

Statement of interpretation on Article 13§4

The Committee agreed that, in order to be considered as satisfying the requirements of this paragraph, a Contracting State which had accepted it must not only have ratified the European Convention on Social and Medical Assistance of 11 December 1953, but must also have made the necessary legislative arrangements to give effect to this Convention in its municipal law.