Draft Abridged Report

Meeting details

The Steering Committee for the Rights of the Child (CDENF) held its fourth meeting in Strasbourg in an online format on 13-15 October 2021 with Ms Maria-Andriani Kostopoulou (Greece) in the Chair.

The agenda of the meeting is contained in the Appendix. The full report of the meeting including the list of participants will be made available on the CDENF's webpage.¹

1. Opening of the meeting

The Chair opened the meeting and welcomed CDENF members, participants observers.

2. Adoption of the agenda and order of business

The Committee adopted its agenda and order of business as it appears in the Appendix.

3. Statement by the Chair and the Secretariat

The Chair drew attention to the main objective of the meeting which was to examine and the draft Strategy in view of its approval before submission for adoption by the Committee of Ministers in early 2022.

Ms Regína Jensdóttir, Head of the Children's Rights Division, reminded delegations of the relevance of the new Strategy, not only as a response to topical issues, but also as the result of an inclusive process, involving other Council of Europe bodies, international partner organisations, and more than 220 children from 10 member States. She expressed her gratitude to the Italian government for their support to the Strategy Launching Conference in April 2022.

4. CDENF's tasks and activities: review of progress, evaluation of completed activities and next steps

The Committee took note and approved the updated CDENF workplan for 2021 and the proposed work programme for 2022 (subject to the approval of the terms of reference for the CDENF).

4.1 Implementation of the Council of Europe Strategy for the Rights of the Child (2016-2021) (CDENF specific task (i))

The Committee

- following delays taken in the preparation of the final implementation report on the current Strategy (2016-2021), decided to adjourn its approval to the next CDENF plenary meeting;
- took note of the fact that notably the activities of the Committee of Experts on the rights and the best interests of the child in parental separation and in care proceedings (CJ/ENF-ISE) and of the Working Group on responses to violence against children (CDENF-GT-VAE) would be pursued in 2022.

4.2. Preparation of the Council of Europe draft Strategy for the Rights of the Child (2022-2027) (CDENF specific tasks (ii) + (vi))

Item 4.2.a. Review of the draft Strategy

The Committee

- agreed to consider content-related comments to the draft Strategy, submitted by CDENF members, participants and observers in advance of the meeting, which had not been previously discussed and agreed upon by a majority of members, either at the 3rd CDENF plenary meeting (18- 20 May 2021) or the CDENF plenary session dedicated to the review of the draft Strategy (14-15 June 2021);
- proceeded with the in-depth consideration of a number of comments made and changes proposed to the draft Strategy and decided to include some of them;
- took note of the reservations expressed by three delegations (Hungary, the Russian Federation and Turkey) regarding any reference made in the draft Strategy to the terms “gender”, “gender-based”, “sexual orientation”, “homophobia”, “transphobia”, or “LGBTI” with specific arguments put forward by each delegation;
- took note of reservations put forward by two delegations (the Russian Federation and Turkey) about the references made to future work to be undertaken to develop age-appropriate and comprehensive sexuality education;
- took note of the reservations put forward by two delegations (the Russian Federation and Turkey) about references made to the Council of Europe Convention on Preventing and Combating Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (Istanbul Convention) which they were not parties to;
- took note of the reservation made by the Russian Federation regarding the appropriateness to reference legal instruments and policy documents of the European Union, related to the rights of the child;
- took note of the reservations expressed by two Delegations (Hungary and the Russian Federation) on the inclusion of certain words and word-combinations in the part reflecting the proposals coming from children;
- decided not to include the changes proposed relating to the above-mentioned reservations into the draft Strategy;
- took note of the two dissenting opinions submitted by the Russian Federation and Turkey towards the end or right after the meeting, that would be appended to the full meeting report;
- approved the draft Strategy as revised during the meeting;
- instructed the Secretariat to submit the draft Strategy, as approved, to the Committee of Ministers for adoption during one of its upcoming meetings.

4.2. Preparation of the Council of Europe draft Strategy for the Rights of the Child (2022-2027) (CDENF specific tasks (ii) + (vi))

Item 4.2.b. Presentation by children and facilitators on their proposals for a future Council of Europe Strategy
