CDMSI BU(2022)02

Report of the 23rd meeting (2022)

Meeting held via videoconference

1. Opening of the meeting

The CDMSI Chair, Mr Taavo Lumiste, opened the meeting. Two Bureau members were excused, with the gender distribution being two women (30%) and three men (70%).

2. Adoption of the agenda and order of business

The Bureau members adopted the agenda of the meeting (Appendix 1) and agreed on minor changes in the order of business.

3. Freedom of expression in time of conflict and aggression

The secretariat informed the Bureau about the Council of Europe's support steps taken with regard to Russia's aggression against Ukraine (in addition to more targeted cooperation and assistance measure): a webpage on freedom of expression in times of conflict, a webinar dedicated to a testimony from a journalist in Marioupol, a regional conference in Tbilisi on "media in times of war", an upcoming webinar on November 25 on electronic evidence of war crimes, and upcoming activities in support of Russian journalists in exile. The secretariat further recalled that the Russian Federation ceased to be a party of the European Convention on Human Rights on 16 September 2022 and made reference to the work of the Commissioner with regard to the ongoing war. These include Human Rights Comments on the need to reinforce the safety of journalists covering conflict, on supporting Russian and Belarusian civil society and human rights defenders, and keynote interventions at the European Parliament seminar on safeguarding media freedom in Europe and at the European Anti-SLAPP conference.

4. Follow-up to the CDMSI's previous work.

The Bureau was informed of the latest updates and advancement of the draft reports regarding the questionnaires circulated on measures taken to implement Recommendation CM/Rec\(2016\)4 of the Committee of Ministers to member States on the protection of journalism and safety of journalists and other media actors and measures taken to implement Recommendation CM/Rec\(2018\)2 of the Committee of Ministers to member States on the roles and responsibilities of internet intermediaries. After a discussion, the Bureau instructed the Secretariat to extend the deadline for collecting answers to both questionnaires until the 25th of November.

With regard to the implementation of CM/Rec\(2022\)16 on combating hate speech, the Bureau exchanged on the foreseeable review of the state of implementation of the recommendation, to be circulated within two years and took note of the desire of the partner committee CDADI to already circulate a brief questionnaire with three questions related to hate speech in times of war. The Bureau recommended that the proposed questionnaire be sent as a joint request by the two partner steering committees, as a way to avoid duplication and facilitate coordination of relevant authorities at national level.

5. Work progress related to the European Convention on Transfrontier Television \(ECTT\) – report on the first steps taken by the reflection group on the ECTT

The secretariat informed the Bureau of the State of play with the work of the reflection group set up to examine the situation with the European Convention on Transfrontier Television \(ECTT\) – report on the first steps taken by the reflection group on the ECTT. After a discussion on subsequent steps to be taken, the Bureau entrusted the secretariat to circulate a paper summarising previous discussions and outcomes of the work of the reflection group. This will serve as support for related exchanges between CDMSI members at the 22nd plenary in December and possible proposals for future work on the ECTT.

6. Ongoing standard setting work - CDMSI expert committees' work progress

The secretariat reported to the Bureau on the 2nd meetings of the three expert committees and their respective deliverables, all on the agenda of the December plenary. It was agreed that the aim of the December discussion is for CDMSI members to be introduced the drafts, hold of first exchange on the general lines of the future deliverables, as proposed by the expert committees and, as appropriate, make comments and suggestions for the future work on the drafts.

- The 2nd meeting of the Committee of Experts on Increasing Media Resilience \(MSI-RES\), was held on 29-30 September, and experts discussed the advancement of their Draft guidelines on the use of digital tools including artificial intelligence (AI) for journalism and Collection of good practices for sustainable media financing. The Secretariat additionally provided an update on the questionnaire on the national legislation and practices in relation to media funding and stressed the need for some concrete suggestions with regard to the draft guidelines on AI, particularly on additional recommendations to member States.
- The Committee of experts on the Integrity of Online Information \(MSI-INF\) held its second meeting on 5-6 October, and experts discussed the advancement of the Draft guidance note on countering the spread of online mis- and disinformation through fact-checking and platform design solutions in a human rights compliant manner.
- The Committee of Experts on Strategic Lawsuits against Public Participation \(MSI-SLP\), held its second meeting on 18-19 October to discuss and make advance the Draft recommendation on strategic lawsuits against public participation (SLAPPs)

The drafting rapporteurs have been entrusted to revise the draft deliverables in the light of the discussions held. The revised versions will be discussed by the three expert committees during their third meetings in spring 2023, also taking account of the feedback received from the CDMSI.

7. Preparations for the future Council of Europe campaign on the protection of journalists' safety

The Secretariat informed the Bureau members of the objectives and targets of the future Council of Europe campaign on the protection of journalist's safety for the period 2022-2027. They were further informed of the holding of the fourth meeting of the secretariat

Taskforce on Freedom of expression and media in October, led by Mr Christos Giakoumopoulos, Director General Human Rights and Rule of Law and coordinator of the taskforce, and during which the concept of the campaign was presented and discussed with relevant sectors of the Council of Europe, stressing the importance of the involvement and coordination with all sectors in the house.

8. Elections

The secretariat informed the members of the existence of a vacant seat in the MSI-INF committee, to be filled through elections by the CDMSI. The Bureau also discussed forthcoming elections for the CDMSI leading organs (one Bureau seat for a duration of one year and positions of Chair and Vice-Chair), which will be on the agenda of the upcoming 22nd CDMSI plenary. The Bureau entrusted the secretariat to circulate among CDMSI members a reminder of the call for candidates for MSI-INF and information on the rules and procedures for elections, based on the Resolution CM/Res\(2021\)3 on intergovernmental committees and subordinate bodies, their terms of reference and working methods.

9. Digital Governance

The Bureau took note of the information provided by the Secretariat on the following points:

- The Council of Europe's involvement in the organisation of the Internet Governance Forum (IGF 2022) to be held in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia on 28 November - 2 December 2022. The Bureau instructed the secretariat to circulate the IGF leaflet informing on this participation to CDMSI members and to provide an overview of the IGF 2022 conference at the plenary meeting.
- The latest updates with regard to the Council of Europe digital partnership, in particular the addition of two companies to the partnership (the International Chamber of Commerce and the LEGO group). The Bureau further discussed the upcoming exchange with META at the plenary, where META will present a discussion paper on their policies regarding data protection, privacy, free speech and safety online, and exchanged on other possible formats of discussion between META and the CDMSI for the future.
- Mr Thomas Schneider (Switzerland), Chair of the CAI - Committee on Artificial Intelligence provided information on the latest developments in the work of the CAI, in charge of developing a legally binding instrument critical to ensuring that human rights, democracy and the rule of law are appropriately safeguarded in the context of the development and use of AI systems. The CAI held its second plenary meeting on 21-23 September 2022 where it held the first reading of the Zero Draft Convention prepared by the Chair with the assistance of the Secretariat. These negotiations are set to continue in the beginning of January 2023 and are scheduled to end by September 2023.

10. Data protection

The Bureau took note of the information provided by Ms Isabelle Servoz-Gallucci, Head of Data Protection Unit - Secretary to the Consultative Committee of the Convention for the protection of individuals with regard to automatic processing of personal data \(T-PD\). Convention 108 is an open Convention gathering 55 parties, to which the Russian Federation remains a party. The modernised Convention for the Protection of Individuals with regard to Automatic Processing of Personal Data \(Amending protocol CETS n°223, also known as Convention 108+) has reached 23 ratifications (needing 38 in total to enter into force) and Ms Servoz stressed the need to raise awareness not only to member States but also to the private sector on Convention 108+.

11. Information on latest developments in the Council of Europe's work and other partner institutions of relevance for the CDMSI (planning for the next CDMSI Plenary meeting)

The Bureau welcomed the exchange of views with the Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights, Ms Dunja Mijatović Commissioner for Human Rights and with the new TC-INF, Ms Aloisia Wörgetter, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, Permanent Representative of Austria to the Council of Europe.

The Bureau further took note of the publication of a recent report of the Congress on local and regional authorities on hate speech and fake news and their impact on the working conditions of elected representatives and welcomed the future exchange with the Vice-President of the Congress on local and regional authorities at the CDMSI plenary in December, to discuss their future report on local and regional media.

The Bureau also welcomed the planned exchange with a representative of the European Commission on ongoing legislative processes on issues relating freedom of expression and the media, in particular the future MFA, and stressed the importance of coordination and synergies.

12. Participation in events of relevance for the CDMSI

The Bureau took note of the holding and advancement of events of relevance for the CDMSI, in particular:

- the upcoming Public Service Media for Democracy Conference in Vilnius, jointly organised by the Council of Europe and the EBU and hosted by the Parliament of Lithuania on 22 November 2022;
- The recent European Anti-SLAPP Conference held in Strasbourg on 20 October 2022, jointly organised by The European Centre for Press and Media Freedom (ECPMF) and the Coalition Against SLAPPs in Europe (CASE), under the patronage of the European Parliament and with the support of the Council of Europe.

14. Other business

The date and place of the 24th Bureau meeting will be determined at a further stage.
