

Statement of interpretation on Article 10§4

On examining the first governmental reports reaching it, the Committee felt it necessary to state that it is unable to judge whether the Contracting State that has accepted this provision is, in fact, satisfying the obligations implicit therein unless that state provides adequate information as to the measures taken for giving effect to each one of the points comprised in Paragraph 4 of Article 10.