

Statement of interpretation on Article 2§5

In addition, the Committee interpreted this paragraph in the same way as Article 2 (3) on the question of foregoing holidays. In view of the need to protect workers, the Committee decided that here too it would be inconsistent with the Charter to allow a worker to forego his weekly rest period, without prejudice to the possibility of allowing for a compensatory period.