

Question 14.a.

Section 74 – Execution of a Sentence of Prohibition of Certain Activity

(1) The time served in imprisonment will not be counted into the time of execution of a sentence of prohibition of certain activity; however the time before the legal force of the judgment, during which was an authorization to perform the prohibited activity withdrawn according another legal enactment or the time for which he could not perform this activity due to a measure taken by a public authority, will be counted into the time of execution of prohibition of certain activity.

(2) Once the sentence of prohibition of certain activity is executed, the offender will be regarded as if he was never convicted.