

WOMEN FORGING LASTING PEACE

Annual Conference of the Council of Europe Gender Equality Commission

Catherine Turner - Professor of International Law and Director of the Law and Global Justice research cluster at Durham University.

Catherine's work sits at the intersection of international law and global policy, with research expertise in the field of peacemaking, and women's participation in peace and security. Since 2019 she has worked on a project of law and policy on Aligning Participation and Protection in the Women

Peace and Security Agenda, studying the barriers and risks faced by women in conflict affected and post-conflict societies. Catherine engages extensively in policy conversations on women's participation, leading Durham University's involvement in the UK government Women Peace and Security Helpdesk, as well as being a member of NATO's Civil Society Advisory Panel, and the Folke Bernadotte Academy Working Group on Dialogue, Mediation and Peace Process Support.
