Resolution 353 (2013)REV<sup>1</sup> Congress post-monitoring and post-observation of elections: developing political dialogue

1. The Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe refers to:

a. its Resolution 31 (1996) on guiding principles for the action of the Congress when preparing reports on local and regional democracy in member states and applicant states, and to Statutory Resolution CM/Res(2011)2 of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe relating to the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe and the revised Charter appended thereto, which reiterates that: “The Congress shall prepare on a regular basis country-by-country reports on the situation of local and regional democracy in all member states and in states which have applied to join the Council of Europe, and shall ensure, in particular, that the principles of the European Charter of Local Self-Government are implemented.” The same Statutory Resolution states that the Congress shall also prepare reports and recommendations following the observation of local and/or regional elections;

b. the above-mentioned Statutory Resolution CM/Res(2011)2 which makes clear that recommendations and opinions of the Congress shall be sent as appropriate to the Parliamentary Assembly and/or the Committee of Ministers as well as to European and international organisations and institutions. Resolutions and other adopted texts which do not entail possible action by the Assembly and/or the Committee of Ministers shall be transmitted to them for their information;

c. its Resolution 307 (2010)REV2 on procedures for monitoring the obligations and commitments entered into by the Council of Europe member states in respect of their ratification of the European Charter of Local Self-Government (ETS No. 122), in which it stresses the importance for the Council of Europe to ensure that the commitments entered into by all its member States are fully honoured;

d. its Resolution 306 (2010)REV on observation of local and regional elections – strategy and rules of the Congress, which underlines the importance of election observation at local and regional level and its complementarity to the political monitoring process of the European Charter of Local Self-Government which constitutes the cornerstone of local democracy in Europe. This resolution points to the specific role of local and regional elected representatives as observers of local and regional votes for the legitimacy and credibility of the electoral process at local and regional level;

e. the priorities for 2012-2013 proposed by the Secretary General of the Council of Europe and supported by the Committee of Ministers,<sup>2</sup> which stress the need to increase the coherence and effectiveness of monitoring, allowing a better integration of monitoring results into the programme of activities.

2. The Congress:

a. contributes at local and regional level to the fundamental aims of the Council of Europe to foster democracy on our continent;

b. underlines that its recommendations addressed to the Committee of Ministers following monitoring and election observation missions cannot be effective if not implemented by the authorities of the member State to which the text refers;

c. considers that its political dialogue with national authorities, in the framework of the monitoring process, should be pursued after the adoption of a recommendation, in the form of a post-monitoring dialogue, in order to discuss – together with the authorities – a roadmap to improve local and regional democracy in line with the recommendations addressed to national authorities by the Committee of Ministers;

d. stands ready, at the request of its Bureau or of its Monitoring Committee, approved by its Bureau, to hold political exchanges of views on the Charter with national authorities and all stakeholders involved in the monitoring process, with the aim to agree on a roadmap to implement Congress recommendations resulting from the monitoring procedure;

e. is prepared to enter, at the request of its Bureau or of its Monitoring Committee, approved by the Bureau, into a post-election observation dialogue with the national authorities and all stakeholders involved in the electoral process, with the aim to agree on a roadmap to implement its recommendations resulting from election observation missions;

f. concurs, on the basis of the defined roadmaps, with the relevant departments of the Council of Europe in the field of co-operation activities, with the aim of providing input to, if appropriate, action plans or co-operation programmes;

g. confirms its will to continue contributing to the preparation and implementation of Council of Europe co-operation activities with the member States concerned to make the whole process meaningful and effective. It offers its operational capacities, mainly financed externally, for the implementation of projects to develop and improve local and regional democracy, and also for activities supported by member States and/or other donors, especially the European Union;

h. carries out, in the framework of the objectives set up in the reform programme of the Secretary General of the Council of Europe<sup>3</sup> a regular follow-up of the implementation of its recommendations in order to ensure the effectiveness and impact of its monitoring and election observation activities.
