Introduction

The United Nations Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development lists 17 objectives to be achieved to build a socially inclusive, environmentally sustainable and economically prosperous society.

The Council of Europe contributes to its implementation through a human rights-based approach based on its pan-European dimension, institutions, normative framework and capacity for action.

Thanks to its expertise and proximity to the citizens, the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities carries the territorial dimension of the SDGs, contributing, through a wide range of activities on the ground, to building inclusive, resilient and sustainable societies. The Congress's work addresses 12 of the 17 objectives defined in the United Nations Agenda 2030.

The Congress of Local and Regional Authorities debated and voted on a recommendation calling on national governments to step up the localisation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals \(SDGs\). The Congress emphasises how urgent it is to provide local and regional authorities with the freedom to act and proper means to implement the SDGs.

The Congress's approach is based on three key principles:

- Achieving SDGs is the shared responsibility of all levels of government: international, national, regional and local;
- Local and regional authorities must have proper competences and financial autonomy to achieve the goals in their respective areas, thus enabling national governments to positively report to the UN;
- Citizens must always remain at the heart of the action.

This publication provides a compilation of the Congress's thematic activities which contribute to the achievement of the SDGs and lists the most relevant Congress and Council of Europe tools and texts.

The Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe provides a political platform to reflect on the role of local and regional authorities and to take action with regard to the major challenges of modern society, through the work of its members and its committees.

Over the past two decades, the Congress has developed its activities in areas such as the promotion of human rights, the fight against discrimination, gender equality, local and regional governance, public ethics, citizen participation, migration management and social inclusion.

The work of the Congress is part of the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations Agenda 2030, with an approach based on three key principles: the achievement of the SDGs is a shared responsibility of all levels of government; local and regional authorities must have the necessary competences and financial autonomy; citizens must always remain at the heart of the action.
