

Response from the Croatian authorities to the alert 'N1 TV Crew Insulted and Threatened during Interview'

Concerning the insults and threats to employees of the N1 television during an interview, we point out that the Zagreb Police Department established all the circumstances, and the man who verbally attacked the journalist team was detained within 48 hours, investigated and sentenced to 20 days in prison with a probation period of one year.