

Statement of interpretation on Article 18

(...) the Committee wished to make it clear that in subsequent biennial reports the governments concerned should mention multilateral and bilateral establishment treaties which they have entered into among themselves. The Committee considered that this subject is directly concerned with the contents of the provisions of Article 18 of the Charter.