

FACTS AND FIGURES 2017

In 2017, out of 318 grant applications evaluated by the European Youth Foundation, 150 were approved by the Programming Committee on Youth.

The EYF awarded over 3 million euros in grants.

Annual work plans account for 47% of the grants; international activities 16% and pilot activities 15%. The remaining 23% was devoted to 40 structural grants.

In total, 186 youth activities took place in member states:

- 48 pilot activities
- 27 one-off international activities
- 77 international activities and 34 other activities within work plans

The main themes tackled were:

- countering extremism and hate speech (27% of pilot activities, 11% of work plans);
- social inclusion of migrants, refugees, Roma (17% of work plans; 15% of pilot activities);
- peace-building (26% of international activities, 23% of work plans).

Nearly 900 NGOs in 45 countries are registered in the online system launched by the Foundation in 2013.

Six new NGOs from Georgia have been validated in 2017; 30 youth NGOs are now registered and able to apply for EYF grants: 19 local youth organisations and 11 national compared to 14 national and 10 local NGOs in 2016.

GEORGIA 2017

In 2017, 4 pilot activities took place in Georgia, with grants totalling €27 900.

THE APPROACH

The EYF approach is based on the development of partnerships with NGOs.

The EYF is more than just a donor, offering financial but also educational support to youth NGOs, focusing on the content and methodology of projects.

Through feedback, recommendations and questions the EYF hopes to create a reflective process, increasing the quality of projects. The focus is on the elaboration of projects that have a tangible, concrete impact.

Two-way communication, flexibility, diversity and respect are the guiding principles of the Foundation and its staff.

Feedback from an NGO on its communication with the EYF:

“Thanks for your interest in understanding better our project. It has never happened in the past that an institution has made such an effort to appreciate our work. The EYF’s working methods make us feel really supported.”
