EUROPEAN COMMITTEE ON CRIME PROBLEMS (CDPC)

LIST OF DECISIONS

77th PLENARY SESSION

Strasbourg, 3 -6 December 2019

Council of Europe
Main Building
Room 9

The CDPC, meeting in Strasbourg under the Chairmanship of Mr Slawomir Buczma (Poland), took the following decisions:

1. Opening of the meeting

- to take note of the information provided by Jan Kleijssen, Director, Information Society – Action against Crime, Council of Europe, concerning the election of the new Secretary General, Ms Marija Pejčinović Burić (former Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Croatia) who took up her functions on 18 September 2019. He thanked the French delegation for the very successful French Presidency of the Committee of Ministers and informed the meeting that the Georgian Chairmanship of the Council of Europe's Committee of Ministers started on 27 November 2019 and will last for a six-month period (until mid-May 2020), focusing on human rights and environmental protection, civil participation in decision making, child-friendly justice and democracy through education, culture and youth engagement. Mr Kleijssen was pleased to announce that all member States had now fulfilled their budgetary obligations and that the Committee of Ministers adopted the Programme and Budget 2020-2021 on 21 November 2019, marked by a return to zero real growth, which entails an adjustment to inflation. Mr Kleijssen also highlighted the important work undertaken by the Ad hoc Committee on Artificial Intelligence (CAHAI) mandated by the Committee of Ministers to examine the feasibility of a legal framework for the development, design and use of artificial intelligence, based on the organisation's fundamental values, including a multi-stakeholder consultation. The CAHAI had its first meeting in Strasbourg (18-20 November) where it took stock of all AI-related standards and activities within and outside the Organisation (further information on the work of the CAHAI can be found on the website: www.coe.int/ai, and social media such as Twitter: @COE4AI). Mr Kleijssen finally underlined the importance of the work of the CDPC as regards criminal law aspects of AI, the environment and migration and the revision of the European Prison Rules.

- to welcome Mr Gianluca Esposito as Head of Action against Crime Department, which he will perform in conjunction with his work as Executive Secretary of GRECO and congratulate Mr Carlo Chiaromonte with his appointment as Council of Europe Counter-Terrorism Coordinator;
- to appoint two of its delegates (Mr Steven Limbourg, Belgium and Dr Tünde Forman, Hungary) as members of the election committee to collect the nominations of possible candidates for the elections to the CDPC Bureau.

2. Adoption of the agenda

- to adopt the agenda without amendments (the list of participants and the agenda appear in Appendices I and II respectively);

3. Activities and priorities of the CDPC for 2018-2019 and organisation of its future work for 2020-2021 (Terms of reference) and forthcoming plenaries

- to take note of the information provided by the Secretariat regarding the terms of reference for 2020-2021 of the CDPC and of the PC-OC and PC-CP, adopted recently without any major changes by the Committee of Ministers;
- to endorse the proposal by its Bureau to organise a thematic session during one of its plenary meetings in 2020, preferably during the spring session, on the development of international co-operation in criminal matters with third countries, focusing both on legal and practical issues and obstacles;
- that the priorities of the CDPC future work should be: (i) artificial intelligence, (ii) protection of the environment through criminal law, (iii) smuggling of migrants, (iv) prison overcrowding, (v) international co-operation in criminal matters.

4. Council for Penological Co-operation (PC-CP)

The drafting will continue with a view to finalising the text for approval by the CDPC plenary winter session in 2020;
