

LIVING LANDSCAPE

The Fjord Coast Regional- and Geopark - sustainable development on the premises of the local population

Photo: David Zadig

Norwegian Parks Association are defined as «a cooperative model for preserving and developing unique natural and cultural resources in a defined landscape area on the local population's terms.»

Norwegian Parks Association contribute to local value creation and development power. The Norwegian Parks develop sustainable products and experiences based on local roots and collaboration with local businesses, organizations and public authorities. This is how «living landscape» are created, through preservation, development and cooperation.

