The CDADI promotes and facilitates thematic exchanges and peer reviews of experience and good practice among Council of Europe member States to develop common policy responses, analyse implementation and fulfil any other task assigned to it by the Committee of Ministers.

In so doing, it shall draw on the case law of the European Court of Human Rights and build on the findings and recommendations of ECRI, the Advisory Committee on the Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities (AC-FCNM) and the Committee of Experts of the European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages (COMEX);
- iv. promote and facilitate awareness raising of Council of Europe standards in relation to Roma and Traveller inclusion, national minorities, regional or minority languages, intercultural integration, combatting discrimination and intolerance on any ground covered by Article 14 of the European Convention on Human Rights, amongst others religion or belief, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression and sex characteristics; and strengthen the implementation review of relevant recommendations and guidelines of the Committee of Ministers to member States;
- v. follow and support relevant co-operation programmes with Council of Europe member States and, where appropriate, facilitate the dissemination of their results;
- vi. carry out work on cross-cutting topics such as hate speech, hate crime, intersectional discrimination and the impact of artificial intelligence on equality and non-discrimination;
- vii. study recurrent problematic areas in the field of regional or national minority language protection and identify good practices in member States; study data collection in relation to the rights of persons belonging to national minorities and the use of regional or minority languages and identify good practices in member States;
