

Statement of Interpretation on Article 3§3

The Committee interpreted this provision and the wording "as appropriate", as laying upon the Contracting States the obligation not only to make provisions for consultations at either national, regional, local or possibly enterprise level, but also to proceed to such consultations whenever the need arises.