

CURRICULUM VITAE Cecilia Dalman Eek

---

Born in Gothenburg on the west coast of Sweden, Cecilia was from early youth active in civil society and politically in the Labour movement and women's rights movement. Later on environmental issues and international cooperation. After technical highschool she has studied at the University of Gothenburg focussing on Political Science and Public Administration. She has been elected official at the local, regional and national level since 1994 and is currently regional councillor and President of Sahlgrenska University hospital in Region Västra Götaland.

Cecilia first political position was as municipal councillor of Gothenburg in 1999. She has since held multiple positions as president of municipal committees. Municipal environmental protection, parks and recreation, city development, water and waste management, handling climate change.

In the Swedish parliament Cecilia was a member of the committee on education and research 2012-2014. She takes an active interest in the development of Life Sciences and is currently boardmember on Sahlgrenska Science Park Co.

In the election 2018 Cecilia became a regional councillor in Region Västra Götaland. Situated on the west coast of Sweden, it is a region of 1,5 million inhabitants and 49 municipalities.

Since 2015 Cecilia has been a member of the board of Sahlgrenska University hospital. At the 2022 national and regional election, Cecilia was appointed President of the board. Sahlgrenska University hospital is Sweden's largest hospital with 17 000 employees.

Among national positions Cecilia has held, is National Windpower Coordinator to the Swedish government, Ministry of infrastructure 2016-2021.

She has been member of national and local NGOs on different issues, among them Famna, an organization for not-for-profit schools and other organisations, and a long standing member and vice president of the national board of Swedish religious Social Democrats.

Professionally Cecilia has a background in communication and media relations. As elected official she is active in traditional and social media.

The backbone of Cecilias political work comes from her long involvement in the Swedish Social Democratic Party. She has held several local and national and international positions in the party, in NGOs and civil society. She has been President of the International League of Religious Socialists.

Current positions include:

Regional councillor, Region Västra Götaland of Sweden

President of the board, Sahlgrenska University hospital

Board member, Sahlgrenska Science Park Co.

Member of the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities committée on social inclusion since 2016

Spokesperson Gender issues, Congress of Local and Regional Authorities

Adjunct member of the committee of democracy of SALAR, national association for municipalities and regions in Sweden.