

Ambasciata d'Italia
Bucarest

Cooperation on Cybercrime: challenges, opportunities and the way ahead

Exchange of views with the diplomatic community in Romania organised by the

Embassy of Italy and the Cybercrime Programme Office of the Council of Europe (C-PROC)

Residence of Italy in Bucharest, 7 Henry Coanda Street, Bucharest

Online link <https://bluejeans.com/125557930/8573>

Thursday, 17 March 2022, 14h00-18h00 followed by a cocktail

DRAFT AGENDA

14.00 – Guests arrival

14.10 – Opening remarks

Ambassador of Italy, H.E. Alfredo Maria Durante Mangoni, representing the Italian Presidency of the Ministerial Committee of the Council of Europe (10 min)

Head of Cybercrime Programme Office (C-PROC) in Bucharest, Alexander Seger (10 min)

14.30 – First session: THE SECOND ADDITIONAL PROTOCOL TO THE BUDAPEST CONVENTION AND THE CURRENT STATE OF INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION ON CYBERCRIME

ITA MinJust (Nicola Russo/Stefano Opilio) – the role of international judiciary cooperation and harmonization in the fight against cybercrime: the Italian perspective towards a sustainable future (15 min)

Cristina Schulman, Chair of the Cybercrime Convention Committee (T-CY), Department of International Law and Treaties, Romanian Ministry of Justice - The Second Additional Protocol to the Budapest Convention: a new instrument for a closer cooperation (15 min)

Francesco Cajani, Deputy Prosecutor at the Court of Law in Milan, T-CY member – The Ariadne's thread and the need to investigate in real time: the role of the Second Additional Protocol in an emergency situation (15 min)

Raffaella Pezzuto, Judge at the Court of Appeal in Florence – Judicial cooperation in the cyber sphere: the example of countering terrorism (15 min)

Ioana Albani, T-CY member, DIICOT, Romania: New trends and legal instruments in international cooperation on fighting cybercrime and collecting e-evidence: challenges and opportunities (15 min)

Alexander Seger / Cristina Schulman: Update on the Ad Hoc Committee for the preparation of a new United Nations treaty on “countering the use of information and communication technologies for criminal purposes” (15 min)

16.00 – Coffee break (20 min)

16.20 – Second session: CAPACITY BUILDING IN THE FIGHT TO CYBERCRIME: THE ROLE OF C-PROC AND SIMILAR INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Virgil Spiridon, Head of Operations, C-PROC – Capacity building by C-PROC: reach, impact and priorities for the future (15 min)

Antonio Mauro, expert for the ITA MinJust: the technological scenario in countering cybercrime and in collecting e-evidence (15 min)

Riccardo Croce, Italian Police CNAIPIC: the Italian experience in countering cybercrime, major challenges and lessons learnt (15 min)

Dan Filip, Head of the Central Cybercrime Unit of the Romanian National Police: the fight against cybercrime in Romania, instruments and evolution (15 min)

Matteo Lucchetti, Italian Cyber 4.0 Competence Centre: training in private and public sector as a preventive tool against cybercrime (15 min)

17.40 – Closing remarks

Traian Laurentiu Hristea, Political Director of the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs – 10 min

Video message with closing remarks by Hon. Federica Dieni, Chair of the Italian – Romania Parliamentary Friendship Group and Vice President of the Parliamentary Committee for the Security of the Republic (COPASIR) – 5 min

18.00 – Cocktail