

CONFERENCE OF INGOs
OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONFERENCE DES OING DU
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Religions for Peace
EUROPE

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

Painting and Photography Competition on Interfaith Dialogue

Religions for Peace Europe, in cooperation with the Committee for Interreligious and Interconvictional Dialogue of the Conference of INGOs of the Council of Europe, announces an international painting and photography competition on the theme:

“Interfaith Dialogue: Bridges of Cooperation, Peace and Understanding”

This competition aims to encourage young people to express, through art and photography, their ideas on religious harmony, respect for diversity, peaceful coexistence, and the role of dialogue in building a more open and inclusive society.

COMPETITION SECTIONS	AGE CATEGORY	PRIZES PER SECTION
Section A: Painting Section B: Photography Separate awards for each section.	18–25 years old	1st Prize: 500 EUR 2nd Prize: 300 EUR 3rd Prize: 200 EUR

Submitted works should reflect themes such as interfaith coexistence, respect for others, peace, solidarity, friendship, cooperation among religious communities, and shared human values.

Geographic Scope and Partner Participation

The competition is open to young people aged 18–25 who reside in Europe or are affiliated with a European university, faith/community organization, or partner network.

The European Interfaith Youth Network within Religions for Peace Europe will support outreach and encourage youth participation. Other partner organizations may also be invited to disseminate the call and encourage participation, without being considered co-organizers unless confirmed in writing by the organizers.

Prizes, Recognition and Online Voting

Prizes will be awarded separately for the Painting and Photography sections. For each section, the following prizes will be awarded:

First Prize: Trophy, Letter of Recognition, and 500 EUR.

Second Prize: Framed Certificate of Recognition and 300 EUR.

Third Prize: Certificate of Recognition and 200 EUR.

Selected works may also be exhibited during the award ceremony in Strasbourg and promoted through the official communication channels of Religions for Peace Europe and the Conference of INGOs of the Council of Europe.

Online voting: Following eligibility screening, selected paintings and photographs may be published online for public voting. The paintings and photographs receiving the highest number of online votes

CONFERENCE OF INGOs
OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONFERENCE DES OING DU
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Religions for Peace
EUROPE

will be exhibited at the Council of Europe during the award ceremony, subject to space, quality, and safeguarding/data protection requirements.

Evaluation

Works will be evaluated by a jury based on creativity, originality, relevance to the theme, artistic expression, and the message conveyed. Online voting may be used for exhibition selection and public engagement, while the final prizes will be determined by the jury.

Submission Deadline and Contact

Deadline: 1 September 2026

Submissions should be sent by email to: art@rfpeurope.org

Each submission should include

- Full name
- Age
- Country
- University or institution
- Contact number or email address
- Competition section: Painting or Photography
- A short description of the work

Technical Requirements

- Accepted file formats: JPG, PNG, or PDF.
- Maximum file size: 10 MB per submitted file.
- For paintings: participants should submit a clear scanned or photographed digital copy of the artwork.
- Physical painting works should measure between 20 × 20 cm and 80 × 80 cm, where physical transport or exhibition is required.
- Painting techniques may be freely chosen by the participant according to the subject and artistic concept of the work. Accepted techniques may include pencil, rapidograph/technical pen, ink, pen drawing, watercolor, acrylic paint, mixed media, or other non-AI artistic techniques.
- Painting works should be created on physical materials such as cardboard, canvas, wood, stone, or other suitable artistic supports.
- For photographs: participants should submit a high-resolution original image.
- All submissions must be the original creation of the participant.
- Fully AI-generated artworks or images are not eligible for submission. Minor technical adjustments, such as cropping, exposure correction, colour/light correction, or scan cleanup, are acceptable, provided that the original artwork or photograph was created by the participant. Any use of digital tools must be declared in the submission.

Data Protection

CONFERENCE OF INGOs
OF THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONFERENCE DES OING DU
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Religions for Peace
EUROPE

Personal data submitted in connection with the competition will be processed solely for the administration, communication, evaluation, online voting, promotion, and documentation of the competition and will not be used for unrelated purposes.

Use of Submitted Works

By submitting an entry, participants retain full ownership of their work while granting the organizers a non-exclusive right to display, publish, reproduce, and promote the submitted work in connection with the competition, online voting, exhibition, and related educational or promotional activities, with appropriate attribution to the creator.

Photography Permissions

Participants are responsible for obtaining permission from any identifiable individuals appearing in submitted photographs. For photographs featuring children, appropriate parental or guardian consent must be obtained prior to submission.

Award Ceremony and Travel Support

The award ceremony and announcement of the winners will take place on 28 September 2026 in Strasbourg, France, at the Council of Europe.

Attendance at the award ceremony is not mandatory. Unless otherwise communicated in writing, travel and accommodation costs for winners or accompanying persons are not covered by the organizers. Winners who are unable to attend in person may still be recognized, and selected works may be presented or exhibited during the ceremony.

We invite all eligible young people to take part in this competition and contribute through their talent to sharing messages of peace, dialogue, and interfaith understanding.

Websites

<https://rfpeurope.org/> | <https://niric-dialogue.eu/>