I. INTRODUCTION

This call for proposals is launched in the framework of the Council of Europe Project “3950 – Boosting trust and engagement of citizens in democratic processes”. The project aims to further enhance mutual engagement of CSOs and the Council of Europe through a series of information and capacity building activities for national and regional NGOs to facilitate their involvement in different areas of the work of the Council of Europe. Additionally, the project aims at raising awareness and building capacity of civil servants, CSOs and citizens through a competence building program on participatory and deliberative processes at national level in Council of Europe member States.

Project proposals shall aim to produce an added value to the Council of Europe efforts in this domain.

II. BACKGROUND INFORMATION ON THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE PROJECT

The purpose of the Project 3950 is to contribute to countering the democratic backsliding which can be observed in Council of Europe member states.

In particular, it aims to strengthen the engagement of citizens in decision making in their countries and the mutual engagement of the Council of Europe and civil society. Through the project interventions actors interested in fostering democratic culture across Europe will be mobilised and their competences and capacities will be strengthened. The planned activities aim to promote the implementation of the Reykjavik Principles for Democracy, introducing participatory and deliberative mechanisms at national level and creating a "culture of participation" in the Council of Europe member States and with Council of Europe. The project outputs are conferences, good practices, regional workshops, webinars, joint training, tailor-made competence -building programs and awareness raising.

Project partners include CSOs and public authorities from member states.
