

Charter

“One World, Our World #SolidAction” Campaign

The Campaign brings together actors from civil society, policy makers, journalists, artists, young people... from various countries.

Through this Campaign, the North-South Centre of the Council of Europe calls for collective mobilisation for solidarity in order to engage in an effective fight against the inequalities.

By contacting the North-South Centre to present my initiative or by participating to this Campaign by any manner, I pledge to uphold and acknowledge the following points:

1. I behave in a respectful, open, honest, and trustworthy manner. Hateful, sexist, racist, homophobic comments, etc. will be excluded from the project.
2. My contributions are not of an advertising nature and are directly related to the objectives of the Campaign.
3. I respect the confidentiality and intellectual property rights of the information shared during the Campaign. I do not seek to exploit the ideas, innovations and projects initiated here, to commercial advantage and/or at the expense of any third person.
4. I acknowledge that my views and opinions expressed in the context of this campaign do not necessarily reflect the official policy or position of the North-South Centre of the Council of Europe.
5. I acknowledge that the North-South Centre of the Council of Europe declines to accept any responsibility for the information published in the context of the Campaign “One World, Our world #SolidAction” which does not constitute a professional or legal opinion in line with the Council of Europe values of Human Rights, Democracy and the Rule of Law.

6. I acknowledge that the North-South Centre of the Council of Europe declines to accept any responsibility about the translation of the information by third parties published in the context of the Campaign.