

Statement of interpretation on Article 7§3

The Committee issued a reminder that, in accepting Article 7, paragraph 3, a State undertook to prohibit the employment of children subject to compulsory education in work which would deprive them of the full benefit of such education. It was not enough, therefore, for a State merely to declare that the problem did not arise in its territory; it was required to enact regulations to prevent such cases occurring.