

Statement of interpretation on Article 13§2

The Committee agreed that this paragraph would be infringed only if discrimination against persons receiving public assistance resulted from an express statutory provision, such as an electoral provision or provision governing admittance to public service.