

Response from the Croatian authorities regarding the alert 'Death Threats against Croatian Journalists after Man Storms into Zadarski.hr Editorial Offices'

Concerning the death threats received by journalists from Zadarski.hr, we point out that, immediately upon receipt of the report, the Zadar Police Department arrested the man suspected to have threatened the journalists and, upon completing the criminal investigation, on suspicion of having committed the offense of Threat under Article 139. Paragraph 3 of the Criminal code of the Republic of Croatia, handed the suspect over to the custody supervisor of the Zadar Police Department. We also point out that the Croatian Journalists' Association (Hrvatsko novinarsko društvo, HND) welcomed the decisive reaction of the Zadar Police Department in its statement (<https://www.hnd.hr/hnd-pozdravlja-privodenje-muskarca-koji-je-prijetio-smrcu-zadarskim-novinarima>).