistical data is also being provided as to how many of these postponement orders were then followed by an attachment order. A series of case studies are also being included in Annex 4 hereto.

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

As already remarked in the reply to the above question, Article 28 imposes no such limitation. In terms of Article 28(1) the FIAU can order the postponement of a transaction which it considers to be suspicious either on the basis that it has been 'informed by a subject person [i.e. through a suspicious transaction report ("STR")] ... or ... on the basis of information in its possession, including upon a request by a foreign body, authority or agency which is considered to have functions equivalent or analogous to those of the Unit'.

Thus, the said power is exercisable whenever the FIAU considers that a transaction is suspicious, including on the basis of information obtained through a STR or information which it has otherwise acquired, including upon receiving a request from a counterpart FIU or from any

	other source, including for example through a foreign Law Enforcement Agency (“LEA”). To this effect, please note in particular Case Study 4.3 in Annex 4 hereto.
What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?
A distinction has to be drawn between situations where the FIAU orders the postponement of a transaction on the basis of information obtained through a STR and situations where the postponement results from information obtained through other means.
Scenario 1 – Postponement Order Issued following Filing of STR When acting on the basis of information obtained through a STR, the suspension of a transaction's execution can last for up to three (3) working days following the day on which the reporting entity submits the information to the FIAU, one (1) working day by operation of the law and a maximum of a further two (2) days upon a postponement order being issued by the FIAU. In these circumstances, the PMLA provides that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • whenever a STR is submitted to the FIAU on a transaction that is still to be executed, the reporting entity is to desist from executing the transaction for one (1) working day¹⁸ following the day on which the entity submitted the STR (please refer to the proviso to Article 28(1) of the PMLA). Thus, if a STR on a pending transaction is filed on Monday, the reporting entity is by law obliged to desist from executing the transaction for all of Tuesday; • In the course of the said one (1) working day, the FIAU is to determine if there are sufficient grounds to oppose the execution of the reported transaction, in which case it has to notify its opposition thereto to the reporting entity in writing within the said working day. This will result in the suspension of the transaction for a second working day (please refer to Article 28(2) of the PMLA). Continuing with the example given above, if within Tuesday the FIAU determines that there are grounds for a postponement order and it communicates its decision on the matter in writing to the reporting entity, the said reporting entity cannot execute the transaction for all of Wednesday. On the other hand if no communication is received from the FIAU by the reporting entity within Tuesday, it is left to the said entity to determine whether it still wants to execute the transaction or otherwise – the FIAU is not obliged to give its consent to the transaction's execution; • Should it be necessary, the FIAU is empowered to extend the suspension period for an additional working day resulting in the transaction being suspended for a third working day (please refer to Article 28(3) of the PMLA). However, any such decision would need to be communicated to the reporting entity prior to the lapse of the second working day on which the transaction's execution is suspended. Continuing with the example provided above, if the FIAU considers that the transaction needs to be postponed for a further day, it has to communicate its order to the reporting entity in writing within Wednesday in which case the transaction cannot be processed until the end of Thursday. On the other hand, if no such communication is received, the decision rests once more with the reporting entity whether to proceed with the transaction or otherwise.

¹⁸ A working day is any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a public or national holiday.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At the end of the third working day, the FIAU can no longer postpone the execution of a pending transaction and, unless an attachment order is issued, it would be left to the reporting entity to determine if it still wants to execute the transaction or otherwise. It should be noted that an attachment order can be equally issued at any point in time where there is a postponement order already in place, in which case the attachment order will replace the postponement one and render the latter's extension unnecessary. Annex 5 sets out the postponement order timeline when a STR on a pending transaction is filed on a Friday. Scenario 2 – Postponement Order Issued on the Basis of Other Information On the other hand, when acting on the basis of information obtained through other means, including on the basis of information obtained from a counterpart FIU, there is no automatic suspension of the transaction's execution by operation of the law as described above and therefore the transaction can only be suspended for a maximum of two (2) working days following the day on which the FIAU notifies to the reporting entity its opposition to the transaction, in line with the same process outlined under Scenario 1.
Monaco		Votre pays a-t-il adopté des mesures législatives et autres pour permettre à une cellule de renseignements financiers ou, selon le cas, à toute autre autorité compétente ou organe, lorsqu'il existe un soupçon que la transaction est liée à une opération de blanchiment, d'agir en urgence pour suspendre ou reporter la conclusion d'une transaction en cours, afin de lui permettre d'analyser la transaction et de confirmer les soupçons ? L'article 37 de la loi n° 1.362 relative à la lutte contre le blanchiment de capitaux, le financement du terrorisme et la corruption, modifiée le 28 juin 2018, énonce que : « Dès réception de la déclaration, le Service d'Information et de Contrôle sur les Circuits Financiers en accuse réception, sauf si la personne déclarante a indiqué expressément ne pas le souhaiter. Si, en raison de la gravité ou de l'urgence de l'affaire, le Service d'Information et de Contrôle sur les Circuits Financiers l'estime nécessaire, il peut faire opposition à l'exécution de toute opération pour le compte du client concerné par la déclaration. 	Les statistiques pour 2019 n'étant pas encore arrêtées, il peut d'ores et déjà être indiqué que sur 15 dossiers transmis à aux autorités judiciaires monégasques, le SICCFIN a utilisé par trois fois son droit d'opposition pour un montant d'avoirs s'élevant à environ 12.776.650 USD et 14.279.780 EUR.
	Votre pays limite-t-il l'application de telles mesures aux cas dans lesquels une déclaration d'opération suspecte a été préalablement communiquée ?
	Non, cela ne se limite pas qu'à ce cas, l'article 51 de la loi n° 1.362 relative à la lutte contre le blanchiment de capitaux, le financement du terrorisme et la corruption, modifiée le 28 juin 2018, énonce que : « Le Service d'Information et de Contrôle sur les Circuits Financiers reçoit à sa demande ou à leur initiative, tout renseignement utile à l'accomplissement de sa mission auprès des cellules de renseignement financier étrangères qui exercent des compétences analogues... Ces renseignements ne peuvent être transmis à une autre autorité qu'avec l'autorisation préalable de la cellule de renseignement financier qui les a fournis. La transmission ne peut être refusée que : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - lorsqu'elle n'entre pas dans le champ d'application des dispositions applicables en matière de lutte contre le blanchiment de capitaux ou le financement du terrorisme, ou ; - lorsqu'elle est susceptible d'entraver une enquête pénale, ou ; - lorsqu'elle est manifestement disproportionnée aux intérêts légitimes d'une personne, ou ; - lorsqu'elle serait pour une autre raison, contraire aux principes fondamentaux du droit national de cette cellule de renseignement. Le Service d'Information et de Contrôle sur les Circuits Financiers peut communiquer, à leur demande ou à son initiative, aux cellules de renseignement financier étrangères qui exercent des compétences analogues, les informations en lien avec la présente loi, sous réserve de réciprocité. 	A ce titre, en 2018, le SICCFIN a utilisé une fois son droit d'opposition à la réalisation d'opérations par des personnes ou entités à la suite d'une demande émanant d'une CRF étrangère. Cette demande présentait des éléments de suspicion suffisants pour justifier la transmission d'un rapport à l'autorité judiciaire. Ce droit d'opposition portait sur une opération s'élevant à 8.281.000 EUR enregistrée sur le compte bancaire détenu par une société étrangère en Principauté de Monaco. Poland	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion? Answer Poland has adopted legislative measures permitting to suspend transaction or to block the account in case when the specific transaction or specific assets may be associated with money laundering or terrorist financing. There was the Act of 1 March 2018 on counteracting money laundering and financing of terrorism (hereinafter referred to as the AML/CFT Law) enacted which entered into force on 13 July 2018. The new legislation aims at implementation of the AML Directive 2015/849 and amended FATF Recommendations, as well as at increasing the level of effectiveness of Polish AML/CFT system. In line with the AML/CFT Act the General Inspector of Financial Information is empowered to suspend transactions or to block the accounts which are linked with transactions that are to be executed as follows: A) Art 86 provides for the procedure of postponement of transaction or blocking the account on the initiative of the obliged entity: “Transaction suspension and account blocking Article 86. 1. The obligated institution shall immediately notify the General Inspector, with the use of electronic communication means, of any case of justified suspicion that the specific transaction or specific assets may be associated with money laundering or terrorist financing. 2. In the notification, the obligated institution shall provide information available to it, associated with the suspicion and information on the expected time of performing the transaction referred to in paragraph 1. With respect to the notification, the provision of Article 74(3) shall apply accordingly. 3. Upon the receipt of the notification, the General Inspector shall immediately confirm the receipt thereof in the form of an official confirmation of the receipt, containing in particular the date and the time of accepting the notification. 4. Until the time of receipt of the request referred to in paragraph 5, or the exemption referred to in paragraph 6, in any case no longer than for 24 hours after the confirmation of the receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 3, the obligated institution shall not carry out the transaction referred to in paragraph 1 or other transactions charging the account on which assets referred to in paragraph 1 have been collected.

		5. In case of recognising that the transaction referred to in paragraph 1 can be associated with money laundering or terrorist financing, the General Inspector shall provide the obligated institution with a request to suspend the transaction or block the account for no more than 96 hours from the date and time indicated in the confirmation referred to in paragraph 3. The obligated institution shall suspend the transaction or block the account immediately upon the receipt of such request. In the request, the General Inspector shall determine assets subject to the request. 6. The General Inspector may relieve the obligated institution from the obligation referred to in paragraph 4 in the case if the available information does not provide grounds to notify the prosecutor of suspected crime of money laundering or terrorist financing or in the case of recognising that the transaction suspension or account blocking could jeopardise the performance of tasks by the judicial authorities and services or institutions responsible for the protection of public order, citizens' security or prosecution of perpetrators of crime or fiscal crime. 7. The General Inspector shall submit the request referred to in paragraph 5 or the exemption referred to in paragraph 6 to the obligated institution with the use of electronic communication means. 8. Immediately after the submission of the demand referred to in paragraph 5, the General Inspector shall notify the competent prosecutor on a suspicion of committed crime of money laundering or terrorist financing. 9. Upon receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 8, the prosecutor may issue the decision to suspend the transaction or block the account for a definite period, in any case no longer than 6 months from the day of receipt of such notification. 10. The decision concerning the suspension of the transaction or the blocking of the account referred to in paragraph 9 can be also issued despite the absence of the notification defined in paragraph 8. 11. In the decision referred to in paragraph 9, the scope, method and time of suspending the transaction or blocking the account shall be determined. The decision may be appealed to the court competent to hear the case. 12. The obligated institution, on request of the customer issuing the instruction or the order to perform the transaction referred to in paragraph 1, or being the account holder or owner of assets referred to in paragraph 1, may inform such customer about the submission of the request referred to in paragraph 1 by the General Inspector. In such a case, the provision of Article 54 shall not apply. 13. The suspension of the transaction or the blocking of the account shall fall before the expiry of 6 months from the receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 8 unless a decision on asset seizure or a decision concerning material evidence is issued." While the article 74(3) stipulates what data shall be provided in the notification, as follows: "Article 74.3. The following data shall be provided in the notification: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1) identification data referred to in Article 36(1) related to the customer of the obligated institution providing the notification; 2) available identification data referred to in Article 36(1) related to natural persons, legal persons or organisational units without legal personality other than customers of the obligated institution submitting the notification; 3) value and type of assets and place of their storage; 4) number of the account maintained for the customer of the obligated institution submitting the notification, identified by the International Bank Account Number (IBAN) or other identification containing country code and account number in case of accounts other than identified by IBAN; 5) available identification data referred to in Article 72(6) related to the transactions or their attempted execution; 6) indicating a state of the European Economic Area the transaction is associated with, if it was conducted under the cross-border activity; 7) available information concerning the identified money laundering or terrorist financing risk and a prohibited act from which assets can originate; 8) justification of providing the notification".

		B) The Article 87 provides for the procedure for blocking the account or postponing the transaction on the initiative of the FIU: "Article 87. 1. In the event of recognising that the specific transaction or the specific assets may be associated with money laundering or terrorist financing, the General Inspector shall submit the demand to suspend the transaction or block the account to the obligated institution with the use of electronic communication means. In the demand related to account blocking, the General Inspector shall determine assets covered by the demand. 2. The obligated institution shall suspend the transaction or block the account for a period not longer than 96 hours from the moment of receiving the demand referred to in paragraph 1. 3. Immediately after the submission of the demand referred to in paragraph 1, the General Inspector shall notify the competent prosecutor on a suspicion of committed crime of money laundering or terrorist financing. 4. The provisions of Article 86(9-13) shall apply accordingly."
		C) Article 89 of AML/CFT Act provides for the procedure for suspending transaction or blocking the account on the initiative of obliged entity, but excluding the participation of the General Inspector of Financial Information. The above mentioned article provides for the possibility to suspend transactions or block account, but this tool is used when the assets stem from the crime other than ML or FT or there are no links to ML/FT and it imposes on obliged institution (with the exception of domestic banks, branches of foreign banks, branches of credit institutions and the cooperative savings and credit unions), in case of justified suspicion, that the transaction or particular assets are linked with any criminal activity other than ML or FT or linked with fiscal criminal activity - the obligation to notify the competent prosecutor's office. The prosecutor issues decision on initiation of proceedings (i.e. imposing the blockade of the account or suspension of the transaction) or on refusal to initiate it. The General Inspector is informed by the obliged institution thereof later on. "Article 89. 1. The obligated institution, excluding domestic banks, branches of foreign banks, branches of credit institutions and the cooperative savings and credit unions shall immediately notify the competent prosecutor of any case of reasonable suspicion that the specific assets subject to transaction or collected on the account originate from a crime other than the crime of money laundering or terrorist financing or a fiscal crime, or are associated with a crime other than the crime of money laundering or terrorist financing or a fiscal crime. 2. In the notification, the obligated institution shall provide information available to it, associated with the suspicion and information on the expected time of performing the transaction referred to in paragraph 1. 3. Until the time of receipt of the decision referred to in paragraph 4, in any case no longer than for 96 hours after the submission of the notification referred to in paragraph 1, the obligated institution shall not carry out the transaction referred to in paragraph 1 or any other transactions charging the account on which assets referred to in paragraph 1 have been collected. 4. Within the time limit defined in paragraph 3, the prosecutor shall issue the decision on institution or refusal to institute the proceedings, immediately notifying the obligated institution thereof. In the event of institution of the proceedings, the prosecutor shall suspend the transaction or block the account, by way of the relevant decision, for a period not longer than 6 months from the date of receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 1. 5. The decision concerning the suspension of the transaction or the blocking of the account referred to in paragraph 4 can be also issued despite the absence of the notification defined in paragraph 1. 6. In the decision referred to in paragraph 4, the scope, method and time of suspending the transaction or blocking the account shall be determined. The decision may be appealed to the court competent to hear the case.

7. The suspension of the transaction or the blocking of the account shall fall before the expiry of 6 months from the issuance of the decision referred to in paragraph 4 and 5 unless a decision on asset seizure or a decision concerning material evidence is issued.
8. Immediately upon the receipt of the decisions referred to in paragraph 4 and 7, the obligated institution shall submit, with the use of electronic communication means, information on the notifications referred to in paragraph 1 and copies thereof to the General Inspector.”

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

Answer

No. Polish Authorities are able to request suspending the transaction or to block the account also without prior suspicious transaction report filed, in line with Art. 87.1, which enables The General Inspector of Financial Information to request the suspension of the transaction or to block the account on his own initiative, as follows:

“Article 87. 1. In the event of recognising that the specific transaction or the specific assets may be associated with money laundering or terrorist financing, the General Inspector shall submit the demand to suspend the transaction or block the account to the obligated institution with the use of electronic communication means. In the demand related to account blocking, the General Inspector shall determine assets covered by the demand.

2. The obligated institution shall suspend the transaction or block the account for a period not longer than 96 hours from the moment of receiving the demand referred to in paragraph 1.

3. Immediately after the submission of the demand referred to in paragraph 1, the General Inspector shall notify the competent prosecutor on a suspicion of committed crime of money laundering or terrorist financing.

4. The provisions of Article 86(9-13) shall apply accordingly.”

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

Answer

The obliged institution which has notified the General inspector in line with art. 86 of the AML/CFT shall not execute the suspicious transaction until the time of receipt of the confirmation from the General Inspector, but no longer than 24 hours after the confirmation by the General Inspector of the notification from the obliged entity, as follows:

“86.4. Until the time of receipt of the request referred to in paragraph 5, or the exemption referred to in paragraph 6, in any case no longer than for 24 hours after the confirmation of the receipt of the notification referred to in paragraph 3, the obligated institution shall not carry out the transaction referred to in paragraph 1 or other transactions charging the account on which assets referred to in paragraph 1 have been collected.”

In line with article 86.5 of the AML/CFT Act the General Inspector of Financial Information is empowered to “provide the obligated institution with a request to suspend the transaction or block the account for no more than 96 hours” from the date and time indicated in the confirmation by the General Inspector of Financial Information the receipt of notification received from the obliged entity. (Please refer to art 86.5 above). The same period of time applies when the General Inspector suspends transaction or blocks the account on his own initiative, in line with art 87.

		The General Inspector of Financial Information notifies the prosecutor on suspicion of committed ML or FT, and the prosecutor in line with art 86.9 may decide on suspension of transaction or blocking of the account for no longer than 6 months from the day of receipt of the notification. (for the exact wording, please refer to art. 86. 8 and 86.9.)

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

NO.

The temporary suspension may also be decided in the situations set forth in Article 48 (2) (a) to (c). Please see the wording in the previous answer.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

The duration of the measure of suspension is decided by the Criminal Instruction Judge and shall not exceed three months, and may be successively renewed for new periods during the investigation, according to Article 49 (2) of Law no. 83/2017.

Article 49 Confirmation of the suspension

1 – The temporary suspension decision laid down in the foregoing Article shall expire without judicial confirmation from a criminal investigation, within two working days of its delivery.

2 – The temporary suspension shall be confirmed through a decision of the judge in charge of preliminary enquiries specifying the data set out in paragraph 3 (b) of the foregoing Article, as well as the duration of the measure, which shall not exceed three months, and may be successively renewed for new periods during the investigation.

3 – Notification to the persons and entities covered of the investigating judge's decision confirming the temporary suspension for the first time may be deferred for a maximum period of 30 days, should the investigating judge, by way of reasoned order, understand that such notification may compromise the result of investigative measures to be immediately developed.

		4 – The provisions of the foregoing paragraph shall be without prejudice to the right of the persons and entities covered by the decision, at all times and after being notified of it or the respective renewals, to request the measure's revision and change, the notifications being sent to the address of the person or entity indicated by the obliged entity, failing any other. 5 – Under the suspension measure, the persons and entities covered may, by way of a reasoned request, ask for authorisation to carry out a one-off transaction covered by the measure applied, which is decided by the investigating judge, once the Public Prosecution Service has been heard and the interests at stake are weighed. 6 – Upon request from the Public Prosecution Service, the investigating judge may determine the freezing of the funds, securities or assets subject to the suspension measure applied, in the event of signs that these are the proceeds of criminal activity or are related to terrorist financing and there is a risk that they spread into the legitimate economy. 7 – Where not specifically set out in this Article, the provisions of the law on penal procedure shall apply on a supplementary basis.

Attachment nr. 1 Practical case 1 and 2.

Romania	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion? According to art. 5 (3) of the Law no. 656/2002, republished, as amended and completed, the Romanian FIU may dispose, based on a reason, the suspension of the operations reported as not performed by the reporting entities and for which there are suspicions that their aims is money laundering or terrorist financing. In order to confirm or to infirm the suspicions, the Office proceeds at analysing the received or obtained financial information in relation to the reported transaction as not performed and, if subsequently, are identified grounds of money laundering, notifies immediately the Prosecutor's Office attached to the High Court of Cassation and Justice. In cases where, following the analysis process, suspicions of terrorism financing are identified, the Office also immediately notifies the Romanian Intelligence Service. In cases where, based on the data and information obtained in relation to the reported unperformed transaction, there are solid ground for other predicate offences than money laundering or terrorism financing, the Office will proceed to notify the competent law enforcement authorities (police units or territorial units of the prosecutor's office). Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted? In accordance with art. 26 (4) of the Law no. 656/2002, republished, as amended and completed, the Office may dispose the suspension of carrying out a transaction that has the purpose of money laundering or terrorism financing also at the request of the Romanian judicial authorities or at the request of foreign institutions which have similar functions and the obligation of keeping the secrecy under similar condition. The applicable procedure in this case is the same as described above. By implementing these legal provisions, the Office does not restrict the application of the suspension measure to the execution of a transaction by receiving a suspicious transaction report. What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation? According to Law no. 656/2002, republished, as amended and completed, the measure of suspension of transactions can be disposed by the Office for 48 hours. In case that, following the analysing process performed in relation with the transactions to whom the suspension measure was ordered, if the Office considers that the period is not sufficient, based on a reason and before the end of those 48 hours, may request to the Prosecutor's Office attached to the High Court of Cassation and Justice, the extension of the suspension of the operation for another

	period, up to 72 hours. The 72 hours are calculated from the end of the initial 48 hours mentioned above.
	Statistical data Regarding the suspicious transactions reported as unperformed, as well as the operations actually suspended by the Romanian FIU during 2017, the situation is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - were reported to the Office 326 suspicious transaction reports containing unperformed transactions, out of which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ø in 232 The Office decided suspending the operations, the amounts for which suspension was disposed being 19.670.096 EUR, 13.482.096 RON, 19.973.006 USD, 15.000 GBP and 8.500 PLN and from these, for 31 cases the period for which suspension was disposed wasn't sufficient and for this reason a request has been sent to the General Prosecutor of the Prosecution Office attached to the High Court of Cassation and Justice to extent the suspension of the operation; Ø in 71 cases, the Office decided not to suspend operations; Ø in other 24 cases, the operations were reported as not performed, being blocked by the reporting entities. Note that, the number of cases for which the Office decided suspension has increased from 52 cases in 2016 to 232 cases in 2017 (with 446%).
Russian Federation	In the Russian anti-money laundering system the authority to block, freeze, seize or recover assets is vested in various agencies. In accordance with Article 7 (10) of Federal Law No. 115-FZ On Countering the Legalization (Laundering) of Criminally Obtained Incomes and the Financing of Terrorism of 07 August 2001 (hereinafter referred to as Federal Law No. 115-FZ), organizations performing operations with monetary funds or other assets shall suspend an operation, except for operations of crediting accounts of an individual or legal entity, for five working days from the day when the customer's order should be executed, if at least one of the parties is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – a legal entity directly or indirectly owned or controlled by an organization or an individual, whose monetary funds or other assets were frozen (blocked), or an individual or legal entity acting on behalf or at the instruction of such organization or individual; – an individual performing operations with monetary funds or other assets. Organizations performing operations with monetary funds or other assets shall immediately provide information on suspended operations to the national FIU – Rosfinmonitoring. According to Part 3 of Article 8 of Federal Law No. 115-FZ Rosfinmonitoring is authorized to issue a resolution to suspend such operations for an additional period of 30 days if it deems, basing on the results of the preliminary review, that the information received is reasonable. Immediate suspension of operations for 35 days makes it possible to initiate additional, more long-term freezing tools. For example, in accordance with Part 4 of Article 8 of Federal Law No. 115-FZ, by court ruling based on an application from Rosfinmonitoring operations on bank accounts (deposit accounts) as well as other operations with monetary funds or other assets of

	organizations or individuals shall be suspended until the reversal of this decision in accordance with the Russian law. Law enforcement agencies are also able to seize property during the investigation of criminal cases related to legalization (laundering) of criminal proceeds. Thus, in accordance with Part 1 of Article 115 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the Russian Federation, a court may seize, upon request from an investigator or interrogator, the property of a suspect, accused person or persons who are materially liable under the law for their actions in order to execute the sentence in relation to a civil claim, fine recovery, other property sanctions or possible confiscation of property The court shall consider such a request from an investigator or interrogator within 24 hours of the submission of the materials to the court (Part 2 of Article 165 of the Russian Code of Criminal Procedure). This process is held behind closed doors and no third parties, including the owner and proprietor of the property, are notified thereof. Moreover, in accordance with Part 5 of Article 165 of the Code of Criminal Procedure of the Russian Federation, the seizure of property specified in Part 1 of Article 104.1 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation, including criminally obtained incomes, shall be carried out immediately on the basis of the decision of the investigator (interrogator) with subsequent notification of the prosecutor and the court within 3 days of the adoption of such decision. The court, having received the relevant notification, shall consider the legality of this procedural action and either maintain the arrest or withdraw it. Following an application from the authorized body, a court orders to suspend operations on bank accounts (deposit accounts) as well as other operations with monetary funds or other assets of organizations or individuals, in respect of which the information on their involvement in extremist activity, terrorism or proliferation of weapons of mass destruction is received in the manner prescribed by the Federal law on countering legalization, or that of legal entities directly or indirectly owned or controlled by such organizations or individuals, or that of individuals and legal entities acting on behalf or at the instruction of such organizations or individuals, until this decision is reversed in accordance with the Russian law (Article 8 of the Law on countering legalization). Immediate freezing of funds is carried out by Rosfinmonitoring according to the scheme 5+30, that is operations are first suspended for 5 days during which the national FIU – Rosfinmonitoring – can issue an order and extend the freezing for another 30 days. As a rule, the arrest or freezing of operations by court decision is permanent, but in the context of criminal cases when the arrest is imposed on the property of third parties (who are not suspects, accused persons or those materially responsible under the law for their actions), the relevant court decision has a time limit and requires to be extended each time when the period of arrest established by the court expires.
San Marino	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction

	going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion? Under AML/CFT Law (Law n. 92 of 17 June 2008 as amended), the FIA is empowered to postpone transactions, to block funds, assets or other economic resources and to monitor any financial business relations. Such powers are used by the FIA when performing analysis of cases related to ML, associated predicate offences and TF. Law 92/2008 sets forth, inter alia, the following powers under article 5: Art. 5 (Powers of the Financial Intelligence Agency) 1. In order to fulfil the functions assigned by this Law, the Agency, by means of a written reasoned act for the purposes of preventing and combating money laundering and terrorist financing, shall have the power to: [...] d) order the blocking of assets, funds or other economic resources when there are reasonable grounds to believe that these assets, funds or resources are derived from money laundering, predicate offences or terrorist financing or may be used to commit such criminal offences; e) suspend for a maximum of five working days, also upon request of the criminal judicial authority or of a foreign financial intelligence unit, suspected money laundering or terrorist financing transactions or transactions concerning assets or funds suspected to derive from predicate offences; [...] g) order financial entities, also upon request of a foreign financial intelligence unit and for a fixed period of time, to monitor one or more business relationships according to the procedures and time limits laid down by the Agency; [...]" On blocking of assets, the AML/CFT Law contains specific provisions under article 6, as follow: Art. 6 (Procedures and effects of blocking) 1. The blocking referred to in letter d) of Article 5 shall be ordered by the Agency through a written reasoned measure. Without prejudice to the time limits set forth in paragraph 5 hereunder, in case of urgency the reasons for the measure may also be submitted in writing after the blocking. 2. The Agency shall notify the measure to the person holding the assets, funds or economic resources according to the procedures deemed most appropriate. If the assets are registered movable or immovable property, the Agency shall order State administrations in charge of keeping public registers to register the blocking measure. 3. Blocked assets cannot be transferred, disposed of or used. 4. Without prejudice to the validation referred to in the subsequent paragraph, the blocking measure shall be immediately effective. 5. Within 48 hours from the execution of the blocking measure, the latter shall be notified to the judicial authority, which shall validate the blocking measure within the following 96 hours, if the necessary conditions are fulfilled. Failing such conditions, the judicial authority shall declare that the blocking measure has ceased to be effective. The judicial authority shall declare that the blocking measure has ceased to be effective also when the precautionary reasons specified in the measure ordered by the Agency no longer exist. 6. The measure of the judicial authority shall be notified to the Agency and to the person subject to the blocking.

7. The blocking shall not exceed 15 days starting from the date of issuance of the order by the Agency. Such time limit shall be established by the judicial authority in the validation measure and it may be extended up to 45 days, upon reasoned request of the Agency, when the financial analysis is particularly complex or requires the cooperation of foreign financial intelligence units. The request for extension shall be deposited with the judicial authority before the expiry of the time limit. The judicial authority shall grant or deny the extension within 96 hours from receipt of the request and shall communicate its decision to the Agency and to the person holding the assets, funds or economic resources.

8. Before the expiry of the time limits in the preceding paragraph, the Agency, with a specific report based on the financial analysis conducted, shall provide the judicial authority with any data useful for the seizure or for the revocation of the blocking measure. The judicial authority shall issue a reasoned order on the above within the following 96 hours.

9. If the blocking ceases to be effective or is revoked, the judicial authority shall take the necessary measures in order to return the blocked assets to the rightful owner or, in case of registered movable or immovable property, to enter the cancellation of the blocking measure in the public registers.

10. The provisions of this Article shall not prevent the judicial authority from ordering seizures under the procedural rules in force. In this case, the blocking measure ordered by the Agency shall cease to be effective.”

The English text of the AML/CFT Law is available on the FIA website.

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

The submission of STRs to the FIA from reporting entities is not a condition based on which the FIA might order the blocking of assets or might order the postponement of transactions.

Based on AML/CFT Law, such powers are used by the FIA when there are elements to suspect ML/TF or associated predicate offences or when there are reasonable grounds to believe that these assets, funds or resources are derived from money laundering, predicate offences or terrorist financing [...] (see above, article 5 of the AML/CFT Law).

As stated in the AML/CFT Law, the FIA might also act under foreign FIUs' requests and under the San Marino Court mandate: It's worth noting that, as of today, this never happened.

As for the Court, this is due to the fact that blocking measures are “convalidated” by the Judicial Authority when conditions set forth in the AML/CFT Law are met and seizure measures are applied.

Of course, the Judicial Authority may order the seizure of funds, assets and other economic resources without the prior issuing of blocking or postponement measures by the FIA.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

Under AML/CFT, article 6 para 7 indicates that “The blocking shall not exceed 15 days starting from the date of issuance of the order by the Agency. Such time limit shall be established by the judicial

	authority in the validation measure and it may be extended up to 45 days, upon reasoned request of the Agency, when the financial analysis is particularly complex or requires the cooperation of foreign financial intelligence units” As indicated earlier, under article 5 of the AML/CFT Law, the suspension of transactions last of a maximum of five working days. Other information to support the answer: statistical data and any other measures The blocking and postponement (suspension) measures are used by the FIA based on conditions set forth in the AML/CFT Law. In the context of San Marino such measures have demonstrated their effectiveness when combined with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) an effective and prompt international exchange of information among FIUs which provides relevant intelligence to the FIA in order to support its suspicious and b) The power to monitor the movements of current accounts and other business relations (see above, article 5, para 1, letter g) introduced recently (see statistic below). This is considered by the FIA an “ancillary instrument” to control/monitor the movements of funds or of business relationships related to ML, associated predicate offences and TF. By this power, the FIA requests FIs to monitor the current account which is analysed and to the report to the FIA any inward/outward operations. In case of outwards operations the FIA requests FIs to be notified duly in advance. If circumstances related to ML/TF or predicate offence occur, the FIA blocks accounts or postpones outgoing transactions, based on conditions set forth in the AML/CFT Law. Based on our experience, the suspension of transactions is ordered by the FIA with the aim to scrutinize the information and documents provided (within 5 working days). Whether elements of suspicious are actually there, the FIA usually orders the blocking measure, based on provisions of AML/CFT Law. Of course, the FIA may orders the blocking measures regardless the adoption of suspension order, if conditions of AML/CFT are met. On suspension of transactions, the main difficulties encountered relate to the limited duration of suspension of transactions power (5 working days) which conflicts with the efforts by the FIA to obtain information from foreign FIUs within that limited period. For this reasons the timing indicated in the AML/CFT Law for blocking measures (15 days extendable to 45 days), based on our experience is considered proper.

Serbia	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion? Answer Article 75, paras. 1 and 2 of the AML/CFT Law reads as follows: The APML may issue a written order to the obliged entity for a temporary suspension of a transaction if it assesses that there is grounded suspicion of money laundering or terrorism financing in respect to a transaction or person conducting the transaction, of which it informs the competent authorities so that they take measures within their competence. The APML's Director may, in urgent cases, issue an oral order for temporary suspension of a transaction, which shall be confirmed in writing on the next working day at the latest. On the other hand, obliged entities are entitled to temporarily suspend a transaction on their own initiative, for 72 hours maximum if there are reasons to suspect money laundering in relation to the transaction or a person conducting it. This is a discretionary right of an obliged entity and is not related to the APML's written order (Article 75, para. 8 of AML/CFT Law).
	Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted? Answer No, these measures are not restricted to cases of submitted STRs, rather, they are triggered by a request from another state authority, for example, prosecutor's office, Security Information Agency, Tax Administration.
Slovak Republic	What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation? Answer Article 75, para. 3 of AML/CFT Law reads as follows: Temporary suspension of a transaction on the basis of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article may last 72 hours following the moment of temporary suspension of a transaction. If the deadline referred to in this paragraph falls on non-working days, the APML may issue an order to extend the deadline for additional 48 hours. Within Slovak legislative measures permitting urgent actions to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction are stipulated in Act No. 297/2008 Coll. (Act on protection against money laundering and terrorist financing and on the amendment to certain acts), especially in Article 16 "Delaying unusual business operations". According to the Act the obliged person shall be obliged to delay an unusual business operation (suspicious transaction) until it is reported to the financial intelligence unit. The obliged person shall be obliged to delay an unusual business operation if there is a threat that if it is carried out, it can frustrate or essentially hinder the seizure of proceeds from criminal activity or funds determined for terrorist financing; or if asked for it by the financial intelligence unit in writing, until it receives the notice from the financial intelligence unit that it has to carry out the unusual business operation. The time period of delaying enables the FIU to execute analysis of the case and as result make a decision, if the case will be submitted to competent law enforcement authority (which is authorized to seize affected funds) or not. If not, delaying of transaction is cancelled by FIU and funds are released to execute requested transaction (after the FIU's notice to obliged person).

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

Within Slovak legislation measures in question are not restricted only to cases, when suspicious transaction report has been submitted to FIU. However, listed measures have been mostly applied to cases, where a suspicious transaction report was submitted by reporting entity (obliged person). There were particularly cases of phishing or fraud (e.g. CEO fraud) reported by foreign bank to a Slovak bank with request to return funds back to remitter's bank account. Such restriction is not regulated within legislation of the Slovak Republic, so it is allowed to apply delaying of suspicious transaction without previously submitted suspicious transaction report, it depends on decision of FIU based on its own analysis of obtained information (reasonable suspicion of ML/TF offence). Measures for transaction delaying are also applied upon the request of law enforcement authority (in cases of money laundering or terrorist financing), however to a lesser extent. There were also a few cases (16 cases in the period from 2016-2018) of transaction delaying on the initiative of foreign partner FIU (however, so far only in cases, where within verification it was found out that the partner FIU's request matches with suspicion transaction report). Delaying of suspicious transactions executed by FIU Slovakia:

in 2018 – 71 delaying; 42 cases were submitted to LEA; in 7 cases the funds were detained upon the prosecutor's office order; in 13 cases a criminal proceeding was initiated; in 2 cases a specific person was accused in 2017 – 123 delaying; 87 cases were submitted to LEA; in 13 cases the funds were detained upon the prosecutor's office order; in 31 cases a criminal proceeding was initiated; in 1 case a specific person was accused in 2016 – 196 delaying; 143 cases were submitted to LEA; in 20 cases the funds were detained upon the prosecutor's office order; in 31 cases a criminal proceeding was initiated; in 2 cases a specific person was accused

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

According to Article 16 (2) of the Act No. 297/2008 Coll. unusual business operation (suspicious transaction) can be delayed for maximum 120 hours; after the expiry of this time-limit, the obliged person shall be obliged to delay the unusual business operation based on the notice from the financial intelligence unit that the matter has been handed over to law enforcement authorities, however, no longer than for additional 72 hours. The period of delaying the unusual business operation shall not include Saturdays and rest days. The obliged person have to immediately inform the financial intelligence unit on the delaying of the unusual business operation.

that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion?

Temporary suspension of transactions:

The Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Act of Slovenia (PMLTFA) (<http://www.pisrs.si/Pis.web/pregleDPredpisa?id=ZAKO7132>) provides in Article 96 the provision enabling the Office for Money Laundering Prevention of the Republic of Slovenia (FIU Slovenia) to issue orders to temporarily suspend transactions as follows:

- (1) The Office may issue a written order temporarily suspending a transaction for a maximum of three working days if the Office considers that there are reasonable grounds to suspect money laundering or terrorist financing, and it shall inform the competent authorities thereof.
- (2) The purpose of the temporary suspension is to give the Office the necessary time to analyse suspicious transactions, other data, and information and to forward its findings to competent authorities.
- (3) If, due to the nature or manner of executing the transaction or accompanying circumstances, no delay is possible, as well as in other urgent cases, the order may exceptionally be issued orally, but the Office shall be obliged to submit a written order to the obliged person as soon as possible and/or on the same day that the order was issued. The responsible person in the obliged person shall make a note of the receipt of oral order and keep the note in its records in accordance with the provisions of the present Act regulating protection and retention of data.
- (4) In respect of issuing an order and if additional information needs to be obtained during pre-criminal or criminal proceedings, or due to other justified reasons, the Office may give the obliged person instructions on the procedure regarding the persons to whom the temporary suspension refers, including information that may be disclosed to the party.
- (5) The competent authorities referred to in paragraphs one and two of this Article shall be obliged to act very quickly after receiving the notification concerning the order or the Office's findings, and within three working days of the temporary suspension of the transaction, shall take measures in accordance with their competencies.

Termination of suspension:

The termination of a temporary suspension of a transaction is covered in Article 97, which stipulates:

- (1) If the Office finds within three working days of the time the order on temporary suspension of a transaction was issued that there are no longer reasonable grounds to suspect money laundering or terrorist financing, it shall inform the competent authorities and the obliged person thereof, which may then execute the transaction immediately.
- (2) If the Office does not act within the time provided in the preceding paragraph, the obliged person may proceed with the transaction immediately

International cooperation with regard to suspension of transactions:

The possibility of suspending a transaction at the initiative of a foreign financial intelligence unit is provided for in Article 110 of the PMLTFA as follows:

- (1) The Office may, under the conditions stipulated by this Act and subject to effective reciprocity, issue a written order temporarily suspending a transaction for a maximum of three working days also on the basis of a reasoned and written request by a foreign financial intelligence unit, and inform the competent authorities thereof.
- (2) The Office may refuse an initiative given by a foreign financial intelligence unit if, based on facts and circumstances stated in the initiative referred to in the preceding paragraph of this Article, the Office finds that no reasonable grounds have been given to suspect that money

	laundering or terrorist financing have been committed. The Office shall inform the initiator of the refusal in writing, stating the reasons for the refusal of the initiative. (3) With respect to the order on the temporary suspension of a transaction under this Article, the provisions of Articles 96 and 97 herein shall apply mutatis mutandis. Furthermore, Article 111 stipulates the provision, that FIU Slovenia may initiate the suspension of a transaction to a foreign FIU: In conducting its tasks of discovering and preventing money laundering and terrorist financing, the Office may send to foreign financial intelligence units a written initiative to suspend a transaction if it discovers reasonable grounds to suspect that money laundering or terrorist financing have been committed. Exclusion of liability in cases of suspension of transactions: The postponement of suspicious transactions is also included in Article 126 of the PMLTFA explicitly stating in para 2, point 3, that: (2) Obliged persons and their employees shall not be held liable for any damage caused to customers or third parties if, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, they: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. ... 2. ... 3. implement an order to temporarily suspend a transaction or instruction issued in connection with the said order Sanctions: Sanctions in case of breach by obliged entities fall under the category of the gravest violations under Article 163 of the PMLTFA, namely in point 29: (1) A fine of €12,000 to €120,000 shall be imposed for an infringement on a legal entity: ... 29. if they fail to comply with the Office's order temporarily suspending a transaction or the Office's instructions issued in this regard (Article 96 and paragraphs one and three of Article 110 hereof); ... (2) A fine from €4,000 to €40,000 shall be imposed on a sole trader or self-employed person for the offence referred to in the preceding paragraph. (3) A fine from €800 to €4,000 shall be imposed on the responsible person of a legal entity, the responsible person of a sole trader or a self-employed person for the offence referred to in paragraph one of this Article. Statistical data: In 2015, the OMLP issued such orders in 7 cases, when it postponed transactions in the total amount of 581.438 EUR at the debt of 9 bank accounts held by 5 domestic natural persons and 2 domestic legal persons. In 2016, the OMLP issued such orders in 10 cases, when it postponed transactions in the total amount of 1.745.084 EUR and 6.266 USD at the debt of 22 bank accounts held by 13 domestic natural persons and 4 domestic legal persons. In 2017, the OMLP issued such orders in 17 cases, when it postponed transactions in the total amount of 813.134 EUR and 5.052 AUD at the debt of 19 bank accounts held by 2 domestic and 9 foreign natural persons and 7 domestic legal persons. In 2018, the OMLP issued such orders in 14 cases, when it postponed transactions in the total amount of 3.103.340 EUR and 283.677 USD at the debt of 19 bank accounts held by 11 foreign natural persons, 7 domestic legal persons and 1 foreign legal person.

In part of those cases, the State Prosecutor Office proposed (before the expiry of the temporary postponement of transaction) the temporary prohibition of disposing with all the funds at the accounts. On the basis of this proposal, the courts issued the decrees for provisional securing of the assets at the accounts.

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

The PMLTFA does not explicitly provide for an obligation, that a suspicious transaction report has been submitted, as can be seen in the wording of Article 96. However, by the nature of the work of an FIU the FIU can only react on information it has received, and these information are most usually suspicious transaction reports. This does not mean, that there is an administrative obstacle when timely proceedings are necessary in order to achieve the aim that Article 96 is intended for. In practice, there are several cases, when suspicious transactions are reported by phone (and after that also in the regular way via electronic reporting system) to the FIU in order to make it possible for the FIU to issue a suspension order as soon as possible. In such urgent cases intensive communication with the obliged entity (usually a bank) is taking place.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

As stipulated in Article 96, para 1, of the PMLTFA the FIU may issue the order for suspending a transaction for a maximum of three working days. In the previous legislation the suspension period was set to be 72 hours, which in practice proved to be difficult especially when bank holidays or weekends would fall under this timeline. On that ground the new legislation (PMLTFA is in force since 19 November 2016) defined the duration in a way, that it includes working days only.

Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion?

Temporary suspension of transactions:

The Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing Act of Slovenia (PMLTFA) (<http://www.pisrs.si/Pis.web/pregledPredpisa?id=ZAK07132>) provides in Article 96 the provision enabling the Office for Money Laundering Prevention of the Republic of Slovenia (FIU Slovenia) to issue orders to temporarily suspend transactions as follows:

- (1) The Office may issue a written order temporarily suspending a transaction for a maximum of three working days if the Office considers that there are reasonable grounds to suspect money laundering or terrorist financing, and it shall inform the competent authorities thereof.*
- (2) The purpose of the temporary suspension is to give the Office the necessary time to analyse suspicious transactions, other data, and information and to forward its findings to competent authorities.*
- (3) If, due to the nature or manner of executing the transaction or accompanying circumstances, no delay is possible, as well as in other urgent cases, the order may exceptionally be issued*

	orally, but the Office shall be obliged to submit a written order to the obliged person as soon as possible and/or on the same day that the order was issued. The responsible person in the obliged person shall make a note of the receipt of oral order and keep the note in its records in accordance with the provisions of the present Act regulating protection and retention of data. (4) In respect of issuing an order and if additional information needs to be obtained during pre-criminal or criminal proceedings, or due to other justified reasons, the Office may give the obliged person instructions on the procedure regarding the persons to whom the temporary suspension refers, including information that may be disclosed to the party. (5) The competent authorities referred to in paragraphs one and two of this Article shall be obliged to act very quickly after receiving the notification concerning the order or the Office's findings, and within three working days of the temporary suspension of the transaction, shall take measures in accordance with their competencies. Termination of suspension: The termination of a temporary suspension of a transaction is covered in Article 97, which stipulates: (1) If the Office finds within three working days of the time the order on temporary suspension of a transaction was issued that there are no longer reasonable grounds to suspect money laundering or terrorist financing, it shall inform the competent authorities and the obliged person thereof, which may then execute the transaction immediately. (2) If the Office does not act within the time provided in the preceding paragraph, the obliged person may proceed with the transaction immediately International cooperation with regard to suspension of transactions: The possibility of suspending a transaction at the initiative of a foreign financial intelligence unit is provided for in Article 110 of the PMLTFA as follows: (1) The Office may, under the conditions stipulated by this Act and subject to effective reciprocity, issue a written order temporarily suspending a transaction for a maximum of three working days also on the basis of a reasoned and written request by a foreign financial intelligence unit, and inform the competent authorities thereof. (2) The Office may refuse an initiative given by a foreign financial intelligence unit if, based on facts and circumstances stated in the initiative referred to in the preceding paragraph of this Article, the Office finds that no reasonable grounds have been given to suspect that money laundering or terrorist financing have been committed. The Office shall inform the initiator of the refusal in writing, stating the reasons for the refusal of the initiative. (3) With respect to the order on the temporary suspension of a transaction under this Article, the provisions of Articles 96 and 97 herein shall apply mutatis mutandis. Furthermore, Article 111 stipulates the provision, that FIU Slovenia may initiate the suspension of a transaction to a foreign FIU: In conducting its tasks of discovering and preventing money laundering and terrorist financing, the Office may send to foreign financial intelligence units a written initiative to suspend a transaction if it discovers reasonable grounds to suspect that money laundering or terrorist financing have been committed. Exclusion of liability in cases of suspension of transactions: The postponement of suspicious transactions is also included in Article 126 of the PMLTFA explicitly stating in para 2, point 3, that: (2) Obligated persons and their employees shall not be held liable for any damage caused to customers or third parties if, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, they:

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

The PMLTFA does not explicitly provide for an obligation, that a suspicious transaction report has been submitted, as can be seen in the wording of Article 96. However, by the nature of the work of an FIU the FIU can only react on information it has received, and these information are most usually suspicious transaction reports. This does not mean, that there is an administrative obstacle when timely proceedings are necessary in order to achieve the aim that Article 96 is intended for. In practice, there are several cases, when suspicious transactions are reported by phone (and after that also in the regular way via electronic reporting system) to the FIU in order

	to make it possible for the FIU to issue a suspension order as soon as possible. In such urgent cases intensive communication with the obliged entity (usually a bank) is taking place.

Spain	A Spanish bank finds a domestic transaction suspicious of ML/TF. In such case, it has two duties: filing an STR to us and refraining from executing the transaction. So suspension must be done on the reporting entity side. We are also supervisors and should the bank execute the transaction and we discover such execution during an inspection, it is very, very likely that the bank will end up fined for doing so. We also included in our law a provision saying that, if they decide to execute the transaction despite of the fact of it being suspicious, they must inform us of the valid reasons for doing so. So they need to explain why. And should their explanation be poor, then supervisory or sanction action will likely be adopted. So the Spanish FIU does not have the power to suspend a transaction, except for the cases where there is a request from another EU FIU, as explained in previous replies. Suspension may come: from the obliged entity itself (under the duty to refrain) or from a criminal Court of Justice. Obliged entities also have the possibility to file a denuncia to the Police or the prosecutor. The Police or the Prosecutor have the possibility to request from the criminal court of justice the suspension of the transaction and then the judge decides. We cannot suspend transactions at the request of non-EU FIUs. So the part between parentheses is wrong. Can it be adopted as an urgent measure? Of course: if not, money may fly away. How long? The judge decides freely. May the court of justice be informed directly of the need to postpone a transaction by Prosecutors or Police? Yes indeed. How often is it used? We do not know. Probably addressing the question to the representatives of the Spanish Judicial Power (acronym in Spanish CGPJ) you may get an answer as they keep statistics on judicial proceedings.

The decision regarding PDP shall be relayed to the prosecutor as soon as possible, who in turn shall swiftly determine if the measure shall remain in place. Case study In autumn 2015 Fipo received intelligence information indicating that specific accounts in a Chinese bank would be used for money laundering and that a person of strategic interest controlled the accounts. A request was made to the largest four banks in Sweden in order to identify outgoing transactions to these accounts since January 2015. Almost at the same time as the request, a bank notified Fipo of payments with a fraudulent source to mentioned accounts. Fipo sized approximately SEK 300 000 (approximately EUR 31 000) in PDPs, but approximately SEK 200 000 (approximately EUR 22 000) were executed. During 2015 at least SEK 4.2 million (approximately EUR 420 000) were or were supposed to be transferred to the mentioned accounts. Some transactions, before the request was made to the banks, were executed, however after the request, several were stopped by the banks.

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

Doesn't. According to part 3 of Article 17 of the Basic Law, the FIU of Ukraine may independently decide on the suspension of the expense financial transactions in case of suspicion that this or that transaction may be related to ML/FT or another crime determined by the Criminal Code of Ukraine.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

In accordance with the provisions of Article 17 of the Basic Law, the maximum duration of suspension is 30 business days.

The effectiveness of the instrument for financial transactions suspension in accordance with Article 14 of the Council of Europe Convention on Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds from Crime and on the Financing of Terrorism (The Warsaw Convention) The FIU of Ukraine conducted a multi-stage and unprecedented investigation of corruption and money laundering by former high-level officials of Ukraine, which, due to the application of the mechanism for suspending financial transactions in accordance with Article 14 of the Warsaw Convention, was suspended and, ultimately, returned to the State Budget of Ukraine.

At the initial stage of this case, the FIU of Ukraine conducted several separate, unrelated investigations, based on suspicious activity reports involving both domestic and foreign companies. The analysis of the aforementioned communications revealed that some of the suspicious companies are associated with former Ukrainian high-ranking officials.

At the same time, the Prosecutor General's Office of Ukraine opened a criminal investigation into the numerous facts of the founders and executives of a significant number of legal entities, with the assistance of the supreme government of the state, taking over by abuse of office at the prior conspiracy by a group of persons with a state property in a large scale and legalization (laundering) obtained by criminal means.

The FIU of Ukraine established that the assets obtained as a result of the committed crimes were legalized, both in Ukraine and abroad. Therefore, an extremely important task was to conduct a successful financial investigation, to find out all details of the case, identify the suspects and establish the amount of legalized assets with a view to their subsequent arrest and confiscation (return). During the conducted financial investigation of the FIU of Ukraine, more than 600 bank statements were analyzed (among which more than 300 bank accounts opened abroad) and information received from 12 FIUs of foreign countries.

According to the results of the analysis, a global scheme for the legalization of proceeds from crime, which engages more than 1000 business entities, has been established.

As a result of the analysis of suspicious transaction reports received from the financial sector, additional statements of accounts, additional identification information and data from law enforcement and other government agencies, a list of foreign companies controlled by different citizens of Ukraine, which had one thing in common - all of them worked in Ukraine together with one former high-ranking official. Financial transactions conducted with the participation of a number of such companies were the final stage of the scheme, which consisted in investing a significant

	amount of funds (about 1.4 billion USD) into Ukraine through the purchase of debt obligations, depositing funds, and also the purchase of shares in Ukrainian enterprises. Already at the beginning of the investigation, a part of the Ukrainian companies, who transferred funds to the benefit of non-resident companies, who "invested" in Ukraine, were also found. More than 20 Ukrainian companies were also associated with another former high-ranking official through Ukrainian citizens, many of whom also acted as controllers of non-resident companies that "invested" in Ukraine. Analysis of constituent-official links and registration addresses of a part of Ukrainian enterprises confirmed that incorporation and adjustment of these companies' activity were made by the same persons (both individual and legal) that related to PEP, and joint registration addresses and managing the flow of funds on accounts of the same IP addresses show the link between these companies. The FIU of Ukraine in 2014 decided to suspend debit transactions on Ukrainian accounts of non-resident companies for a total term of 30 business days. Subsequently, following the submission of the General Prosecutor's Office of Ukraine, a court decision was suspended for arrest. Thus, more than 1.4 billion USD was frozen on the accounts of non-resident companies in banking institutions of Ukraine. Due to active interagency and international cooperation, the FIU of Ukraine determined that the process of withdrawal of funds from Ukraine and their "investment" into Ukraine, were managed from a single management centre with the help of a significant number of companies. The signs of functioning of an international professional "platform" for money laundering with billions of turnover, which provided services to other business entities were also identified. Currently, a part of these companies was eliminated, some of them have improper legal status and were registered by suspicious legal persons. Within the framework of criminal proceedings, according to the decision of the General Prosecutor's Office of Ukraine, according to the court's decision, funds totalling $ 1.5 billion were confiscated into the State's revenue in 2017. Given the foregoing, this case is an unprecedented and successful example of the use of the instrument for stopping financial transactions in accordance with Article 14 of the Warsaw Convention.
United Kingdom	Has your country adopted legislative and other measures permitting urgent actions to be taken by the FIU or, as appropriate, by any other competent authorities or body, when there is a suspicion that a transaction is related to money laundering, to suspend or withhold consent to a transaction going ahead in order to analyse the transaction and confirm the suspicion?  The three principal money laundering offences in s.327-329 POCA, as outlined above, provide for an exemption where a person has received consent to carry out a transaction. This regime provides a mechanism for the FIU to be alerted to transactions that may constitute money laundering and allows for the FIU to withhold consent to the transaction going ahead, whilst they investigate and consider enforcement action.  A person can benefit from the exemption to committing one of these money laundering offences where he has made an "authorised disclosure" (known as a 'Defence Against Money Laundering SAR' or 'DAML SAR') and he has the "appropriate consent". Under s.338 POCA a disclosure is authorised if it discloses to a constable, a customs officer or a nominated officer (a person nominated by an employer to receive such disclosures) that property is criminal property. Under s.340(13), the reference to "constable" includes any person designated for the purpose of the money laundering provisions of POCA by the Director General of the National Crime Agency; this means authorised disclosures can be

	submitted to the FIU which is housed in the NCA. The disclosure needs to be made before the transaction takes place, unless when he began the act the person did not know or suspect the property was criminal property, or he has a reasonable excuse for his failure to make a disclosure before the act. There are two types of “appropriate consent”; actual consent by a constable, a customs officer or a nominated officer under s.335(1); or deemed consent under s.335(2). Deemed consent occurs where a person has made an “authorised disclosure” to a constable or a customs officer and either (i) the person does not receive notice that consent is refused within seven working days, or (ii) where he does receive a refusal within that seven days, but the subsequent “moratorium period” has expired. The “moratorium period” is a period of time in which further investigations into the possible money laundering transaction can take place and decisions can be made about enforcement action, e.g. account freezing or civil recovery of the property. The moratorium period after a refusal is 31 days under s.335(6); it is extendable to up to 186 days by court order under s.336A(7) where further time is needed to conduct the investigation. Under s.336 a nominated officer must not give consent under s.335(1) unless he makes a disclosure to the National Crime Agency (NCA) and receives consent either actual or deemed from the NCA. These provisions allow for the FIU, within the NCA, to withhold consent to the transaction, which allows time for them to carry out investigations and consider undertaking enforcement action.

Does your country restrict such measures to cases where a suspicious transaction report has been submitted?

The authorities can only refuse consent to a transaction concerning criminal property which has been notified to them by means of a DAML SAR.

However, in addition to the DAML SAR process outlined above, the UK has a range of other powers that prevent transactions which are not, as a matter of law, contingent on a SAR having been submitted. S.303Z1 POCA allows a law enforcement agency to seek an account freezing order (AFO), to freeze funds in a bank account where there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the money was obtained through unlawful conduct or is intended for use in unlawful conduct. Under s.41 POCA the Crown Court can make a restraint order to prevent a person from dealing with property prior to the making of a confiscation order.

Whilst these powers do not require there to have been a DAML SAR submitted, in practice, the reasonable grounds for suspicion thresholds are likely in many cases to be satisfied because of information provided in a SAR in the first instance.

What is the maximum duration of a suspension or withholding of consent to a transaction according to your domestic legislation?

Under the DAML SAR process, consent can be withheld for an initial period of 7 working days, then a moratorium period of a further 31 days. Following this, the moratorium period can be extended for a maximum of 186 days.
