

Statement of Interpretation on Article 2§1

On considering the reports submitted as part of the third cycle of supervision, the Committee confirmed its earlier decisions on the determination of reasonable daily and weekly working hours. In addition, it held that it should be informed of the measures taken to alleviate the drawbacks of one worker's holding two or more different employments, as far as total working hours are concerned.