

Statement of Interpretation on Article 2§1

The Committee found that the limitation of working hours frequently caused workers to do overtime or seek a second job and that the protection originally intended was thus rendered futile. Aware of the fact that it was not competent to solve this problem, the Committee wished to draw governments' attention to the necessity of seeking ways of offsetting the adverse effects of such situations with regards to the effective protection of workers.